Ankle Crushed. A ten-year-old son of Warren Hultbert, while playing with other boys near this city yesterday with the horse power of a wood saw, had his right ankle frightfully crushed by getting it caught in the machinery, his foot being nearly cut off. He was brought to town and the wound was sewed up by Dr. Wallace, the little sufferer undergoing the process manfully without the use of any chloroform. The wound bled profusely, rendering him weak, but he does not promise to be serious.

Pillow sham holders, the neatest thing out at Brink's. A clean towel for every customer at creek's.

SOMEWHAT ROMANTIC.

W. B. Shannon, who advertised in the Herald, will be wedded to-day.

About two weeks ago W. B. Shannon, a well-to-do market gardener, living across the river, advertised in the Herald for a wife. He received a basketful of letters from girls, old maids, grass widows, widows of high and low degree and others who were willing to correspond with him "with a view to matrimony," but about a week ago he received a reply which impressed him most favorably. A well-preserved widow of about 45, wrote, modestly stating that she was a good cook, not afraid of housework and was not without some means, and briefly designated the residence where he might call to see her, which invitation he accepted forthwith.

One call followed another, and it did not require many days for them to discover that they were of one mind upon the subject. In fact their brief acquaintance had developed into more than friendship, and there were "Two minds with but a single thought, Two hearts that beat as one."

The day was accordingly set, and to-day at 1 o'clock the contracting parties, Mr. W. B. Shannon and Mrs. B. A. Reynolds, who were brought together through that all-powerful agent, printers' ink, will be united in marriage at the home of the bride's daughter in this city, George Humphrey, Esq., officiating.

The moral is obvious: If you don't see what you want, ask for it through the columns of the newspaper.

WANTS AN OUTLET.

The citizens of Salem are trying to imitate Albany's example in securing a direct outlet to the sea. At a meeting of the Salem Board of Trade Monday evening the advisability of making an effort to secure direct railroad connection with the sea, via Astoria, was considered.

It was stated to the board as the intention of the Astoria Railroad Company to build from Astoria to Tillamook via Clatsop beach, thence through the low pass east of Tillamook to the Grand Ronde country, and thence to a junction with the Oregon Pacific. It was suggested that there exists a very good chance to secure, by proper effort the passage of this road through Salem.

A committee of five, consisting of President Wright, Secretary Manning, T. McF. Patton, J. H. Albert and R. J. Hendricks, were appointed to correspond with the Astoria company and ascertain what prospect there is of securing the road. If deemed expedient the committee is empowered to visit Astoria.

This is the road which the Astoria people have proposed to build to Albany. It cannot connect with the Oregon Pacific at Salem, for the very good reason that the Oregon Pacific railroad does not pass through Salem, but through Albany, and as its connection with the Southern Pacific is at Albany, this city will be the natural connection of such road, if it is built.

Harbor Improvement.

Work at both Yaquina bay and Coquille river is progressing rapidly. At Yaquina bay, eighty-two men are at present engaged in repairing the tramway and extending the south jetty. At the mouth of the Coquille river eighteen men are at present working. They are blasting rock and working on the jetty.

A Ripe Old Age.

A dispatch was received in this city yesterday, announcing the sudden death of Henry Althouse at his home in Wilmington, Ills. The deceased was the father of Mrs. S. E. Young, J. W. and S. H. Althouse, in this city. He was 90 years of age and had been in good health up to a short time previous to his death.

From McMinnville.

The small-pox excitement in McMinnville has entirely died out. Two inmates of the pest house have been discharged, and all the others are on the way to recovery. Amity has raised its quarantine, and it is expected that Lafayette will do likewise shortly. The scare very badly injured business in McMinnville during its presence, but things have now assumed their wonted appearance.

New Life-Saving Stations.

The president has approved the act establishing life-saving stations on the Pacific coast, as follows: At the entrance to Yaquina Bay, Or.; mouth of the Umpqua river, Or.; one near Loomis's place, on the Heads, Washington territory; one at the entrance to Gray's harbor; and one between the Ocean house and Point San Pedro, south of the entrance to San Francisco harbor.

Investigation Ordered.

A dispatch has been received in this city from Washington to the effect that the department has ordered an investigation of the affairs of the U. S. training school at Chemawa. Col. Lee's suspension of two or three of the employees will be thoroughly ventilated.—Statesman.

STATE DISPATCHES.

News Items from the State Capitol—Our Budget of Lebanon News.

Special to the Herald. SALEM, Oct. 16.—A writer in the Evening Journal, of this city, after a trip over the Oregon Pacific railroad extension, says: The road will be completed to Mehama and trains will be running from Albany by week after next. Then Albany will be the base of supplies.

It looks like a great pity that the moneyed men of Salem did not more determinedly push for a branch line somewhere near Stayton. Inevitably a great deal of trade and travel will be diverted from the capital to Albany. For instead of a long, dusty, or muddy stage drive from Stayton or Mehama to Salem, purchasers will soon be able to step on the cars, and ride smoothly, returning in a few hours. And when the road is finished through to Eastern Oregon, and the Eastern states—many who would take tickets to this city if we had a branch line will alight at Albany.

