THE METHOD OF ELECTING PRESIDENT.

After each presidential election there are many discussions upon the method of conducting these elections, and various plans are proposed to better the present arrangement by the electoral college.

OREGON'S GROWTH.

The total vote of Oregon this year was 61,918. In 1884 the aggregate of the vote for Blaine and Cleveland was 51,544; so that Oregon appears to have gained over 10,000 votes in the last four years, which means an addition to her population of nearly, if not quite 50,000.

Harrison's plurality over Cleveland was 6769, as against a plurality of 2556 for Blaine over Cleveland. With these figures in view, and bearing in mind the Congressional election in June, it can be hardly denied that the principles of protection has gained a firm foothold in Oregon, and that revenue reform after the Mills prescription is a dose that the people of that State will not take.

Among the business houses of the city none has a more brilliant display of elegant holiday goods than Messrs. Foshy & Mason. Their line of fine plush goods, toilet cases, albums, souvenirs, richly bound books and holiday novelties is larger than ever before, and the extremely low prices at which they are sold probably accounts for the great rush daily at their store.

The immense sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been produced to a great extent by people who have been cured by it telling their friends and neighbors of its good qualities and urging them to try it.
