JOINTS ABOUT TOWN.

Albany is infested with tramps. Ladies gold and silver watches at reduced prices at F. M. French's.

The Congregational church has purchased a $250 organ of G. L. Blackman.

Hon. J. C. Leasure, of Pendleton, arrived in the city last evening from Corvallis.

Those seven and ten dollar watches at French's are the "boss." Each one guaranteed.

J. J. Dorris arrived at home from Eastern Oregon yesterday in good health and spirits.

Rev. Thomas Small, the pioneer minister of the Waldo Hills, will preach at the Congregational church to-day.

During the illness in the family of the postmaster, the familiar face of F. L. Kenton is to be seen at the postoffice window.

Hot lunch will be served at the W. C. T. U. hall by the ladies of the Presbyterian church on election day from 11 A. M. to 7 P. M.

Miss McLain, recently of Portland, is now prepared to do dressmaking in connection with Ida M. Brush's millinery store, in Strahan's new brick.

Rev. F. P. Tower, D. D., of the Willamette university, will preach at the M. E. church in this city this morning and evening, to which all are invited.

Otto Sallinger has rented the building adjoining the Postal Telegraph office, formerly occupied by J. W. Bentley, and has opened a cigar, tobacco and tobacco store.

Don't fail to call at the Willamette Packing Co's store and buy some of their fine fresh cream candies, of which they have just received a large assortment.

The empty valise of Nick Zimmerman which was stolen several days ago, was found yesterday under the Oregon Pacific depot, the $300 in notes being gone.

The DAILY HERALD, which will contain full telegraphic returns, will be delivered by carrier from now until Jan. 1, 1889, for $1, or will be mailed to new subscribers through the postoffice for 75 cents.

The Oregon Land Co. has for sale choice fruit lands 2 1/2 miles from Albany, which will be sold in 10 or 20 acre lots.

The Democrat insinuates that the HERALD publishes as telegraphic news correspondence sent by letter. If the Democrat will particularize just what correspondence, it will be shown wherein it is talking about something it knows nothing about.

C. T. Philippott and Harry M. Langdon, who were disappointed in not making a foot race with Cameron, appeased themselves by making up a $100 125 yard race together yesterday, Langdon winning 12 3/5 seconds.

Next Thursday Night. Daniel Sully, who has just finished a successful season in Portland, will appear at the opera house in Albany next Thursday night in the comedy, "Daddy Nolan."

The high opinion in which the play is held is well expressed by the following from the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin: "Daniel Sully appeared at the opera house, last evening, in his new play, Daddy Nolan. The play is a sequel to The Corner Grocery. For an Irish comedy Daddy Nolan is unusually clever, and the title role, as presented by Mr. Sully, is a superior piece of acting of the kind."

Daddy Nolan is a delightful mixture of humor and pathos and wins the hearts of the audience without any apparent effort. It is a characterization that must be seen to be appreciated. The other parts are mostly in satisfactory hands. The elaborate realistic setting of the stage is a feature of the performance."

Three Runaways. The truck team of B. M. Huston became frightened and ran away yesterday. His team ran into and frightened the team of Jos. Myers, which also ran away. J. W. Crossen's hack horse then became unmanageable and turned a summer-sault backwards upon the back, breaking off the dashboard and frightening the driver out of the back-end of the hack. The teams were caught and the damage was nominal.

Fresh Butter. At the Willamette Packing Company's store, 6 1/2 pounds of apple, plum, tomato and pear butter, 50 cents per pair.

GENERAL NEWS.

Congress Preparing to Adjourn At Last.

CLEVELAND SENDS NO MESSAGE.

Adjourns Without Date—Spanish Rioters—German Consulate Outrages at Havre.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—When the house met this morning at 11 o'clock, on the last day of the most protracted session in the annals of congress, in addition to the speakers, there were fifteen members in attendance. In the gallery there were not more than one hundred persons to witness the closing scene. The speaker appointed McMillan, of Tennessee, Clements, of Georgia, and Ryan, of Kansas, a committee on the part of the house to wait upon the president and inform him that congress was ready to adjourn, if he had no further communication to make. A recess was then taken until 12:30 p. m. After recess McMillan, chairman of the committee appointed to wait upon the president, reported that the duty had been performed and that the president stated that he had no further communication to make to the house. A recess was then taken until seven minutes before 1. After the second recess Ryan, of Kansas, offered, and the house unanimously adopted, the following resolution: "Resolved, That the thanks of this house be hereby tendered Hon. John G. Carlisle, speaker, for the courtesy and fairness with which he has presided over the deliberations of the first session of the fiftieth congress." As the hands of the clock pointed to the hour of 1, the speaker said: "The hour of 1 o'clock having arrived, I now declare the house adjourned sine die. The announcement was received with applause and the correspondents in the press gallery evinced their thankfulness by chanting the doxology.

