THE TERRITORIES.

The people in the northwest territories, which have long been knocking for admittance into the Union are now rejoicing over the prospects of being speedily granted their rights and becoming a portion of the United states equal with other states.

The people of Dakota are holding meetings and appointing committees to endeavor to secure a special session of the Fifty-first Congress at the earliest practicable day after March 4th, in order to pass an enabling act for that territory. The Governor of Dakota has gone East to confer with General Harrison about the admission of the territory.

Since it is conceded on all hands that not only Dakota but Washington and Montana are entitled to admission, there can be no good reason for delaying action in their cases until the regular or December session of the Fifty-first Congress. The New York Sun, speaking of the democratic party, says:

It must stand powerless while the republican party strengthens and perhaps perpetuates its own hold on power by erecting in Dakota and Washington territory three new states to send six republicans to the United States senate, and to add in 1892 at least nine electorial votes to the republican column.

The same view is taken by the San Francisco Examiner which says:

"One of the duties that congress cannot put off much longer is the admission of most of the remaining territories as states. The matter has been treated from a political point of view too long. It is a simple question of justice, and no other consideration should have any weight.

It is a little singular that this "question of justice" did not impress itself upon the democratic party before election, as it seems to have done since; but that is neither here nor there. The point is that there is no difference of opinion, especially as to the admission of Dakota and Washington, and that since there is no such difference, it will be hard to find any valid reason against the calling of a special session for their admission.

As to the future political complexion of the new states, that is a matter which it is neither necessary nor prudent to predict. They must manage their politics for themselves, though, judging from the example of Kansas, it is highly probable that the new states, admitted by the republican party after having been obstinately kept out by the democrats, will be in thorough political accord with their benefactors.

Senator Quay, chairman of the republican national committee, in conversation with a California Association Press correspondent Saturday authorized the following statement of the situation in the lower branch of the next congress: "We have the house of representatives by a majority of five certainly, and possibly nine on the official count of congressional districts. As to the democrats threats that the democratic governors of states will refuse to certify to the election of republicans to the clerk of the house, and that he will refuse to place our people on the roll, we do not care what the democratic governors or the clerk of the house may do: they are not dealing with children and old women. The republican party will hold with a mailed hand all that is fairly won on Nov. 6th.

It is said that General Harrison is looking toward the Pacific Coast for a member of his cabinet. Hon. Geo. H. Williams of Portland, and Senator Jones of Nevada, are mentioned for the position, as well as one or two prominent Californians. In view of Oregons vigorous manner of leading with a republican majority it is not unlikely that this state will be represented in the cabinet.

A dispatch from St. Paul brings this cheerful intelligence: The unpleasant announcement is made here that many flour mills in the Northwest and elsewhere will close down, in obedience to orders from the flour trust. This state of affairs simply means that the millers intend to make the consumers pay $10 a barrel for flour. Wheat has been pulled to a point where it cannot be made into flour at a profit, and something must be done to get the millers out of a hole. Flour from the Northwest is held above the price it will bring in the Atlantic states, where the bulk must eventually find a market.

The sharpest earthquake shock experienced on this coast for many years was felt at San Francisco on the 18th inst. No material damage is reported, although in some localities the shock was so severe that children were thrown from their beds.

It is now announced that President Cleveland will visit the Pacific Coast after taking his long vacation next spring.

Prudence! Prudence!

In medication, as in aught else, prudence should be our guide. Yet thousands cast it to the winds. Every new nostrum finds its patrons, the medical empires of every false school have their gulls. Every change in the gamut of humbug is rung successfully—for a time at least—the notes being furnished by the credulous. In happy contrast to the many advertised impostures of the day stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, now in the third decade of popularity, approved and recommended by physicians, indorsed by the press of many lands, sought and prized by invalids everywhere. It is an ascertained specific for and preventive of malarial diseases chronic indigestion, and liver complaint and constipation.

Guard Against The Strike,

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. The Remedy guaranteed by Foshay & Mason.

HAVE YOU A COLD, or one that [illegible] not get better? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from the nose or drop back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed backward to the throat? Are you troubled with hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat, ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or dizziness of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so you have the Catarrh. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part. The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exuded from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stench from corroding sores reveals the corruption within.

As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the secretions in the nasal passages, it must necessarily [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] gradually takes place, while the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] into the stomach, enfeebles digestion, and often produces dyspepsia, and finally [illegible] ity, nervousness and consumption.
