JOINTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

M. Foller, of Harburg, is in the city. Mr. J. M. Bruce, of Waterloo, is visiting in this city.

New goods arriving at Kenton's every day this week. The state fair has never been known to fail to bring a shower.

Yaquina salmon and trout are plentiful in the Albany market. A shooting gallery has been opened below the Revere house.

The train was an hour late last night, the delay being occasioned by the rush at the state fair grounds.

Ex-county treasurer W. E. Curl has purchased the candy and tobacco stand of Mrs. Hardy, below the Revere House.

Fred Blumberg is having an excavation made on his lot opposite Devoe & Robson's, preparatory to the erection of a new business house.

Otto Sallinger has rented the building adjoining the Postal Telegraph office, formerly occupied by J. W. Bentley, and will open next week a cigar, tobacco and notion store.

F. L. Kenton has just received direct from the factory in San Francisco a fine stock of No. 1 cider vinegar, the best to be obtained in the market.

The Safe and Reliable Baking Powder at Conrad Meyer's, is the most desirable powder ever offered to the public. Two elegant prizes, which the buyer can select from a large invoice of Chinaware, vases, etc., are given away with each can.

A new line of carpets, clothing, boots and shoes is offered at A. B. McIlwain at prices that cannot be undersold in the city. The superiority of their goods, together with the very low prices, make them very desirable. Call and see them.

A Marion county woman has beat the record in the hop field. She performed the remarkable feat of picking eight boxes of hops in Thornburgs yard near Gervais in one day last week. Each box holds nine bushels. A few hundred women with as nimble fingers as she possessed would soon place the Puyallup hop crop out of danger.

New Residences. A new parsonage is being built for the M. E. church South on the lot adjoining the church building. A new residence is being built in the third ward by Eli Carter. Jason Wheeler is also erecting a neat residence in the eastern portion of the city. Neat cottages are going up all over the city.

A Child Killed. Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of soothing syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Foshay & Mason.

THE SIFTINGS CASE.

H. P. McGuire Held in $500 Bonds for Criminal Libel—The Witnesses.

H. P. McGuire, the Oregon Siftings man, was arraigned in Justice Humphrey's court yesterday at 1 o'clock for criminal libel, the charge being the publication of libelous items furnished by that paper's Albany correspondent concerning Chas. F. Casey.

Prosecuting Attorney H. H. Hewitt, L. Dillen, O. H. Dyne and J. J. Whitley appeared for the defendant and J. K. Weatherford for the plaintiff.

Mr. Weatherford stated that his client desired to have examined and let the case go before the grand jury. To this the counsel for the state objected, and argued that the case should be investigated. The objection was sustained by the court, and the examination was commenced.

The following witnesses were introduced on the part of the state: C. F. Casey, M. L. Dorris, H. Langman, C. G. Burkhardt and A. Meyer. The former testified that the defendant had threatened to "write him up in the Siftings" if he did not withdraw the suit, also that he would spend $10,000 in defending the case, and that he had influential friends on the supreme bench, to whom he could appeal the case if necessary.

The other witnesses all testified that C. F. Casey, the prosecuting witness, was the Casey referred to in the objectionable items in the Siftings. A. Meyer testified that he had purchased the paper of Mr. McGuire on the Monday after the items appeared.

The court held the defendant in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury at the term of circuit court convening October 22.

Subsequently Charles E. Potter, foreman of the Siftings office, was arrested and was also held in $250 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. In this case Constable Burkhardt testified that Potter had told him that he knew who the Albany correspondent of the Siftings was but that he did not give the name of the correspondent.

The St. Charles Hotel.

The St. Charles hotel will be opened to the public on Monday next. A HERALD reporter was shown through the building yesterday by Mr. Earl Race, the proprietor, who has remodeled, refitted and furnished it in elegant style. There are 40 commodious rooms in the building which have been put in first-class order. All of the principal rooms and halls are lighted by electricity, and speaking tubes extend from the first to the second and third stories. Each floor is provided with water pipes and the closets and bath rooms with hot and cold water are conveniently located. Fire escape ladders will be placed at the end of the hallways from the end of the building. Commodious sample rooms have been fitted up for the use of commercial travelers, and the house in fact has all modern improvements.

RETURNED FROM THE SILETZ.

Archbishop Gross's Return Matters so that the Catholic Indians will have Service.

Archbishop W. H. Gross has returned from a week's visit to the Siletz Indian reservation, where he had a pleasant time. Agent Lane and all the government officials showed him the greatest courtesy and he returns to the city with his sincere thanks for the attentions.

Archbishop Gross was accompanied by Father Croquet, of the Grand Ronde reservation, who is past his 70th year. He has been engaged in missionary work among the Indians for twenty-eight years. The reverend gentleman went by rail to Toledo, thence by conveyance to the reservation, which is about 10 miles from that place.

Last Saturday Archbishop Gross visited all the Indians on the reservation, and Sunday he preached to them in the schoolhouse. He had a mixed audience of backsaprows and their papposes and government officials. At the conclusion of the sermon, which occupied an hour in its delivery, the Indians crowded around the archbishop and complimented him highly, at the same time extending him an invitation to come again.