All along the line government land has of late been eagerly sought for, and the settlers report it about all taken up, as far as the road is graded. Mills City and Gatesville on Mt. Horeb are new towns. At the former a very expensive ditch is being dug for a mill already in process of construction, which is to cut 80,000 feet of lumber per day. The fine timber claims are rapidly being taken up. Nineteen soldiers from Albany have taken up homesteads, intending to fill out the balance of the five years, after deducting their service in the army. The mill men are cutting down considerable timber, allowing near the railroad as high as 60 cents per thousand, stumpage.

SALEM, Oct. 16.—The following named persons were to-day commissioned notaries public by Gov. Penoyer: H. C. Kelley, Oregon City; Wm. Gregory, Portland; F. P. Nutting, Albany; M. F. Munkey, Portland.

THE PEYSER-COHEN CASE.

SALEM, Oct. 16.—The case of G. Cohen & Bros. vs. M. Peyser, change of venue from Linn county, is still on trial.

LEBANON NEWS.

LEBANON, Oct. 16.—Last evening some of the many friends of Mrs. J. O. Roland, who will shortly remove with her husband to Prineville, met at her residence and surprised her by the presentation of a set of silver knives, forks, teaspoons, tablespoons and butter knife. Mrs. F. M. Miller, on behalf of the donors, presented the articles with the following neat address: "Mrs. Roland, it is with deep and sincere regret that your many friends here in Lebanon have learned that you and your esteemed family are soon to leave us and find a new home. Your presence, kindness, as well as many favors extended, have endeared you to all of our citizens. Thinking that in days to come a little reminder of the years you have spent in our midst might bring happy recollections of days gone by, your many lady friends have authorized me to present you these small tokens to take with you to your new home. Please accept them as coming from your friends for the many generous acts of kindness you have displayed while with us. As time rolls on may it deal gently with you and yours in all things, ever remembering that many heartfelt wishes will be with you."

Mrs. Roland was completely overcome, but her husband came to her rescue and made a neat response. After a short stay the entire company sang "Auld Lang Syne." After many good-byes and God speed you, they left for their homes. T. W. Marks, one of our estimable young men, accompanied Mr. Roland's family to Prineville. There will be a mite social at F. M. Miller's Friday evening.

Grand Master Mayer, of the grand lodge of Oregon, is visiting the Masonic lodge here. H. Harkness' family moved to Albany to-day, much to the regret of the citizens of Lebanon.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

THE RIVER WORK AT CORVALLIS.

The Citizens of Our Neighboring Town Afraid of Being Left High and Dry.

Major Jones, chief of United States engineer corps, department of the Columbia, will go to Corvallis to-day to make arrangements for the construction of a revetment in the Willamette river near that place.

The cause of the trouble is this: For years past, every time the river became unusually high, there was imminent danger that the river would wash a cut through the peninsula which is just opposite the town, and which throws the river to the place.

In order to avert such a calamity an appropriation of $14,000 has been made to build the revetment—which will be made of brush, laid down and staked with living willows, which will take root and grow, forming a permanent bank. The work will be done about a mile above the town. Should the river desert the bed and cut across the peninsula, it would leave the town about a mile away, and injure it incalculably. In such a case, however, it could be turned back into its natural channel, but the cost would be a great deal heavier than to put in the revetment, though the appropriation will not cover the cost as it is.

WIDOW O'BRIEN.

This Funny Musical Comedy to be Rendered at the Albany Opera House.

On Saturday evening October 20, the W. F. Rochester Musical Comedy Company, will make its first appearance in this city. They number 12 ladies and gentlemen and come direct from the Bush Street theatre, San Francisco. They will appear in the very funny play of Widow O'Brien which the press of San Francisco speak in the highest terms. It is full of pretty music and all the latest novelties of the day. They carry their own scenery and music, and a rare treat may be expected. The company is composed of the following well known comedians: Jas. T. Kelley, Will T. Bray author of "Papa's Baby Boy" and "I'm a Dandy But No Dude" and other popular songs. Harry Dowley the great Australian tenor, Miss Frida Stockmeyer, the charming soubrette, Rosina Evans, Ritta Mann and several others. Seats now on sale at Blackman's drug store.

National Surgical Institute.

Two or more surgeons representing this institute will be at the Revere House, Albany Nov. 6th, or at the St. Charles hotel Lebanon Nov. 7th, 1888. They come fully prepared with all the apparatus necessary for the successful treatment of their specialties, curvature of the spine, dislocation of the hip and knee joint, crooked limbs, club feet and all bodily deformities. Their success in treating these troubles as well as all chronic and sexual diseases has made for the institute a national reputation. Upon application, references will be furnished from patients in all parts of the United States. All persons who are suffering from any of these complaints, should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity for relief.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue they ravages they extend to the lungs producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At once you must act with promptness; as long as a cold goes without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

Given Away.

W. F. Read proposes to give away a fine gold watch with his gold and silver prize start, the very best fitting and best made white shirt in the market. The price is as low or lower than any equally as good shirt in the market.

Guard Against The Strike.

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you.
