THE RAILWAYS AND THE COMMISSION.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has issued advance sheets of its annual report. It is a very full document, and it treats of the various problems that have come before the commission during the past year in an able manner.

EDUCATION AND CRIME.

One of the most startling aspects of the social system of the present day, is the vast number of educated criminals that are found in the ranks of the prison inmates and police court records.

often be destitute of work; and then they think they must starve or steal. The Jews held that the man who brought up his son without a trade brought him up to be a thief; hence every child, from the highest to the lowest, was trained to work, and so was able, if necessity required, to resume his toils and earn his bread.

Slowly, but surely, the scheme for a British cable across the Pacific is taking shape. A conference of influential colonists—Canadian and Australian was held in London last month.

MARRIED.

KNIGHTON-JUDSON. On Wednesday morning, Dec. 19, 1888, by Rev. H. Gould, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. M. Johnson, of Peoria, L. D. Knighton and Emma Johnson.

The happy couple are among Peoria's most popular young people, and will have the hearty congratulations and good wishes of everybody for their happiness and prosperity.

WATERS-BROWN. At the home of the bride's father, John Brown, of Brownsville, on December 17, by Rev. Carpus Spry, Mr. J. H. Waters and Miss Florence B. Brown.

A large number of invited guests witnessed the nuptials of these two well-known and popular residents of Brownsville, and enjoyed a splendid wedding supper. The next day the company again assembled at the bridegroom's parents' residence to attend the infair, and help to bring the young couple joy and happiness.

My Poor Back!

That's the common exclamation of those suffering with rheumatism or kidney troubles. In either disease, Paine's Celery Compound will surely effect a cure, and there will no longer be any cause to complain of "poor backs." Hundreds of confirm our claims for that ery Compound:

"Two weeks I could not time any night, was consti- and had a good deal of pain in Celery Compound the pain has like a child," Zenas Sanders, "Having been troubled with was almost unable to get confined to my bed for weeks sleep more than an hour at a pated and kidneys did not act, the back. Since I took Paine's left my back, and I can sleep West Windsor, Vermont, rheumatism for five years, I around, and was very often at a time. I have used nearly all medicines imaginable, besides outside adv- es, but to no advantage. Having seen Paine's Celery Compound advertised, I gave it a trial. I have used one bottle and am perfectly cured. I can now jump around and feel lively as a boy." Frank Caroli, Eureka, Nevad. Price $1. Six for $5.
