As a KIRK-CUSHMAN-On Nov. 3, 1888, at the St, Charles, by Geo. Humphrey, Esq., A. L. Kirk and Mary E. Cushman, both of reasonings, as well as that of learned philosophers of the past and present, he concludes that the physical, mental and moral welfare of human beings depends more upon woman than upon man; that other recovery will be liberally rewarded by the owner, E. The many cases of superior men and the sons of superior mothers, coupled with the many more cases of degenerate sons of superior sires, have taught us over and over again that the way to civilize the race is to civilize woman. And, now, thanks to science, we see why this is so. Woman is the unchanging trunk of the great genealogic tree; while man, with all his vaunted superiority, is but a branch, a grafted scion, as it were, whose acquired qualities die with the individual, while those of woman are handed down to futurity. Woman is the race, and the race can be raised up only as she is raised up. There is no fixed rule by which nature has intended that one sex should excel the other, any more than there is any fixed point beyond which either cannot further develop. Nature has no intentions, and evolution has no limits. True science

The idea of running a tunnel 60 feet long under two buildings and working for weeks, and perhaps months, to get into a bank and to be fooled only by the perfection of the burglar box of the safe, savors more of a New York crime, than the work of the average Oregon burglar.
