THE AVERY MYSTERY.

The Wounded Man an Employee of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce.

Frank Avery, shot at Gervais, Or., Tuesday night, has been assistant secretary of the Tacoma chamber of commerce for the past two years. He left Tacoma Sunday week for Portland, promising to be back Monday night.

Walter Brannon, who was arrested at Harrisburg as the man who shot Frank Avery, when confronted by the prisoner, Avery said he was not the man who shot him, so Brannon was discharged, but he gave valuable information, upon which Sheriff Croisan, with facts already in his possession, thinks he can overhaul the right man, who is the large man with the blonde mustache already described.

Col. John Kelsay, of Corvallis, Ore., during nearly all its history is an applicant for the position of consul-general at Calcutta under the coming administration. Some friends potential in the politics of the state and nation have interested themselves in his behalf and his claims will be strongly presented.

At the meeting of the Silver Star Pleasure Circle held at the G. A. R. hall Thursday evening for the purpose of organization the following officers were elected: Major W. C. Cassell, president; Mrs. Thos Hopkins, vice-president; Miss Vesta L. Mason, 2nd vice-president; Geo. H. Keeney, secretary; S. W. Paisly, treasurer.

The Benton Leader says that United States District attorney McArthur has begun suit in the United States District Court against Lydia and J. W. Brassfield to condemn about two and a half acres of land over which the jetty at Yaquina runs.

The will of the late C. T. Ingram has been admitted to probate. It leaves his property as follows: To Geo. E. Ingram, of Boston, $600; Josephine Rader, 80 acres of land; Martha Smith, 80 acres of land; Mary Jane Scammon, 80 acres of land and two south lots of Albany property; Henry Ingram, 67.20 acres of land; John L. Ingram, $5; Isabel Oakley, 160 acres of land; Franklin Ingram, $5; Anna Ingram, 80 acres of land and two north city lots with residence. Wm. H. Ingram was made executor.

The Newport Republican says: The engines of the Yaquina Bay are being taken out of the hull by a crew of men under charge of Bob Campbell. It will take some time to remove them. The boilers are seven years old, and it is thought they are not worth the expense to remove them while the hull lies in its present position.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:20 p. m. Sabbath school at 12:15 p. m. Young people's prayer meeting at 6:30 p. m. in the lecture room. The ordination and installation of three additional elders will take place in connection with the morning service. Subject of the evening discourse will be "Amusements, Their Relation to Professing Christians." All will be made welcome to these services.

SUICIDE BY DROWNING.

A Stranger Named Knight Jumps Overboard and is Drowned at Kalama.

The Oregonian relates how a discouraged man ends the battle for existence: A gentleman who was a passenger on the Northern Pacific train from Tacoma yesterday afternoon brought the particulars of a suicide at Kalama. The big transfer boat, the Tacoma, was ploughing through the waves between Kalama and Hunter's Point when one of the passengers approached the side of the boat, threw off his coat, clung upon the railing, and before his intentions had been realized by the by-standers sprang into the river and disappeared from view.

A rush was made for the boats and an effort made to lower one to the rescue of the man. When the latter rose to the surface he was already in the heavy swell of the boat, and apparently in a state of great exhaustion. He shouted lustily for help, having evidently altered his suicidal intentions. Before the boat could be lowered he had gone down for the last time. The man was unknown to all the passengers. He was dressed as a laboring man, and to some of the passengers who had talked with him, he stated that his name was Knight. He was nearly penniless, he said, having come from Omaha to the Sound, and being unsuccessful in finding work, was almost despairing. There was no clue to his further identity or antecedents in his coat.

DUPE VERSUS SWINDLER.

W. F. Bruin, the 20-year-old complaining witness in the case of the state against Frank Howard, tried in the criminal court yesterday, resulting in the defendant's conviction, says the Telegram of last evening, is a plucky and determined young man, possessed of qualities to insure his success in life.

Without a dime, and only a few apples in his pockets, Bruin walked from Salem to this city. Hearing to be taken for a tramp, he asked for no assistance from any one on the road; and upon arriving here in a half-famished condition, after a three days' tramp, he began a systematic search for Howard and his pal, subsequent to swearing to the complaint against the former in the police court. Two or three days elapsed before Bruin caught sight of the scoundrel coming out of the Court saloon on Third and Salmon streets.

