Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimomists, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

Has Grover Twittered ?

Mr. Thurston, of Nebraska, spoke in Clicago the other evening and told this story-which broke his audience all up: Mr. Thurston related an anecdote about a lady who bought a canary bird, wan anted to sing at all hours, and named him Grover. Grover, however, didn't twitter. but after waiting a long time for Grover's song, one morning the lady's maid rushed into the old woman's room in a state of great excitement. The old lady enquired: "Has Grover sung?" "No Grover has not sung any song," replied the maid.

"Has my sweet Grover twitter-"No," said the maid, "Grover has not even twittered a twitter, but Grover has laid an egg."

And the old lady exclaimed in her disgust : "Weil, you can't tell what a democrat is going to do next.' [Laughter.]—Harpers Bazaar.
