Also to provide for the collection of school taxes. Short—Repealing the whole specific contract law. Geer—Repealing law protecting O. N. Denney's Mongolian pheasants.

THE GOVERNOR ASKED TO EXPLAIN.

Geer introduced the following resolutions, which were laid on the table: WHEREAS, The legislative assembly of the state of Oregon did, at its regular session in January, 1885, enact a law providing for the registration of voters preceding each election; and WHEREAS, His excellency, the governor, did in his inaugural address, delivered in January, 1887, declare that said registry law was in full force and effect, notwithstanding the decision of the supreme court to the contrary; and WHEREAS, His excellency, the governor, did among other things, declare that same cannot be found in our constitution; any warrant by which the supreme court can suspend by an order the operation of a law which that constitution especially declares shall never be suspended but by the legislative assembly of Oregon, duly enacted, is a law of the state until it is repealed by the legislature, and that its operation can be no more suspended by the decision of the court than it can be by an order of the executive; and that there can be no mistake about this relation, and that the courts have no appellate legislative power under the constitution to revise the judgment of the legislature in this regard, and that where the constitution declares a statute to be a law and the court declares it to be no law, his duty under his oath is plain, and that the claim of the court was an usurpation of power and tyranny; and WHEREAS, His excellency further declared that, finding no warrant either in the state or federal constitution for the judicial department to nullify an act of the legislature, the conclusion is inevitable that the registration act, as passed by the legislature of Oregon is the law of the land to-day, and that the order of the court suspending the operation of such law is in violation of Sec. 23, Art. I of our constitution, and therefore that it was void and no effect; and

WHEREAS, His excellency further declared that he would endeavor to rigidly enforce the laws of the state, now, therefore be it Resolved, By the house of representatives that any communication his excellency explanatory of his apparent neglect of duty in the undoubted non-enforcement of the registry act of 1885, which he plainly declares to be a "law of the land," and therefore be it Resolved, Further, that since it is the duty of this house that no laws should be passed except those which the public interest actually demands, his excellency, the governor, is requested, if compatible with his sense of duty, to indicate to this house where the necessity exists for the passage of a registry law, as recommended in his recent message, if such a law already stands on our statute books in full force and effect as proclaimed by executive authority.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

More Concerning Their Removal from Office by Governor Penney.

It is said that much consternation was created in the office of the railroad commission Wednesday, when each of the members, Hon. George A. Waggoner and ex-Senator J. H. Slater, received from Governor Penney the following terse epistle: Sir:—You are hereby removed from the office of railroad commissioner of Oregon for cause. Said removal takes effect at this date. Yours respectfully, S. J. PATTERSON, Governor of Oregon.

ON THE SANTIAM.

Rock Creek, Jan. 12. It is reported that Mr. Allen, one of the absconding railroad contractors of the company of Smith & Allen, is in Portland without money sufficient to carry him to his family in Illinois. Surely "the way of the transgressor is hard." It is the general opinion that the O. P. railroad company will resume work in a short time. They have parties making ties and are still ballasting the track already laid. Wood contracts are being let, and everything indicates arrangements for a general rush in the work in the early spring. Your humble correspondent plucked a full blown strawberry bloom, on the second day of January, from a vine on which were several buds also some small green berries. Here we are enjoying beautiful spring like weather, while the denizens of the far East and those of many of the Middle States, are literally "snowed under." Surely our lines are cast in pleasant places. All the available timber land in this vicinity is being secured, and there is a lack of more sawmills being built in the spring. There will be an effort made to get a wagon road from here to Elk Horn neighborhood, in order that the miners and settlers may have access to the railroad. People are looking forward to the development of the Elk Horn mines, hopeful of a hidden bonanza being unearthed there sometime in the near future.

SCHOOL REPORT.

