NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Six shaves for a $1 at Viereck's. For a clean shave or bath go to L. Viereck's. Guiss & Son have opened a new line of fine artists' materials.

THE LINN COUNTY BANK. After February First the Firm will be Cowan, Ralston & Chamberlain. A change has been made in the proprietorship of the Linn County Bank, by the addition of Mr. Geo. E. Chamberlain, formerly cashier of the First National Bank, as a member of the firm.

THE ITALIAN LABORERS. Large Numbers of Them Arrive in Portland from the Oregon Pacific Railroad. Concerning the Italian railroad laborers, who recently created no little disturbance in this city the Evening Telegram says: Portland is pretty well flooded with Italians just at present, as a result of the trouble on the Oregon Pacific extension work.

SOME GOOD SUGGESTIONS.

A Correspondent's Views of Promoting the Growth of Albany. To THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD: In your issue of yesterday morning I notice that there has been a remonstrance circulated against that portion of the new city charter that provides for increasing the tax limit from 5 to 8 mills and the indebtedness from $2000 to $5000. It will certainly meet with a very few signers and it should never be presented to our representatives. The idea that a city the size and having the natural advantages that Albany has to be cramped up with a 5 mill tax and a $2000 indebtedness is enough to drive immigration away from our city, rather than bring it to us. At present there is not a city in the Willamette valley that has the prospects of Albany for a bright future.

THE GOVERNMENT WINS.

Land at Yaquina Condemned for Use in the Government Work. The trial of the suit brought by the United States against J. W. Brasfield and Lydia Brasfield, to condemn certain lands at the bay to the use of the government, was decided Thursday evening. The jury remained out less than half an hour, and returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, stipulating that the land should be condemned upon the payment to the Brasfields of $1450 and the costs of the trial, and the court gave plaintiff a judgment on the verdict. That the government got a good bargain is not disputed. Defendants asked $4500 for the property, which the government engineers declined to allow. Now that the case is settled, work will be taken up and pushed vigorously ahead on the improvements.

ASTORIA RAILROAD. This is an opportunity that the citizens of Astoria must not lose. It is the "golden egg," and all should unite in grasping it. Few can realize the immense advantage to be derived from it. The road must be built, and in order to raise enough money everybody should buy their groceries from Willamette Packing Co., as they undersell any house in the city.

ANOTHER NATIONAL BANK. The shareholders in the Bank of Oregon of Eugene have concluded to re-organize it as a National bank with a paid up stock of $50,000. It will be known as the Eugene National Bank.

UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION.

The Lands Will Be Appraised and Soon Opened to Public Sale. Many complaints have been expressed by the people of Eastern Oregon at the delay in the sale of lands of the Umatilla Indian reservation. In consequence thereof, Representative Hermann has laid the case before the secretary of the interior, who gave assurance that he would order the final appraisal and cause commissioners to be appointed, as soon as the commissioner of Indian affairs reported no further setback to exist. Hermann followed up the case to the Indian office, and an examination there disclosed no reason for further delay, and then the commissioner at once reported to the secretary and recommended the immediate appraisal preliminary to a public sale of outside lands, aggregating over 100,000 acres, and comprising some of the most fertile lands in Oregon. The "inside lands" of this great reserve, and which constitute the diminished reservation, await allotment in severalty to the Walla Walla, Cayuse and Umatilla Indians. This allotment will be made as soon as the survey is completed of the land which was added to the diminished reserve by a special act of congress at the last session.

TRANSFER OF ARTILLERY.

Officers, Men, Guns and Horses of Battery E Remove from Vancouver to San Francisco. In compliance with orders received from Washington a few days ago, Major McCrea, of the First artillery at Vancouver, has taken all the forces under his command to San Francisco. Battery E, the one thus transferred, consists of eighty men and five officers, who with their families took the overland train for transportation. There are 60 horses in the battery, which were also taken. The officers occupied a private car, while the soldiers were accommodated by two immigrant sleepers. The train will reach San Francisco Sunday morning. General Miles caused the transfer to be made, it is said, so that he might have the battery, which he manufactured while at Vancouver, under his personal command. The train passed through Albany Friday night about midnight, and consisted of eighteen cars.

Y. P. M. A.

The young people of the M. E. church of this city have formed themselves into a society, known as the Young People's Methodist Alliance, with twenty-one active and nine associate members. They will meet every Sunday evening at the church at 6 o'clock. Subject for to-night, "Our Responsibility as Christians," Ezekiel 33, chapter 6, 17 verses. Strangers made welcome to these meetings.

Our Weather Item.

The midsummer skies of sunny Italy could furnish no weather surpassing that now being enjoyed in midwinter in Oregon. The streets are dry—almost dusty. Not a cloud obscures the sun which daily sends the mercury up to almost a summer temperature. Mer. work with their coats off, and the merchants' stock of overcoats remain unsold upon the shelves. This is winter in Oregon.

Church Service.

Preaching services to-day at the Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Y. P. M. A., prayer meeting at 6:30 p. m. in the lecture room. The sacrament of the Lord's supper and the reception of members by letter and on profession will occur in connection with the morning service. All will be made welcome to these services.

Woolen and Worsted Mills.

Thos. Kay, who has been in this city, left yesterday for England, where he goes to invest in a woolen and worsted mill plant. He will likely start these mills either at Salem or Albany, most likely in this city, if the proper inducements are offered.

TAX-PAYER.

Wm. T. Radir, Geo. H. Chance, Sylvester S. West, signers of supplementary articles.

James Megher is the name of the gambler arrested last night, instead of Jones. He appeared and waived examination and deposited $50 for his appearance before the grand jury. Then J. S. McDonald swore out a warrant against Jack Hollivell, a saloon keeper, for allowing unlawful games. Hollivell was bound over to await the action of the grand jury. He gave bail and then had McDonald arrested for gambling. McDonald deposited $100 bail.

Elite Dancing Party.

The first of a series of social dancing parties will be given at the opera house on Thursday evening, January 31. The committee in charge have engaged for the occasion the famous Ross' orchestra, of Portland, which is one of the finest on the coast. No pains will be spared to make it a brilliant social success, and enjoyable to both young and old. The elite of this city, as well as from neighboring towns, will be present. The floor will be held strictly for dancers and no others admitted, except ladies and their daughters. The gallery will be open for the public at 25 cents admittance. Dancers tickets $1.50.

An Excellent Work.

Every family should have a standard atlas for reference and study. One of the best and most extensive and fullest is Cram's Family Atlas of the world. It is not only a perfect Atlas, but is also the latest and most extensive gazetteer issued. The work is being canvassed for in this city and vicinity by Joseph Tait, and every family should secure a copy while they have the opportunity.