Only seven of the sermons had the benefit of the final prayer of this session by the chaplain, namely: The presiding officers, Ingalls and Allison, Cockrell, Mitchell, Paddock, Salsbury, and Teller. During and after the reading of the journal the senate was reinforced by the presence of Blackburn, Rogers and Sawyer. A committee of two, Allison and Salsbury, was appointed to go with a like committee on the part of the house and wait upon the president and inform him that congress having finished its business was ready to close the present session by an adjournment at 1 o'clock to-day. Blackburn presented the minority report on the operations of the civil service law. It was ordered printed with the majority report.

The last bill of the session introduced was one by Mitchell, proposing an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of U. S. senators by the people. Business was then informally suspended, awaiting a message from the president or from the house. The first message was from the house, announcing the appointment of a committee to wait upon the president. Five minutes afterward Allison of the committee reported that the committee had performed that duty, and had been informed by the president that he had no further communication to offer.

A resolution tendering the thanks of the senate to Chairman Ingalls for the uniformly, able, courteous and impartial manner in which he has presided over the session, was adopted unanimously. At five minutes before 1 o'clock a message from the president announced his approval of sundry senate bills and joint resolutions. Senator Ingalls then spoke, acknowledging with thanks the complimentary vote tendered him as presiding officer, and thanking the senators for the courtesy and consideration shown himself. He then declared the senate adjourned without delay.

RIOTS PROCEEDING. MADRID, Oct. 20.—Republican rioters mobbed Senor Conovas del Costello at Saragostal last night and stoned his house. The rioting continued for hours, and the government army is powerless to quiet the disturbance.

APPOLOGIES OFFERED. PARIS, Oct. 20.—The escutcheon on the German consulate at Havre was torn from its position last night and thrown into the street. The prefect at Havre tendered profuse apology to the consulate. M. Goblet, minister of foreign affairs, likewise apologized to the German ambassador here for the outrage. There is no clue to the persons committed the act.

LANDSLIDES. ROME, Oct. 20.—A landslide occurred at Dolence to-day, and a railway train was buried in the debris. A number of persons were killed, six bodies have been recovered and ten wounded rescued.

COMING. Corporal Tanner, of whom almost everybody has heard, will lecture on or about the 14th of November in this city.

DAN SULLY COMING. Will O. Wheeler, manager of the famous Dan Sully Comedy Co., is in the city, arranging for their appearance here on Thursday, Oct. 25.

DEATH. WILLIAM, October 19th, to the wife of George Will, a boy.

DEATH. HALE—October 19, 1888, at his residence the daughter of Wm. Hale, aged 20 1/2 years.

A RAID BY BURGLARS.

They Piter Two Houses on First and Carry Off Their Plunder.

A gang of about a dozen tough looking itinerants have been making their headquarters in this city recently, seemingly bent on mischief. Shortly after midnight yesterday morning several of these fellows were arrested. About 11 o'clock Policeman McClain saw a man approach the door of W. C. Tweedale's hardware and tin store, and after tampering with the lock for a few minutes effect an entrance. He went to the show case and took $30 worth of razors and knives and came out and went down the street. When in front of Brownell & Stanard's grocery store Officer McClain saw the burglar drop one of the boxes of cutlery and pick it up again and hasten on. The officer then started in pursuit. He could not overtake him, but caught two other fellows near the Revere house, who had been seen among the gang of toughs earlier in the evening, and after blowing a police whistle and securing the assistance of Officer John Jones, they were led off to the city jail, and yesterday were put to work on the street.

The restaurant of Hermann Diercks was also entered about the same time of night, probably by one of the same gang. Nothing was taken as the burglar was frightened away, after breaking open a trunk and rummaging about the room for a few minutes.

