OUR ELECTIONS.

Some of the New York dailies, always desirous of creating a sensation, are just now discussing the question of extending the term of president from four to eight or twelve years, and they are actively parading the cost of an election to the people.

COME TO OREGON.

Reports of the depopulation of Western Kansas counties continue. People there are abandoning their homes that they have been improving for the past several years.

TALK about bringing coals to Newcastle, here is something from the San Francisco Chronicle decidedly like it: There is some ground for the belief that the grocers of San Francisco will have to import their California raisins from Chicago this year.

THERE are lively times in politics in Arizona. The official count of that territory gives the legislative council to the republicans by four majority and the assembly to the democrats by two majority.

A DISPATCH from Washington stated that the new treasury vault was being filled with silver dollars at the rate of half a millions a day.

THE Chicago Inter-Ocean is out with a four column article on the advantages and prosperity of Oregon's metropolis.

THE republican ward meetings to-night should be well attended.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The latest estimate of the republican majority in the next house is nine.

P. T. BARNUM, the greatest showman the world has ever seen, has announced that he will retire from the circus business.

The exclusion act evidently is having the desired effect. A steamer from China arrived in San Francisco Friday with but one Chinese passenger.

ALBANY has been fortunate in escaping the presence of small-pox. There is not a case in Albany nor has there been for years, and there is not now a case in Linn county.

The storm along the Atlantic coast as related by our dispatches, has resulted in an appalling loss of life and damage to property.

S. L. M. BAROW, a well known lawyer of New York, who had a talk with the President, says that the latter's message, which will be sent to congress next Monday, will refer to nothing but the success of the present administration.

We want your butter and eggs, and will give you either cash or trade for it.
