FOREIGN NEWS.

Starving Whalers Rescued in the Atlantic.
MANY DISASTROUS WRECKS.

A Sensational Branch of Promise Suit—German Men of War—A Great Loan.

THE HERALD'S Special Dispatches.
QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 28.—The steamer City of New York which arrived from New York met the American whaler W. Martin Thursday. The whaler's crew were starving and a supply of provisions given them.

A Sensational Suit.
LONDON, Nov. 28.—Valery Weidman, a German governess, has brought suit against Robert Horace Walpole, heir presumptive to the earldom of Oxford, for £10,000 damages for breach of promise and libel. She alleges Walpole met her in Bulgaria and made her an offer of marriage, then he betrayed her and afterwards repudiates the paternity of her child.

More Disasters to Shipping.
HALIFAX, (N. S.), Nov. 28.—The steamer Worcester which sailed from Boston for this port Saturday has not since been heard from. The steamer Vancouver, due Sunday with the Canadian mails from England, has not yet arrived. The weather continues thick and heavy and the sea is running outside the harbor. Rumors are current that the Worcester and Vancouver have gone ashore, but so far as can be learned they are without foundation.

Report Contradicted.
LONDON, Nov. 28.—The report from Whitby that the life boat was upset and the crew of twelve drowned is untrue. The boat reached the shore in safety.

German Men of War.
ZANZIBAR, Nov. 28.—Two German men of war have proceeded to Bagamoyo on account of a report that fighting has broken out there.

Another Great Loan.
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 28.—It is reported that another great loan is decided upon by the government.

HAINES NOTES.

THE SIOUX CHIEF.

They Want to Call on General Harrison.

STANDING ROCK AGENCY (D. T.)
November 28.—A delegation of Sioux chiefs, headed by Sitting Bull, astounded the army headquarters this afternoon by asking permission to visit Indianapolis some time this winter, or any time before President-elect Harrison's inauguration. They were refused and solemnly departed, and it is thought that they will hold an early council to determine on immediate action. Sitting Bull stated that he and the new brethren would like a big task with the new Great Father before his going into office, to ascertain his position in regard to the treaty.

Chief John Grass wants to call on Mr. Cleveland, but the other chiefs do not care to visit him. When they recently visited the President ail was not so agreeable as supposed. Sitting Bull had been generally considered an ardent admirer of Cleveland, but when the chiefs visited him last month the President did not invite them to dine in the White House. Sitting Bull, on his former visits was allowed this privilege, and he feels very much cut. Gall is very happy over Harrison's election, while Grass steadfastly refuses to part with a campaign hat which he wore on his return from Washington.

These chiefs are beginning to get restless at the agency, and are a source of annoyance. Their numerous trips to the East and the many alluring sights of a great city have imbued them with an uncontrollable desire to be continually on the railroad traveling from place to place. This causes a great deal of jealousy among the younger element of the Sioux, who have been offered the luxury of an Eastern journey, and it is manifest that trouble is brewing.

HARLESBERG NOTES.
November 28.

Born to the wife of Prof. J. H. Jewett a boy.

Mr. Farrer uncle of Mrs. A. T. Drisko is visiting with her.

Relatives from Albany are visiting Mrs. Manson and daughters.

A Band of Hope was organized here at the church on Sunday last.

O. P. Tompkins of Portland is in town on account of the illness of his sister Mrs. Briggs.

Miss Amelia May has gone to San Francisco on a visit to remain until after the holidays.

Mrs. Ashby has removed her stock of millinery good to the old stand in the Smith building.

W. W. Briggs has been lying dangerously ill with a carbuncle on his neck; he is now getting better.

A relative of our townsman Mr. Couch has opened in Curry's corner brick, a general merchandise store.

Mrs. Humphrey and her daughter Florence returned yesterday from a visit to Co. fax. Mrs. H. M. Roberts also returned from Portland.

Joseph Watkins and John Bundy of Junction have purchased of F. M. Hyde his butcher business, and with an experienced cutter propose to run a first class market.

A city election will be held the 2nd of next month. Our city dads have been somewhat ditiatory in holding regular meetings, and it has been rumored around that the charter was forfeited, but this is evidently a mistake.

COAST NOTES.

The Polk county grange has a business council organized and in working order.

An Albany firm has bought a Polk county potato crop of several hundred bushels for 20 cents per bushel.