Yesterday was a lively day in police court. Thomas Nickerson was given five days in the city jail for being drunk and disorderly. Jos. Davis and Patrick Metjee were arranged on a charge of disturbing the peace of the city by engaging in a pugilistic encounter. They were both in a battered condition. They paid their fine of $5 each and were discharged. D. Neil was given four days in the city jail for being drunk and disorderly, and Jas. Robinson was sent up for five days on a charge of vagrancy. The entire lot who were sentenced, were put to work on the streets.

For some years past an effort has been made to open the Klamath Indian reservation for settlement. It is claimed that, under the existing law, it is no longer a reservation, and should be thrown upon settlement, but the secretaries of the interior have refused to take this view of the case. A suit was brought in the circuit court of California last autumn which involved the question whether the Klamath Indian reservation was ordered to be thrown open to settlement by an act of congress passed some years ago. Secretary Vilas had ordered an appeal to be taken from the decision to the supreme court of the United States which might delay the case for at least three years until that appeal can be heard.

OREGONIANS ABROAD.

Some Heavy Notes from an Esteemed Eastern Subscriber.

Lyons, Iowa, Jan. 11. Belle Belcher, of LaFayette, is visiting friends and relatives in Texas.

Mr. Morral, of Seattle, is looking after the interests of his cattle in Nebraska.

Mr. Shaw, of Portland, the author of the Switch-back on the O. R. & N., makes a short trip to Ohio, on special business.

Mrs. Bradshaw, of The Dalles, Or., wife of the late Judge Bradshaw, is making an extensive visit through the East for her health.

Miss Allie Parkinson, one of Oregon's esteemed young ladies, who is at present visiting her many friends and relatives in Clinton, Iowa, will be one among the many who will attend the inauguration of President-Elect Harrison.

The Willamette valley is experiencing a slight touch of winter. Moyer Bros. saw-mill at Brownsville is now running on time, and is turning out some first-class lumber from logs secured during the last "raise" of the Calapooia.

Last year was the most prosperous in the history of California. The present population is estimated at 1,400,000, many counties having doubled and even trebled their population. An equal measure of prosperity may be expected in Oregon during the next year.

One firm in Seattle has spent $35,000 in advertising that city the past year and expect to spend that much more this year. People are arriving there from the East by the thousands and real estate is rising in price all the time.

Nearly 60,000 people settled in Oregon in 1888, and every section of the state has been greatly benefited thereby. The immigration will be more than doubled in 1889. Surely there is a brilliant future for Oregon.

The Brownsville Woolen Mill's Company will shortly "close down" for a short period, during which time necessary repairs will be made, new and improved machinery added preparatory to a fresh start. The present stoppage is due to the fact that a large amount of manufactured fabrics are on hand and must be closed out for settlement with old stockholders.

Small towns throughout the state are complaining of an ingenious soap swindle which is being worked. Female agents, claiming to be from Chicago, canvass at houses, leaving a cake of soap as a sample. They return and ask the lady to sign a printed "testimonial," the same to be presented to the grocers to influence the latter to handle the trade. The testimonials afterward turn up as "orders" for soap.

Senator Dolph has received a letter from the third auditor of the treasury in answer to a request to the secretary of the treasury for immediate action on the Indian war claims of the state of Oregon now pending before the third auditor, so that any amount allowed to the state might be appropriated for congress at the present session, informing him that the claim would be taken up for examination in a few days with a view to adjusting it in time for the appropriation.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, as first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Bosche's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. The Remedy guaranteed by Foshay & Mason.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing Syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Foshay & Mason.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Thompson & Waters, either by note or account must come forward and settle the same within thirty days, as there is going to be a change in their business. THOMPSON & WATERS. Brownsville, Or., Jan. 1st, 1889.

The Princess of Wales was 44 years old on the 1st of December, but she does not look a day over 30. Administrative Notice. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I HAVE BEEN appointed administrator of the estate of T. M. Adair deceased, by the County Court of Lincoln county, Oregon, and that all persons having claims against said estate are required to present the same properly verified to me at Salem, Oregon, or to my attorney, J. H. Montanye, at his office in Albany, Oregon, within 30 months from this date being January 15, 1889. L. H. MONTANYE, Administrator. Attorney for Admin.
