MYTHICAL MARKETS OF THE WORLD.

One of the principal arguments advanced by President Cleveland and the Democratic leaders in defense of their free trade scheme is the assumed necessity for extending our foreign trade. They want cheaper raw materials and cheaper labor so as to be able to make goods in competition with the cheap labor of Europe, Asia and Africa, and sell as cheap or cheaper than anybody in "markets of the world."

Before seeking an extension of trade in foreign countries, why not extend it at home? There is a bigger and better market right here in the United States that we do not supply than we could possibly find abroad—a market that would permit of good wages being paid under a proper protective system. Last year we imported merchandise to the value of $683,000,000. More than half of this, we have the soil, climate, labor, and capital to produce, and the market to consume. We imported—

$14,000,000 worth of woolen goods, 31,079,000 worth of silk goods, 50,000,000 worth of iron and steel, 29,000,000 worth of cotton goods, 33,000,000 worth of flax, hemp, and linens, 10,000,000 worth of wines and liquors, 8,000,000 worth of manufactures of wood, 7,000,000 worth of glass, and glassware, 5,500,000 worth of earthenware, 6,000,000 worth of fancy articles, 3,700,000 worth of buttons, 5,000,000 worth of hats and bonnets, 4,000,000 worth of leather, 4,000,000 worth of gloves, 3,000,000 worth of metal composition, 2,000,000 worth of soda, 6,200,000 worth of tin bars, 5,000,000 worth of raw cotton, 3,000,000 worth of hops, 19,000,000 worth of farm products, 17,000,000 worth of wool, 20,000,000 worth of other American products, $316,000,000 worth in all.

Here in the United States is a market for $316,000,000 worth of products that we consumed but did not produce, every dollar's worth of which we can produce and would produce under a properly protective system. The list does not include $17,000,000 worth of hides, $55,000,000 worth of sugar, $19,000,000 worth of raw silk, and many millions' worth of other products whose profitable production in sufficient quantity to supply the home market is surrounded with less or greater doubt.

Here is a chance to extend our trade at home that promises better than anything abroad, and does not involve the destruction of industry or the reduction of wages. Here is a market for more goods than England sells to the whole of Europe outside of her own territory—a better and a larger market than even cheap raw materials and cheap labor could give us in any or all foreign countries.—Cleveland Leader.

BELVA LOCKWOOD is rather hard on the democratic speaking of Mr. Thurman. She says: "Thurman is too old a man to be vice-president. If he is elected he will die before the inauguration. It was a shame for the democrats to nominate him. What hurts the democratic party is bringing out Thurman, the bandana handkerchief and snuff. The use of snuff is disgusting."

It is no certain thing that Congressman Mills, of Texas, will be a member of the next congress. He is a candidate for re-election, but dissatisfaction in his party has brought out an independent candidate, which may result in the election of the republican candidate. Poor Mills, the sheep of the country seem likely to worry him into obscurity, even if he did not care much for them.

It is estimated that at least 2000 illegal registrations, have been made in San Francisco. From this it would seem that even a strict registration cannot preserve the purity of the ballot box.

Probably the locality that ferments and unanimously prays for frost more than any other, just now, is Florida, for nothing else will end the yellow fever scourge. Frost kills the germs of the disease.

Poor Cuba a party of Minnesota base ball players have made arrangements to invade that isle of the summer seas with the great American game, and play it all winter.

My Poor Back!

That's the common exclamation of those suffering with rheumatism or kidney troubles. In either case Paine's Celery Compound will surely effect a cure, and there will no longer be any cause to complain of "poor backs." Hundreds of our own citizens claim for that Celery Compound:

"Two weeks I could not sleep more than an hour at a time any night, was confined to my bed for weeks. I had a good deal of pain in my back. Since I took Paine's Celery Compound I can sleep almost as long as I wish. I have been troubled with rheumatism for five years, and was almost unable to get up. I have used nearly all medicines imaginable, besides the advice, but to no advantage. Having seen Paine's Celery Compound advertised, I gave it a trial. I have used one bottle and am perfectly cured. I can now jump around and feel lively as a boy." Frank Caron, Eureka, Nevad. Price $1. Six for $5.