The following is the report of Providence school, district No. 2, of Linn county, taught by C. H. Jones, for third month of school, ending Jan. 11th, 1890: No. days attendance, 719; No. days absent, 41; No. times tardy, 9; No. pupils enrolled, 38; average daily attendance, 36. Names of pupils who were not absent during the month are: Lolla Arnold, Frankie Bostwick, Icy and Carson Chariton, George Coffelt, Emma, Gertie and George Davis, Lore and Lenna Kelso, Paulina Krueger, Dee, Bell and Josie Miles, Ora and Ernest Miller, Addie and George Leever, Lizzie, Rose, Harley and Winston Young. Persons who visited the school were C. D. Compton, Tom Hannah, Frank Gaines, Mrs. Arnold, C. Hasler, H. K. Arnold, Jessie Charlton, C. Krueger, F. Davis, Frank Smith, W. Young, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Eswick, Chas. Foren, W. D. Miller and Jasper Smelser.

Another Novelty in Slang.

The "chestnut," as a slang phrase, is done with, frost-bitten, quite, and an equally meaningless word has been substituted. It is "dusty." Do you admire anything from a stylish toilet to a dainty dish, you are privileged to say, "there is nothing dusty about that." On the whole, when one takes time to consider, there is no sense in "dusty" than in most fashionable slang. A dusty object suggests one whose freshness is despoiled. Just how the "chestnut" was ever significant, no one has yet clearly defined.

Social Hop this Evening.

Arrangements have been made for an elite social hop to be given at the St. Charles hotel this evening. The spacious dining rooms will be prepared for dancing and the parlors will be thrown open for the accommodation of the guests. No invitations will be issued, but the public generally are invited to attend. Prof. Diamond's orchestra of Salem will furnish music for the occasion. The committee in charge will endeavor to make this a brilliant social success.

Arrested at Harrisburg.

Walter Drennan, who witnessed the recent shooting affray below Salem, and it is thought knows all about it, and is accused of having had a hand in it, was arrested at Harrisburg by Deputy Sheriff Levi Douglas and was taken to Salem yesterday for examination. When arrested at the depot he was in the act of taking a revolver from his valise and placing it in his pocket. It is thought the mystery surrounding the case will now be cleared up.

HARRISBURG NOTES.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16. Miss Anna Hay is slowly recovering from her protracted illness.

Dr. Looney of Eugene City has located here for the practice of dentistry.

Grant McCully has returned from Montana where he has been for several years.

By authority of a telegram from below, deputy sheriff McClain arrested one Albert Glandors who, it is supposed was connected in some way with the shooting affray near Salem.

The new city council had a special meeting on the 10th inst. H. R. Sherrill and A. T. Drisko were elected to fill the vacancies caused by J. D. Bennett and J. L. Fuller refusing to serve.

The $1000 license law was repealed and instead a three hundred dollar license was enacted. One saloon will soon start up, and probably another.

A C. Merritt, the cattle thief, which title he undoubtedly justly entitled to, has gone to parts unknown, he took a southerly direction passing through Coburg on horseback, and was not much inclined to tarry. It is estimated that his "bootie" amounts to near a thousand dollars.

Petty thieving seems to be going on right among us. As last night Mr. J. F. McCartney lost from his cellar a quantity of sugar from the barrel; about ten pounds of butter, and a market basket to carry it in, also some eggs, and going to the next house succeeded in finding a nice ham; this is indication of a thief who has an appetite for good things.

MINING CASE DECISION.

The Plaintiffs Given Possession of the Disputed Claim on the Santiam.

The disputed mining claim case, wherein the Albany Mining Co. brought suit to recover possession of the Red Bull mine in the Santiam mining district, was tried and decided yesterday morning in Justice Humphrey's court. Decision was rendered in favor of the plaintiffs, which gives them possession of the disputed mining claim.

The case will be appealed to the circuit court. The defendant in his petition to transfer the case to the U. S. court placed the value of the mine at $6000, although of course the real value of the mine is as yet unknown. Some rich assays have been secured from the claim in question, and it is considered valuable.
