UNION WITH CANADA.

A union with Canada must first be asked for on the part of the Dominion or if will not be worth the having. It cannot be hastened by any effort of ours, but all such efforts will retard it. Canada was originally a colony of France, and there are now over a million of French Canadians, described by Goldwin Smith, the eloquent propagandist of commercial union, as an "unprogressive, religious, submissive, courteous, and, though poor, not unhappy people." He adds, that while "they have a very indifferent reputation as farmers," they are governed by the priest with the occasional assistance of the notary. This certainly is not high commendation. Retaining in a poor way their French language, they have not been assimilated or anglicized, perhaps cannot be Americanized, and we have yet to learn that the Latin race have anywhere appeared to accept of a republican form of government with any staying enthusiasm.

The public debt of the Canadian Dominion, however formidable, would have to be paid or assumed by the United States in case of a political union. Its present amount in proportion to population is more than three times as much as that of the United States; and the latter is being rapidly reduced, while that of the Dominion for the last twenty years has steadily increased in every year except two.

We do not need the Canadian Dominion as a place of refuge for redundant population. We do not need it for the purpose of enrolling their young men in our army. We do not need it for the purpose of increasing our revenue, and, if we did, the balance would be found on the other side of the account.

Yet the time will probably come in the near future when these disadvantages to a union with Canada will be overcome, and the dominion will lay aside her old world customs and form of government to become a part of the United States.

FOREIGN LABOR.

The Chinese are the only class of laborers who are not welcome to immigrate to the United States, and the reason of this is obvious. Exclusion for any other reason except the bad character or condition of the individual immigrant is in direct conflict with the traditions, the institutions, and the policy of this country from the foundation of the government. From the time that our fathers charged it as a grievance against the king, in the Declaration of Independence, that he had "obstructed the laws for the naturalization of foreigners and refused to pass others to encourage their immigration hither," to this day, with the single exception of the Chinese laborer, our whole policy has been that of encouragement and facility to immigrants, without qualification or question save as to individual unfitness, and that in such a halting and limited manner as to be practically of no value. Side by side with the formal and solemn declaration of the Burlingame Treaty, that every man has a natural and inherent right to change his country and allegiance stands this other declaration, that if the emigrant be only a Chinaman and toils as other men for his daily bread he shall never come to these shores. It is his inherent right to take passage, but not to land. It is "inconsistent with the fundamental principles of the republic" to prevent his severing his allegiance to China, and yet there is no inconsistency in shutting the door in his face when he gets here. All this may look harsh, but the average Mongolian laborer must educate himself out of his present loathsome condition and learn to conform to the customs and laws of a civilized country before he can become a fixed factor in the country's labor domain.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

BALLOTING for a U. S. senator to succeed Senator Dolph will be commenced in the legislature at Salem next Tuesday.

THE Haytian government has concluded to settle the difficulty it got into by the seizure of the American steamer, Haytian Republic, by paying to the owners of the steamer $120,000.

THERE are only three newspapers in Oregon which print a complete report of the proceedings of the Oregon legislature each day. These are the Oregonian, the HERALD and the Salem Statesman.

THE question of building the proposed Albany and Astoria railway is now before the people of Albany. There should be no such word as fail in connection with this project. It can and, the HERALD predicts, will be built.

AN important measure was introduced in the legislature Tuesday by Senator Wager of Umatilla county. It is a bill to regulate the foreclosure of mortgages. It provides that when any tax becomes due upon any debt, mortgage, deed of trust, etc., the tax shall be paid in the first instance by the owner of the instrument or the obligee therein; but if the tax is not fully paid by the time it becomes delinquent, the maker or obligor becomes liable for the tax. Any provision in the obligation by which the maker specially agrees to pay the taxes is declared void. No suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other obligation, whereby land or real property situated in the state is made security for the payment of a debt shall be maintained unless the plaintiff proves that all taxes are paid.

My Poor Back!

That's the common exclamation of those suffering with rheumatism or kidney troubles. In either disease, Paine's Celery Compound will surely effect a cure, and there will no longer be any cause to complain of "poor backs." Hundreds of testimonials like the following confirm your claims for that grand old remedy, Paine's Celery Compound:

"Two weeks I could not sleep more than an hour at a time any night, was constipated and kidneys did not act, and had a good deal of pain in the back. Since I took Paines Celery Compound the pain has left my back, and I can sleep like a child.' Zenas Sanders, West Winsdor, Vermont. "Having been troubled with rheumatism for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I have used nearly all medicines imaginable, besides outside advices, but to no advahtage. Having seen Paine's Celery Compound advertised, I gave it a trial. I have used one bottle and am perfectly cured. I can now jump around and feel lively as a boy." Frank Caroli, Eureka, Nevad. Price $1. Six for $5.

HAVE YOU A COLD, in the head which does not get better? Have you an excessive secretion of mucus or matter in the nasal passages which either must be blown from nose or drop back behind the palate, or hawked or snuffed backward to the throat? you troubled by hawking, spitting, weak and inflamed eyes, frequent soreness of the throat ringing or roaring in the ears, more or less impairment of the hearing, loss of smell, memory impaired, dullness or dizziness of the head, dryness or heat of nose? Have you lost all sense of smell? Have you a hacking cough? Have you dyspepsia? Is your breath foul? If so YOU HAVE THE CATARRH. Some have all these symptoms, others only a part The leading symptom of ordinary catarrh is increased secretion of mucus of yellow or greenish colored matter. Foul breath is caused by the decomposing secretions exuded from festering ulcers far back in the head; sometimes the membrane covering the bones is eaten away and the bones themselves gradually decay. Such cases are indeed objects of pity, as stench from corroding sores reveal the corruption within.

As every breath drawn into the lungs must pass over and become polluted by the secretions in the nasal passages, it must necessarily follow that poisoning of the whole system gradually takes place, while the morbid matter that is swallowed during the sleep stems into the stomach, [illegible] and finally great debility, nervousness and consumption.

DO NOT PROCRASTINATE.

If you have experienced any of the above symptoms do not delay, but try CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE at once. We positively guarantee a few applications relieve and a thorough treatment to cure. Six months treatment for $1.00; sent by mail