The real burglar, who gave the name of John Cutter, was arrested yesterday afternoon, but the stolen goods were not recovered. He was arraigned before Recorder Henton, ex-officio justice of the peace, and was held without bail for his appearance at 9 o'clock Monday for examination. He was incarcerated in the county jail.

Five more tramps were found hid away in a box car near the depot yesterday afternoon by Constable Burkhardt. They took leg bail and left the city.

RAILROAD MATTERS. The following from the Astorian shows that the railroad from Astoria is an assured fact, and will come into the valley somewhere. Our citizens are interested and should have a voice in saying where that somewhere is: "The Astorian is glad to report favorable progress in every department of the Astoria and South Coast railway company's affairs. This is fine weather for railroad surveys and Engineer Thielsen is making the most of it. Secretary Holden is meeting with satisfactory success in the matter of the first assessment levied sometime ago. Col. Jas. Taylor yesterday handed him a check for $2500, the amount of his first assessment. Between $9000 and $10,000 is now paid in. Residents of the Willamette valley alive to their interests, are giving considerable attention to this matter and the press of the state have none but good words and hearty encouragement for the railroad that will aid not alone Astoria but the entire state.

SALE OF CATTLE. A band of 113 fine five-year-old steers from the Elkins range, Prineville, has been sold by Mr. Summerville to Mr. Zimmerman, of Portland. They are to be driven to The Dalles, a distance of 160 miles, and are warranted to weigh 1450 pounds each after their arrival there. Mr. Elkins has heretofore sent his cattle to the California market, but now the cattle range is growing smaller and smaller in this state and the consumers of beef more numerous, and there will not be so many cattle driven abroad for a market in future.

WILL BRING SUIT. It is said that M. Poyser, whose suit for his insurance money of $1500 on his saloon burned in this city last winter, which was decided in favor of the Northwest Insurance Co. at Salem, will bring a suit in his own name in the circuit court next week.

SPEAKING AT THE COURT HOUSE.

Small Audience List an Excellent and Interesting Address.

On account of the attraction at the opera house last evening the audience at the court house to listen to Hon. Robert McLean, presidential elector on the republican ticket, was small. In the absence of the chairman of the central committee, and by request, the editor of the HERALD introduced the speaker, who in a very pleasant but forcible manner presented the political issues. A joint discussion had been arranged for by the special request of the democratic state central committee, and it was advertised that Mr. Skipworth would speak with Mr. McLean, but Mr. Skipworth had only been able to attend the Halsey meeting, and as no explanation had been given Mr. McLean considered his engagement cancelled and will meet his future appointments alone, as he did the one here. Mr. Skipworth being in Portland. Mr. McLean met all of the questions in a fair, square and practical manner, and held the closest attention and appreciation of his audience.

ANOTHER POLICEMAN NEEDED.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD: Our unusually quiet city is now and probably will be the remainder of the winter, filled with many hard characters, hence it is hardly right to expect the regular policemen to be present at the opera house each evening of an entertainment and remain during the performance. We would suggest that the city marshal appoint a special, other than the attaché's of the house, whose business it shall be to be present about the door and insure quietude in the gallery. All other cities have such an officer and Albany needs it. CITIZEN.

The Albany College.

The Albany collegiate institute has been endorsed by the synod of Columbia, and will hereafter receive its special care and support. It will be known as the Presbyterian college of this synod and has been empowered and directed to provide college courses of study and give honors and degrees to students completing their courses. Additional endowments will be secured and the future of this institution is full of promise. Rev. E. J. Thompson, D. D., has been appointed by the synod chairman of the supervisory committee. The number of students at present is not far from one hundred.

"Widow O'Brien."

This laughter provoking comedy was given at the opera house last evening to a full house. The acting was superb throughout, and the music was elegant. Mr. Kelley as the widow was immense, and was supported by a company, each of whom might safely be rated as star actors. Acting it altogether it is a chaste, clean show and number one in all respects. Everybody was delighted with it, and went home feeling that they had been well repaid in the evening's entertainment.

To Protect Deer.

A petition is being circulated for signatures about the city, asking the legislature that a more stringent statute be enacted to prevent the wholesale slaughter of deer for their hides. The petition is being almost universally signed. The movement is backed by the Oregon Alpine club of Portland.
