THE CITY COUNCIL.

The Gas Ordinance Laid Over—The Cow Question—Special Meeting to Be Held.

Regular meeting of the city council was held last night, all officers and members being present. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.

The committee on accounts and current expenses was granted further time in which to report upon sundry bills.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of drafting an ordinance providing for a uniform for police, was also granted further time.

The committee to whom was referred the application of N. A. Blodgett for the abandonment of the ditch on Broadalbin street and the construction of a new canal on Water street, recommended that the same be granted as soon as the petitioner would give bonds protecting the city from any costs in the premises.

The committee on ordinances reported on the ordinance granting an exclusive franchise for a term of 25 years to A. P. Bacon, of San Francisco, and his associates the right to lay and maintain gas mains and pipes in and through the city of Albany, also on the ordinance granting N. H. Allen an exclusive franchise for a term of 25 years for his electric light plant recommending the passage of both ordinances.

On the third reading the gas ordinance was referred with special instructions. The ordinance requires that work shall be commenced on the gas works within eight months after the approval of the act, and that gas shall be in the pipes within 18 months from the same date. The gas company is required to accept the provisions of the ordinance within 40 days, and the ordinance was referred with instructions to amend limiting the time of acceptance of the ordinance.

The electric light ordinance was also laid over. It was ordered that a special meeting of the council be held next Tuesday evening to consider the question of amending the city charter, enlarging the power of the city upon the matter of preventing cows from running at large and other questions.

Various street improvements were ordered made. Saloon license was granted to H. Backesto and M. W. Parker. Bill of James Laurent of $30.55 for sewer work was ordered paid.

THANKSGIVING SOCIAL.

The following programme will be rendered at the W. C. T. U. hall Thursday evening, Nov. 29th:

- Music. Prayer. Vocal solo—Mr. Adair, of Albany. Words of welcome—President. Ladies' quartet. Address—Mrs. Gove, of Portland. Vocal solo—Consider the Lilies, Mr. L. G. Adair, of Eugene. Recitation—Evening on the Farm, Miss Estlin Marshall. Vocal solo—Mrs. Cochran, of Albany.

An Important Matter.

It has been suggested that the question, "Shall the Cows be Prohibited from Running at Large in Albany," be appended to all tickets at the coming city election, and the wishes of the people ascertained upon the question. The members of the central committees of the different political parties should arrange to have the same done. The matter came up in the city council last night, but the council having no right to submit the question it was simply recommended that the chairman of the central committees submit the question by placing it before the voters upon the tickets at the city election next Monday.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to return our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the members of the A. O. U., the G. A. R., Albany Fire Department and the citizens of Albany and vicinity for their many acts of kindness and sympathy tendered us during the recent illness and death of our husband and father. May they in their hour of trouble or sorrow be surrounded by as kind and true friends as have been vouchsafed to us.

Mrs. F. Mueller, C. H. Mueller.

A Live Deer.

A live mule deer, which was caught in Crook county, was brought to this city yesterday by Clark Price, who has just come across the mountains with a drove of stock. The deer had become quite tame and was brought across without any trouble. As its name indicates it has enormous ears. It will be placed in a park by Messrs. Sloan & East, who purchased it.

Found Dead Drunk.

Yesterday afternoon a middle aged man was found lying in the street near the sidewalk on Ferry street between Fourth and Fifth. A policeman was notified, and on examination he was found to be simply dead drunk. He was the muddest and most dilapidated looking specimen ever seen. He was taken to the city jail to sober off before being taken before the recorder's court.

Officers Elected.

At a meeting of Calapooia Lodge, No. 43, I. O. O. F. Monday at Brownsville the following officers were duly elected: G. V. Standish, N. G.; C. W. Primly, V. G.; Geo. Findley, R. S.; J. K. McHargue, P. S.; W. R. Kirk, treasurer; N. B. Standish, E. H. Erwick, D. M. Walter, trustees.

Burkhart & Royce, job printers.

THE OREGON PACIFIC.

Regular Trains Now Running to Mills City—Work on the Tunnel.

A gentleman, who had just returned from the front on the Oregon Pacific, was seen by a HERALD reporter yesterday, and interrogated concerning the work on the road eastward. It was learned that regular trains are now running to Mills City, eight miles above Meliana, the road being completed to that point.

The approaches to the 400-foot tunnel are about finished, and the work of excavating and putting in the timbers is fairly commenced. A good many men are quitting work on account of the cold weather and these usually find their way to this city. A large force of men are still at work for Messrs. Searles & Deane, however, and these gentlemen expect to keep a considerable force at work nearly all winter, engaged principally on rock work and the tunnel.

The construction has progressed in a satisfactory manner during the comparatively short season's work, the road being now completed over 40 miles eastward from Albany.

OREGON FISHERIES.

A Few Notes About the Salmon Hatcheries of the State.

The fish commissioners will be through with their work by the middle of January. By that time all the eggs will be hatched out and the young fish placed in the river to work out their own destiny. Early in the present month a freshet washed out the rock, and all the salmon went up the river to deposit their spawn.

Professor Stone painted the house at the hatchery and otherwise improved everything about the hatchery and turned it over to the fish commissioners in good shape. Professor Livingstone Stone, United States fish commissioner, is at the McCloud hatchery. He expects to turn out a large number of young salmon.

