CRAWFORDSVILLE NOTES.

Mrs. Noah Shanks has been quite sick for a few days with erysipelas.

Mrs. E. Y. Finley, is also very sick. She has been feeble for some time past.

Mr. H. L. Robe has a slight attack of the diptheria, which has confined him at home for a few days.

Mr. N. Shanks moved into town last week. He has rented his farm near this place, to his son.

Mr. J. B. Wirt was in town last week, selling fruit trees. He is canvassing for O. Dickenson of Salem.

Rev. Ellworthy of the M. E. church preached here to a large congregation. After services 20 new members were baptized and two infants.

Mr. D. H. Glass and his brother W. B. Glass left to-day for Washington Territory to look out a location for a large store. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

The young people of our town, a number of 25 or 30 met at the residence of Mr. Sam Glass, and then proceeded to the residence of R. Glass and family to give them a surprise party. The evening was pleasantly spent in various amusements.

Mr. G. W. Pugh lost a very good horse Friday. His wife had rode the horse to Brownsville and was coming home, when about 200 yards below the post-office the horse stepped on the end of a small stick which caused the other end to fly up and stick into the horse, causing his death in a few minutes.

IMPORTANT.

To Eye, Ear, Catarrhal, Lungs, Nervous Chronic or Rectal Suffers.

Dr. J. B. Pilkington will be at the Revere house all day Tuesday, February 5th, 1889, and will give special free examinations and opinion to all afflicted as above. Refers to Mrs. Jas. G. Cherry, M. W. Young, Chas. Wagner, Rev. Israel Carlton of Lebanon, and very many others in Linn county.

An Excellent Work.

Every family should have a standard atlas for reference and study. One of the best and most extensive and fullest is Cram's Family Atlas of the world. It is not only a perfect Atlas, but is also the latest and most extensive gazeteer issued. The work is being canvassed for in this city and vicinity by Joseph Talt, and every family should secure a copy while they have the opportunity.

The Inauguration Ball.

If it should happen to rain on the night of the 4th of March the inauguration ball will have to abandoned and the clergy who are objecting to it will have the pleasure to talk about Providential displeasure. For the glass roof over the court of the Pension building leaks like a sieve, and during the heavy rains recently the clerks could not cross it without an umbrella or a drenching. If Congress should make an immediate appropriation for its repair protection might be insured, but there is no probability of such a thing.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Caution to Mothers.

Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paragoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Acker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Foshay & Mason.

Notice.

W. C. Tweedale, having sold his store and hardware business to Messrs. Smith & Washburne, desires all having unsettled accounts to come forward without delay and settle. For the new firm he solicits a continuance of the liberal patronage of the public.

Saur Kraut.

Ten barrels of the genuine German sauer kraut were received yesterday. also a fine lot of delicacies, salted Chinook salmon and a few kits of Boston mackerel, which is a rare treat, by the Willamette Packing Co.'s store.

Removal.

Geo. W. Smith will remove his tin-shop, stove, tinware and hardware stock of goods from the McFarland building into the room lately vacated by Monteith & Seitenbach, some time this week.

WILL BROS.

Dealers in all the latest improved pianos, organs, sewing machines, guns, also a full line of warranted razors, butcher and pocket knives. The best kind of sewing machine oils, needles and extras for all machines. All repairing in the above lines neatly and reasonably done.

GENERAL NEWS.

More Surmises Concerning Harrison's Cabinet.

RIOTOUS STRIKERS IN NEW YORK

The Militia Called Out to Preserve Order—Minister Phelps Sails for the United States—Old World Notes.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—United States Senator-elect Washburne, of Minnesota is here going East. He says from talk with Harrison he has reason to believe that California will be given the secretaryship of the interior. Probably Swift will be the man.

RIOTING STRIKERS.

Militia and Gatling Guns to Protect Property and Lives.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Nearly all the street car lines in the city resumed running this morning. Some of them are running a considerable number. Some of the strikers are fighting drunk. Serious trouble is anticipated before night. Squads of militia are guarding the state arsenal and second battery, where Gattling guns are stationed to guard against a rumored attack contemplated by the strikers to secure arms and ammunition.

SAILED FOR AMERICA.

Minister Phelps and Party Will Visit the United States.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Minister Phelps sailed for the United States to-day. The members of the diplomatic corps and others accompanied him to the railway station here and he was attended by the municipal authorities of Southampton to the dock.

PRINCE RUDOLPH'S DEATH.

It Will Not Affect the Policy of the Austrian Government.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—All the papers comment on the death of Prince Rudolph. The general opinion is that it will not affect Austrian policy. Advices from Massowah Handab's tribe ask for Italian assistance against threatened attack by Osman Digna.

Down With the Sugar Trusts.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Judge Barrett to-day appointed a receiver for the North River sugar refinery to act under the court's orders. This grows out of the recent decision that these companies acted illegally in joining sugar trusts.

MARRIAGE OF COUSINS.

Illinois Recently Forbade It, and is Now Asked to Repeal the Law.

Chicago Tribune.

A statute was passed by the last Legislature of Illinois, nobody knows how, and nobody knows why, forbidding the marriage of first cousins. It went into operation June 15, 1887, and all marriages in this State since then were absolutely void.

The law has already done more harm than good, and one of the first duties of the coming Legislature was to repeal it, and, so far as they can by a retrospective act, make legal the marriages in the mean time entered into. A law that so particularly effects social life and also all social traditions should never be adopted by a legislature until a full knowledge of the changes proposed is spread, throughout the length and breath of the State. The way it looks now, as respects this law, is that the legislator who proposed it had some private grudge to indulge and log rolled it through without discussion. The whole business will bear investigation, and in any event the law should be repealed instanter.

TANGENT NOTES.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say, "Oh it's only a cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGGS' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior, and few equals. Geo. L. Blackman, druggist.

Use Fahrney's panacea.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Newsy Items from the State House at Salem.

Special to the HERALD.

The governor to-day appointed Sam'l Simon, of Portland, notary public.

THE TABLES TURNED.

A Railway Man's Game at Bluff That Failed to Work.

The arrogance of railway officials in Ontario and the overbearing way in which money has been demanded is well illustrated in the following occurrence:

Colonel C. attended a meeting of the Barrie Town Council and remarked:

"Gentlemen, my road is now approaching your town, and I think of putting a station here for your benefit. So I want the town to vote me a bonus of $50,000 for my road."

"Colonel," timidly remarked one of the councilors, "the county of Simcoe has voted $200,000 to the railway enterprise already, and the town is to poor to give $50,000 additional."

"Well, vote on the proposition," remarked the Colonel, as he left the room, "and let me know your decision."

The Council voted the proposition down and so announced, when the Colonel became wrathy and said: So you refuse me the $50,000? Well, by gad sir, I'll make grass grow in the streets of Barrie."

"The Colonel did injure the town a little," said the narrator, by placing the little station at Allandale a mile distant, but I have resided in Barrie nearly thirty years and have never seen grass growing in the streets except along in the gutters in rainy weather; but I know one thing—that is, that the grass is growing pretty durn lively over the old man."

Pleasant for Mamma.

Little Johnny (looking curiously at the visitor)—Where did the chicken bite you, Mr. Billus? I don't see any of the marks Visitor—Why, Johnny, I haven't been bitten by any chicken.

Johnny—Mamma didn't you tell papa Mr. Billus was dreadfully henpecked? Why, mamma, how funny you look! Your face is all red.
