THE GOVERNORS MESSAGE. The annual message of Governor Penneyer, delivered to the legislature on Wednesday, is not as short a document as the public was led to believe.

Present level, flooding a part of both the Eastern and Western Continents, and wiping out Australia and the Gulf Stream.

The petition to the Governor which is being circulated, to appoint only farmers upon the board of regents of the Agricultural college, strikes at the very foundation of that matter, and puts it in shape, if the prayer of the petitioners be granted, to have the Agricultural college in reality as well as name what it purports to be.

It was evidently a sporting genius who conceived the idea of padding the spurs of game cocks so that they may meet in the pit without bringing themselves and their owners under the ban of the law.

This perfect sangroid with which Governor Penneyer demolishes the railroad commissions is refreshing to see. It is only equalled with the perfect coolness with which he expounds constitutional law.
