FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, ROBERT M'LEAN, WM. KAPUS, C. W. FULTON.

LET US REASON TOGETHER.

Calm, cool, dispassionate reasoning is the resource of every thinking man when matters of importance are to be decided. The question of the political complexion of the country for the next four years is one that forms a matter of personal importance to every citizen, and calls for prompt and decisive action, and how important that the action should be guided by that degree of reasoning referred to in the commencement of this article.

And in the magnificent development of our country, or shall we protect the foreign producer who cares only for our money and, if his wares are admitted free, contributes not one farthing towards the expense of our government, while he shares in its advantages. That is the whole sum and substance of the situation. Just take and view it over and over, weigh carefully, with unprejudiced mind, all the facts in connection with it, and you can see it in no other light; and can there be a single question as to which side of the fence the patriotic and self interested American citizen's vote will be cast upon next Tuesday?

CLAUS SPECKLE'S big sugar refinery had its corner stone laid with great ceremony recently in Philadelphia. A magnificent collation was spread afterward. The sugar king, who has his fingers in every persons bowl of sugar in the country could well afford to spread a fine collation.

Poor Lord Sackville West is just now the most talked of man in the nation, and he does not owe this immense publicity to any brilliant feats he has exhibited in his literary work either.

My Poor Back!

That's the common explanation of those suffering with rheumatism or kidney troubles. In either case Paine's Celery Compound will surely effect a cure, and there will no longer be any cause to complain of "poor backs." Handfuls of testimonials like the following confirm our claims for that Celery Compound: "Two weeks I could not sleep more than an hour at a time any night, was confined and had a good deal of pain in my back. Since I took Paine's Celery Compound the pain has like a child." Zenas Sanders "Having been troubled with was almost unable to get confined to my bed for weeks all medicines imaginable, besides the advice, but to no advantage. Having seen Paine's Celery Compound advertised, I gave it a trial. I have used one bottle and am perfectly cured. I can now jump around and feel lively as a boy." Frank Carroll, Eureka, Nev.
