Personal.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile Ala., says: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I have tried other medicines with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, is sold on a positive guarantee. Trial bottles free at Foshay & Mason.

Happiness and Contentment,

Cannot go hand in hand if we look on the dark side of every little obstacle. Nothing will so darken life and make it a burden as Dyspepsia. Acker's [illegible] will cure the worst form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Indigestion, and make life a happiness and pleasure. Sold at 25 and 50 cents by Foshay & Mason.

GENERAL NEWS.

Man, Wife and Daughter Crushed by a Train.

TWO TRAVELERS' DEADLY DUEL.

Vice-President-Elect Morton in Washington —Latest Concerning the Haytian Affair—Other News.

The HERALD's Special Dispatches.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Nov. 22.—Last evening Levi Mecker, his wife and 8 year old daughter were found dead on the Southern Kansas railroad track. It is supposed they were struck by the train while crossing the track in a wagon.

A BLOODY FIGHT.

Two Traveling Men Fatally Shot in a Heated Quarrel.

SHREVEPORT, (La.), Nov. 22.—A. R. Thompson, of Benton, La., and Young Moore, a traveling man from St. Louis, quarreled at the Texarkana depot last night and Moore shot Thompson, inflicting a dangerous wound. He then turned the weapon and shot himself in the head. Both men will probably die. The quarrel was caused by Moore, charging Thompson with carrying on a correspondence with his (Moore's) wife.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

The Question of Election of Officers Agitating the Delegate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 22.—The question of election still agitates the minds of the delegates of the knights of labor general assembly. Every one now acknowledges with certainty Powderly's reelection and his choice for the other positions will be the choice of the convention. Mrs. Barry will undoubtedly be re-elected to her position in charge of the women's work, and if he wishes it, Richard Griffiths, of Chicago, may continue to serve as general worthy foreman. Powderly's nominations for members of the general executive board cannot be so readily predicted. From the south there is also a request for a representation on the board. McGuire and Aylsworth, of the present board, and O'Reilly, of New York, and Hugh Cavanaugh, of Cincinnati, have been considered as liable to be selected. Two hours were spent in a heated debate over Skeffington's case. It was finally decided that Skeffington was guilty of insubordination and that he be publicly reprimanded by the general master workman.

THE HAYTIAN AFFAIR.

The Wife of Captain Compton Arrives in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Compton, wife of the captain of the steamer, Haytian Republic, recently seized at St. Mark, Hayti, and taken to Port au Prince as a contraband carrying arms and Haytian rebels, arrived here yesterday, bringing the captain's official report to the owners of the vessel. The report simply corroborates the particulars of the capture substantially as already given. The owners of the vessels say they are satisfied that they have a good case for damages against Hayti.

NOTED DESPERADO KILLED.

John Barber Caught After a Long Chase and Killed.

DENISON, Tex., Nov. 22.—Officers after a long chase in the Choctaw nation succeeded in overhauling and killing a desperado supposed to be John Barber, one of the celebrated Keesumer gang. The man had killed an Indian, and was also wanted for attempted train robbery.

RAINES' TRIAL.

The Seattle Opium Smuggling Case in the U. S. Court.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 22.—In the United States court Judge Brundage this morning moved for the immediate trial of Lawyer Haines, of Seattle, W. T., charged with conspiracy in an opium smuggling case. United States Attorney Lockwood opposed the motion on the ground that he was not ready to proceed with the trial. The court decided that the case should be given preference when the district attorney was ready.

Constitutional Convention Called

JAMESTOWN, (Dak.), Nov. 22.—A call has been issued for a constitutional convention at Jamestown December 5 to further the early admission of the two Dakotas into the union.

The Base Ballists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The base ball convention went into session with closed doors at 10 o'clock, to hear the committee reports and then revise the constitution.

National Sabbath Union.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The recently formed national Sabbath union met here this morning. It was decided to hold a national convention in the interest of Sabbath school observance at Washington, December 11 to 13.