"Although many of the Indians are at present engaged in hop picking, I found more on the reservation than I expected," said Archbishop Gross. "I was very much pleased with everything I saw on the reservation, it is so well kept. There are many houses on it, built and owned by Indians. There are many Catholic Indians on the reservation, and I have made arrangements so that they will have services at least once a month."

Archbishop Gross is said to be the first Catholic archbishop who has ever visited the Siletz reservation.

REPUBLICAN CLUB CONVENTION.

The Rain Interferes With the Demonstrations at Portland—The Proceeding.

PORTLAND, Sept. 20.—The convention of the republican clubs of Oregon was called to order this afternoon at 2 o'clock, but on account of the inclemency of the weather and the postponement of the demonstrations to-night, a large number of republicans had gone home, hence the attendance was not very large. The name of M. L. Lane, of Salem, was entered upon the records as delegate from the Salem republican club. On the nomination of Mr. Lane the name of Hon. John G. Wright was added to the executive committee to represent Marion county. M. G. Griffin moved that the executive committee be instructed to prepare an address to be issued to the people of Oregon concerning the workings of the convention, which was adopted by acclamation. By motion of Hon. J. Leasure the meeting adjourned sine die.

Immediately Hon. M. C. George called to order the members of the executive committee to make arrangements preparatory to a general adjournment.

Chairman George was instructed to write an address to be extended to the people of the state, and also write a letter asking membership for the state league in the national republican league. On motion of Secretary Miller the meeting adjourned till the call of the president.

THE STATE FAIR.

A Rainy Day and a Sleepy Track—The Exhibits.

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD. SALEM, Sept. 20.—The rain which fell nearly incessantly during the forenoon interfered materially with the fair to-day. The attendance was not as large as was expected and the track was in a miserable condition. The crowd packed the pavilion to its utmost capacity and the roof leaked badly, causing little streams of water to trickle down the back of the unwary visitor when he was looking for it. The display in the pavilion was very similar to that of last year except in the fine art department, which is excellent. Some quilts, which were on exhibition in 1884, bearing the physiognomy of the presidential candidates of that year, and which had been expected to win a prize on each succeeding year since, were in the accustomed place. Such exhibits lead to the exclamation, "give us something fresh."

The management deserve much credit for the orderly manner in which affairs are managed. A fight occurred to-day on the track when Van B. DeLashmunt ordered that the two brisiers be arrested and taken from the grounds and not allowed to re-enter, which was promptly done.

The exhibits of fine stock is better than for many years. Some of the best horses ever at the fair are here now, and it is to be regretted that the rain has interfered with the last day's races.

The races were as follows: Handicap run, single dash, one three eighths miles; purse, $300. Nevada, 139 pounds, by H. R. Baker. Rosa Lewis, 115 pounds by W. H. Babbs. Lady Duffy, 105 pounds, by W. H. Mihatlock. Oceanic, 100 pounds, by R. E. Bybee. Rolee Boley, 75 pounds, by W. H. Babbs. The race was won by Rosa Lewis.

Special trot, 2:27 class, best 3 in 5; purse, $500. Kitty Lynch, by J. K. Misner. D. K. W., by K. Barnes. Lady Dawn, by C. B. Jeffries. Lady Maxim, by H. Kirkendall. Col. Bradshaw, by J. H. Butler. Was won by Kitty Lynch in three straight heats, with Col. Bradshaw second.

The special run gotten up by horsemen, free for all, five eighths dash, was postponed on account of the bad condition of the track.

MOVEMENTS OF THE MILITARY.

Gen. Gibbon on His Way to Yaquina—The Tramping Expedition.

Gen. Gibbon, commanding the department of the Columbia, and Capt. C. A. Woodruff, U. S. A., left Wednesday with Capt. Willard Young, via the west side railroad, for Yaquina bay, where they will look over the harbor improvements.

The party will overtake near McMinnville the tramping expedition which left the barracks at Vancouver about a week ago under command of Capt. McConaha. The command includes companies E and H of the Fourteenth infantry, and one platoon of artillery. The object of the expedition is to familiarize the troops with the work of marching. The tramp will cover about 400 miles of ground and occupy something like a month in its completion. The route is by various lines of march to Yaquina and return, touching the sites of old Fort Yamhill and Fort Hoskins.

What is the "nervous trouble" with which so many are now afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are included to cover what our grandfather called Biliousness, and all embraced by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which in perverting its functions, finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channels is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Nerves, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

Woman's Discovery.

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony saying: "I have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother was also very low with malarial fever and Jaundice, was cured by timely use of this medicine. An satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its everest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and it was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Lattie Lynde. Thus write W. C. Hanrick & Co., of Shelby N. C.: Get a free trial bottle at Foshay & Mason's."

Eureka.

The motto of California means, I have found it. Only in the land of sunshine, where the orange, lemon, olive, fig and grape bloom and ripen, and attain their highest perfection in mid-winter, are the herbs and gum found that are used in that pleasant remedy for all throat and lung troubles, Santa Abie the ruler of coughs, asthma and consumption. Foshay & Mason, sells it under a guarantee at $1.00 a bottle. Try California Cat-R-Cure, the only guaranteed cure for catarrh.

If you want us to call at your house to take orders, please leave word at our store. Brownell & Standard.
