NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

EDITORIAL NOTES. SOME humanitarian, with a practical turn of mind, is talking of applying telephones to the infectious wards of the French hospitals.

The very elements seem to favor the republican cause. Recently at a republican gathering at Olympia, W. T., a rain and thunder storm furnished the bombardment and illumination.

The claim made by Gov. Hill, in one of his Indiana speeches, that to the democratic party is due the credit of all the action on the tariff revision matter.

Iowa's new liquor law went into effect on Oct. 1st. By it only druggists can legally keep liquors for sale, and they under such ironclad restrictions that many druggists refuse to take out license to sell.

A SIGNIFICANT fact for those to consider who have such a profound respect, love and admiration for foreign markets and manufactures is that during the past season the fine salmon fishing business on this coast would have been a disastrous failure if the English and foreign market had been depended upon.

Good temper and beauty of person seems to be rather foreign to each other, judging from the results of exhibitions where prizes were awarded to the most beautiful woman. It is said that an exhibition of this kind in New York several years ago led to an attack on the lucky woman who captured the first prize, and now comes a report of a similar shindy at the close of a beauty show in London. The English women, however, surpassed their Yankee sisters, for one of them was so extremely vulgar as to spit in the face of the first-prize winner and to try to gouge out her eyes.

TEMPERANCE NOTES. Contributed by the W. C. U. The following is the record which Atlanta, Ga. shows under high license. "A count was made last Saturday of the cases booked in the station house for the first three months of 1887, and for the same months of 1888. During this year, or since the saloons have opened in Atlanta, there has been one thousand one hundred and thirty-two more cases booked than during the same period of last year under prohibition.

This great increase in the record of crime is certainly the outgrowth of the high license, open bar system, and every man who cast his ballot for anti-prohibition in that city, or any other, should pause and think what this immense increase of crime, poverty and woe means. See the figures; not a single hundred, but more than eleven hundred is the startling record! Surely an arrest of thought should follow such a disclosure.

Cigarette manufacturers and vendors are doing everything in their power to push their wares among boys, young men and even among women. Their appeal is many times vulgar in the extreme. It is quite time that more legal restraint was placed upon the business, backed by an enlightened, resolute, public opinion.

Miss Jane E. Weeden, city missionary of Portland, has collected and forwarded $100 for the temperance temple. The amount has been raised by forming baby bands.