VICE-PRESIDENT MORTON.

He Is Building a Large Residence in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Vice-President-elect Morton is in the city to-day inspecting the large apartment house which he is building on the site of his former residence here. He says the time of his visit to General Harrison is not settled. It will be arranged to suit the convenience of both parties.

Peace Will be Restored.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Consul-General Basset, who represents the Haytian government at New New York, has received information that peace between the Haytian government and the insurgents is being arranged by an ambassador. The first steps in the negotiation were taken at the request of the high dignataries of the Roman Catholic church.

A Fierce Battle.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Advices from Samoa say Matafas' followers stormed a stronghold held by the adherents of Tamasese at Atnan on the 7th inst., and captured the outposts after two days of fighting. Many were killed.

Carpet Trust.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—At a meeting of the carpet manufacturers held here yesterday it is understood a trust was formed, and prices will be advanced soon.

MARK TWAIN'S DAUGHTER.

How She Caught Her Father Guying Her.

New York Letter to Globe-Democrat.

Mark Twain, if he is in the mood, will tell the story of his own courtship in a manner worthy of the greatest of living humorists. When he first met the lady who aftewards became his wife, he was not so distinguished as now. His origin was humble and for some years of his life he had been a pilot on the Mississippi river. The future Mrs. Clemens was a woman of position and fortune. Her father was a judge and doubtless expected "family" and social importance, "became" interested in his daughter and after a while proposed, but was rejected.

"Well," he said to the lady, "I didn't much believe you'd have me, but I thought I'd try."

After a while he "tried" again, with the same result, and then remarked, with his celebrated drawl: "I think a great deal more of you than if you'd said 'Yes,' but it's hard to bear." A third time he met with better fortune, and then came the most difficult part of his task, to address the old gentleman.

"Judge," he said to the dignified millionaire, "haye you seen anything going on between Miss Lizzie and me?"

"What? What!" exclaimed the judge rather sharply, apparently not understanding the situation, yet doubtless getting a glimpse of it from the inquiry.

"Have you seen anything going on between Miss Lizzie and me?"

"No—no, indeed! replied the magistrate sternly. "No, sir, I have not."

"Well, look sharp and you will," said the author of "Innocents Abroad," and that's the way he asked the judicial luminary for his daughter's hand.

Mark has a daughter who inherits some of her father's brightness. She kept a diary at one time, in which she noted the occurrences in the family and among other things the sayings of her parents. On one occasion she wrote that father sometimes used stronger words when mother wasn't by and he thought "we" didn't hear. Mrs. Clemens found the diary and showed it to her husband, probably thinking the particular page worth his notice. After this Clemens did and said several things that were intended to attract the child's attention, and found them duly noted afterward. But one day the following entry occurred:

"I don't think I'll put down anything more about father, for I think he does things to have me notice him, and I believe he reads this diary." She was Mark's own child.

Thousands of Dollars.

Are spent every year by the people of this state for worthless medicines for the cure of throat and lung diseases when we know that if they would only invest $1 in Santa Abie the New California discovery for consumption and kindred complaints, they would in this pleasant remedy find relief. It is recommended by ministers, physicians and public speakers of the Golden State. Sold and guaranteed by Foshay & Mason at $1 a bottle. Three for $2.50. The most stubborn case of catarrh will speedily succumb to California Cat-R-Cure. Six months treatment for $1. By mail $1.10.

Make No Mistake.

By dispelling the symptoms so often mistaken for Consumption, Santa Abie has brought gladness to many a household. By its prompt use for breaking up the cold and too often develops into that fatal disease, thousands can be saved from an untimely grave. You make no mistake by keeping a bottle of this pleasant remedy in the house. California Cat-R Cure is equally effective in eradicating all traces of Nasal Catarrh. Both of these wonderful California remedies are sold and warrented by Foseay & Mason.
