THE MAILS. Mails at the Albany postoffice close as follows: For all offices north, 6:30 A.M.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

BUYING BONDS.

The discussion upon the subject of buying government bonds, brought out by the clause in Gen. Harrison's letter of acceptance which said: "The surplus now in the treasury should be used in the purchase of bonds."

Let us figure a little and see what there is to alarm this well-known official in such purchases. A $100 bond due in 1907 has 19 years to run.

Our "well-known" official goes on to say that "the bondholders have made $20,000,000 this year by General Harrison's policy."

THE McMinnville Telephone publishes a complete history of the small-pox scare in that city, together with a scathing censure of a member of the city council named Campbell, who skipped to the hills so soon as he found out smallpox was around.

THE nation is liberally coming to the rescue of the yellow fever sufferers. A joint resolution has passed congress, appropriating $100,000 for this purpose.

Label suits are popular now. The Seattle Post-Intelligence has one valued at $15,000 brought by the sheriff, who had been criticized by that paper.

Prize sheep holders, the nearest thing to a lottery.

THREE DISTINCT POINTERS.

The following self-explanatory extracts contain a fund of information of those who believe that the copy of this country can be bettered by adopting free trade.

"The present condition of American manufactures shows the fallacy of the free trade doctrine that the productions of a country are raised in price by protective duties."

Because it is my deliberate judgment that the prosperity of America is mainly due to its system of protective laws, I urge that Germany has now reached that point where it is necessary to imitate the tariff system of the United States.—Prince Bismarck's speech to the German Reichstag,

"Under the shelter of a protective system the people of the United States have organized a powerful industry which rivals that of England in cheapness."

At the republican primary election in San Francisco Thursday a gang of several hundred toughs, follows of a democratic politician known as "Blind Boss" Buckley, made outrageous raids upon the different voting places and attacked those engaged in counting the votes.