The O. R. & N. Co. cannot supply the demand for Eastern Oregon for cars to carry away the wheat crop.

All over the Willamette this winter literary societies are being organized, and mutual improvement is the aim.

Salt creek grangers are building shelter for their teams while they meet. The west side grangers show enterprise.

The Buena Vista nimrods are to have a hunting match. E. M. Sampson and Melvin Baldwin were elected the respective captains.

The grangers of Washington county are erecting a big shed 20x135 feet to hold their teams and wagons while they meet and have a good time.

Every county in Oregon is represented at the Menomoth Normal school save Curry, Wasco and Wallawa; also some from Washington territory.

There are 21,100 acres of vacant school lands in Harney Valley, north of the lakes, and over 7000 acres of good timber lands that are school lands.

Edward J. Ryan, aged 22, son of John Ryan, who resides on Five mile creek, near The Dalles, was run over by a freight wagon and had his hand crushed. He died a few days after of blood poisoning.

GENERAL NEWS.

Death of Mrs. W. T. Sherman in New York.

BREWERS' LOCKOUT IN NEW YORK.

Thanksgiving Present Sent to General Harrison—Newsp Notes from East of the Rockies.

THE HERALD'S Special Dispatches.
CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Gen. William T. Sherman died at 10 o'clock this morning at her residence No. 75 West Seventh street in New York.

AT THE DEATH BED.
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Sherman slept quietly during a short period last night, but at 8 o'clock this morning it became apparent that she could live but a few hours. General Sherman was notified and he and his children who live at home, Rachel, Lizzie and Tecumseh, were at the bedside when Mrs. Sherman breathed her last.

A Lively Scene.
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The headquarters of Ale & Porter, bosses, presented a lively scene this morning, when hundreds of men formed in line to be registered to take the place of the journeymen to be locked out. The men employed in the various breweries were interrogated to-day as to whether they are ready to give up the union. Those replying in the affirmative were retained, while those expressing loyalty to the union were informed that there was no more work for them. The number of men to be locked out cannot be ascertained as yet, but it is thought a large majority will stick by the union.

All Doubts Dispelled.
COHASSETT, (Mass.), Nov. 28.—All doubts concerning the loss of the steamer Allentown were dispelled this morning by a visit to the North Scituate beach shores. The shore is covered with wreckage, consisting of pieces marked "Allentown." No bodies have yet come ashore.

Ravages of the Storm.
NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The destruction by storm on Coney Island will not be covered by $200,000. The sea broke with resistless force and scattered pieces of bath houses and summer hotels like egg shells.

The Prize Fighters.
BALTIMORE, Nov. 28.—It was rumored last night that articles for meeting had been signed by representatives of Kilrain and Sullivan. Kilrain this morning denied that the articles were signed, but admitted that there was some foundation for the rumors. He said, if it came off, would occur within 10 days.

Dynamiter's Trial.
CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The criminal court room was crowded this morning when Kronck, the dynamiter's trial was resumed. The first witness, a detective, gave the jury the details of the confession made by Kronck.

Thanksgiving Present to Harrison.
RED BLUFF (Cal.) Nov. 28.—A box of oranges has been sent from this place to General Harrison as a Thanksgiving present.

More Yellow Fever.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Surgeon Porter, of Jacksonville, Florida, telegraphed to surgeon-General Hamilton that two fresh cases of yellow fever have occurred.

Killing Frosts in the South.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Killing frosts are reported from Western Florida and Southern Alabama.

BLAINE'S PLANS.

A Report That He Will Edit a New York Magazine.

NEW YORK, November 28.—The report published on Saturday that James G. Blaine was to become an editor of the American Magazine aroused interest among publishers and local politicians. There has been so much talk about Blaine's relation to the coming Administration that a report of his prospective return to the editorial chair is a matter of more than importance.

Blaine is without occupation. It is known that after his defeat the advisability of his entering the field of journalism was discussed by him and his intimate friends. Walker Blaine does not like it out West, preferring literature to law, and being very closely associated with his father in taste and ambition.

A prominent publisher near Astor place said, when asked for his opinion, that he believed there was more truth in the report than most people fancied. "Blaine," said he, "need not quit politics to become an editor. If he goes into the literary field it will be to make money to hold and increase his influence."

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is unequalled for old chronic sores. Many cases have been permanently cured by it. For sale by Foley & Mason.