At K. D. Hume's hatchery at Ellensburg, on the Rogue river, there are about 400 salmon in the basin. These will yield enough eggs to hatch out at least 1,500,000 young salmon. The eggs are being placed in the hatching troughs at the rate of from 80,000 to 100,000 per day. This hatchery is owned by Mr. Hume, but the state appropriated $2000 to help him in his good work.

At the present rate of hatching salmon it will not be long before Oregon waters will produce more salmon than ever before. The good work should go bravely on.—Portland News.

Funeral of Fred Mueller.

The funeral of the late Fred Mueller occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday from the family residence on Ellsworth and second streets, the A. O. U. and G. A. R. and the Albany Fire Department attending in a body. The devotional ceremonies were conducted by Rev. S. G. Irvine, of the United Presbyterian church. A wealth of floral offerings were made as a tribute to the departed, and a large number of friends of the deceased followed the remains to their resting place in the city cemetery.

Muddy Streets.

The streets of Corvallis seem to be in even a worse condition than First street in this city. The Benton Leader says: Our main street will soon be past improving. The United States government is engaged in keeping the Willamette from cutting a new channel on the other side of the river. If the Willamette river had any sense it would come through this way where it has a channel already cut to its hand and nobody in particular are trying to keep it out. The county court will be asked to establish a ferry across front street.

Likely to be Compromised.

It is understood that the Oregon Pacific Railroad Company has made a proposition to Contractor Nelson Bennett, who is suing it for $551,825 for breach of contract, etc., to compromise on reasonable terms. Mr. Bennett has made no response to the offer as yet. What might be considered reasonable terms will be known if negotiations are entered into. In the suit of Contractor G. W. Hunt vs. the Oregon Pacific a judgment of non-suit was entered in the United States circuit court Monday. This suit was compromised for $60,000 the other day.

Likes the Willamette Valley.

J. P. Klots, has been traveling for the past two years and seven months through California, Oregon and Washington Territory. Mr. Klots says the Willamette valley is the garden spot of the coast and has Southern and Central California completely in the shade. He greatly admires the country round about Pendleton and Wala Walla, but says it is not as fine as the Willamette valley. Mr. Klots is traveling for a Cincinnati carriage company, and has sold several thousand carriages since he has been on the coast.

Street Lights for Corvallis.

The city council of Corvallis, it is understood, has granted a franchise to an electric light company to furnish lights for the city, the same to lapse if lights are not in operation by the first of June. The projectors of the enterprise are confident of having the plant in working order by that time, and then Corvallis will be one of the best lighted cities in the state, instead of the poorest, as it has been in the past.

Look out for a grand display of Holiday Goods at French's, the Corner Jewelry Store.

CITY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Call for the Convention at the Court House Friday Evening—Primaries T-Day.

The republican voters of Albany are requested to meet in convention at the court house on Friday evening, Nov. 30, 1888, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of placing in nomination one candidate each for the office of treasurer and marshal to be voted for at the annual city election to be held on Monday, Dec. 3, 1888, and to ratify ward nominations for councilmen.

WARD MEETINGS. The committee recommend that the various ward meetings be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, 1888 at the following places:

First ward—In the circuit court room at the court house. Second ward—In the county court room.

Third ward—At the office of the Farmers' warehouse. Each ward meeting will nominate one candidate for councilman and select a member of the city central committee. By order of the central committee.

O. H. IRVINE, Chairman.

Another Man Gone Wrong. An investigation of the accounts of J. T. Meal, county clerk of Grant county, acting as receiver of a bankrupt estate, showed a shortage of $2900. His bondsmen made the loss good and also recommended that he be removed as receiver and also as county clerk, which the county court of that county did last week and appointed Hon. Phil Metchen to the office made vacant by the removal of Meal.

Illegal Sale of Liquor. The grand jury at Corvallis found two indictments against Jos. Wood, of the Summit, for selling liquor without a license in quantities less than a quart. He pleaded guilty Saturday to one of the indictments and the other indictment was dismissed. He was fined $250 and costs.

For the Holidays. Among the business houses of the city none has a more brilliant display of elegant holiday goods than Messrs. Foshay & Mason. Their line of fine plush goods, toilet cases, albums, souvenirs, richly bound books and holiday novelties is larger than ever before, and the extremely low prices at which they are sold probably accounts for the great rush daily at their store. Every available space is filled with beautiful holiday wares, in an almost endless variety.

The Great Sale. Large crowds daily throng the store of Monteith & Seitenbach taking advantage of this opportunity of purchasing goods from a first-class stock at an average of 25 per cent. less than the usual price. These goods must go, as the store will be vacated by the first of the year. If you want boots and shoes, underwear, dress goods, fancy goods or any staple dry goods, remember that on this entire stock an actual slaughter in prices is being made, goods being sold at less than cost.

Thanksgiving Ball. Owing to the fact that suitable arrangements could not be made to secure F. C. Co's armory W. W. Crawford's dancing classes will be hereafter held at the opera house. Crawford's orchestra, assisted by Salem musicians, will furnish music for the ball on Thanksgiving evening.
