The dry cold weather of the early winter months is productive of a great deal of croup among children. Mothers should be on the lookout for it, and be prepared to arrest it as soon as the first symptoms appear. True croup never comes without a warning; a day or two before the attack the child will become hoarse, and that symptoms is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness or cough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided; it has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the Remedy for it contains no injurious substance. For sale by Foshay & Mason.

Is it not better to nip Consumption the greatest scourge of humanity in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption can be cured by California Cat-R-Cure. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by Foshay & Mason.

AT WASHINGTON.

Will Allison Take a Place in the Cabinet?

ABOUT TARIFF LEGISLATION.

Sherman's Bill Prohibiting Trusts—Concerning an Extra Session of Congress—The Territories.

Special Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Senator Allison who has resigned the invitation of Gen. Harrison to enter the Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury, has now gone to Indianapolis to finally settle the matter. The trip was very sudden and a great surprise to Mr. Allison's friends, and was only taken because Gen. Harrison refused to accept the written declaration sent him by Mr. Allison, and because he wants that gentleman to set the financial pace for his administration. Another reason for the trip is that an intimation was given by Mr. Allison that unless he accepted the position tendered him, Iowa would have no representation in the Cabinet. J. S. Clark, whom it is said Mr. Allison has been desirous of having in the Cabinet as Iowa's representative with several other prominent Iowa Republicans, is expected to meet Mr. Allison at Indianapolis, and some arrangements will be definitely made.

Senator Sherman is working energetically for his bill prohibiting trusts, and confidently expects its early passage by the Senate. It would probably have passed last week when it was up for consideration, if the Senator from Ohio had not, in deference to the requests of a number of Senators, agreed to have it laid aside temporarily, to take up an appropriation bill. In giving way Mr. Sherman took occasion to say that he would do so no more, and that when his bill next came up he should insist upon its disposal.

The Senate tariff bill has been sent to the house and referred to the committee on ways and means, and contrary to general opinion a few days ago, it now looks as if some legislation on this subject will be gotten through at the present session. The democrats of the ways and means committee have given their pledges publicly to report the bill to the house at the earliest time possible, and if the house agrees to the appointment of conferees, as asked for by the Senate, some sort of a compromise is expected to be reached that will result in a large reduction in the surplus revenues. The tobacco tax is almost certain to be greatly reduced, if not altogether abolished. In fact this tobacco business is at the bottom of the change of tactics on the part of the democrats. A number of members from the tobacco states announced that if they could get relief in no other way they proposed to join the republicans and support the Senate bill in its entirety.

Many conservative people here believe that Secretary Bayard's bungling methods have put us in a condition where war with Germany is not only one of the possibilities of the near future but is probable. Evidence of Bayard's wretched management to Samoa is before the foreign committee of both houses of Congress in the shape of official correspondence. So urgent do the needs of our government appear to Senator Sherman that he has offered an amendment to the Diplomatic and Consular appropriation bill appropriating $600,000 to be spent by the President in looking after American interests in Samoa.

Representative Burrows, of Michigan, one of the most prominent candidates for Speaker of the next house, is very much in favor of holding an extra session of Congress. He said in a conversation: "I shall tell Gen. Harrison that not to have an extra session will be to gamble with fate and court defeat. Mr. Burrows then proceeded in detail to name what he considered the reasons for an extra session. April is the month Mr. Burrows favors for the calling of the extra session.

Representative Butterworth made a speech last week criticizing some of the methods resorted to by the Knights of Labor in order to carry their points, which according to the politician among whom it created a genuine sensation was bound to be the political death of Butterworth. On the contrary, Mr. Butterworth has received a flood of letters and telegrams, many of them from members of the Knights of Labor, endorsing the manly position he took in his remarks. Right or wrong, Ben Butterworth deserves credit for having the moral courage to stand up in the house and speak his opinion regarding an organization that the demagogues of both parties are always ready to humbly bow the knee to. Would that both house and senate had more Ben Butterworths, not to make war on the Knights of Labor or any other organization, but to uphold the right and oppose the wrong, no matter what might be offended or pleased by their action. More old-fashioned manliness is one of the crying needs of the time, particularly in Congress.

Members of the Senate committee on territories say that the Springer omnibus bill, which recently passed the house, is so contrary in its terms and so loosely constructed, that if it were passed no territory could come in under it without further legislation. The committee is now trying to see if the bill can be patched so as to accomplish what it was supposed to do.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BLUEBERRY

The Blueberry is a valuable fruit and is reliable to grow in our Northern states, where the more tender varieties of fruits winter kill. It is perfectly hardy, having stood 40 degrees below zero without showing any injury to the most tender buds. It ripens in this latitude about the 1st of July, and is borne in clusters like currants; shape, round; color, reddish purple at first, but becomes a bluish-black when fully ripened. The flavor is equal to the raspberry, a very mild, rich sub-acid, pronounced by most people delicious. It may be served with sugar and cream or cooked sauce, and is splendid canned for winter use. The plant seems to flourish in all soils and is a good bearer. It grows very stocky and makes a nice hedge. The shining dark green leaves and the blue fruit making a pleasing contrast. The demand for the fruit is great, and usually brings 15 cents per quart. They commence bearing the first year after setting out, and yield a full crop the second and third year after setting out. They are propagated from suckers and root cuttings. The plant is about the height and size of a currant bush and very stocky, holding the fruit well up from the ground. Plants should be set in the spring, during March, April and May, in rows two or three feet apart, and five or six feet between the rows, making a perfect hedge, and no grass or weeds should be allowed to grow between rows.

PRICE LIST.

1 dozen plants by mail..... $ 60

The following notices were appointed to-day: J. Carroll McCaffrey, Portland; W. S. Webber, Newport, Benton county; J. L. Lewellin, Myrtle Point, Coos county; Geo. V. Hamilton, Pendleton.

State Superintendent McElroy has appointed district normal institutes as follows: for the fifth judicial district, comprising Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia and Washington counties, to be held at Oregon City on March 20, 21, 22; for the second judicial district, comprising Benton, Coos, Curry, Douglas and Lane counties, at Eugene city on April 10, 11 and 12.

The railroad commission, which was supposed by some to have lost its existence by the recent action of the governor, was found at its post as usual, to-day being the day of the regular monthly meeting. Commissioners Slater and Waggoner and Clerk Bull were on hand ready to take under consideration any and all questions affecting the control of railroads, but nothing of interest presented itself.

SEASIDE CITY NEWS.

Sudden Death of Wm. Parry—A Mysterious Murderer.

EUGENE CITY, Feb. 4.—Mr. Wm. Parry was found dead in the road about half a mile east of this city yesterday. It seems that he had started Sunday morning to go on horseback to his hopyard near this city to his home in Linn county and had suddenly dropped dead from his horse. The men coming from his horse shortly after he started found his horse and a little distance further found him lying face downward in the road; from the fact that there were no bruises or broken bones, and that he was troubled with heart disease, the latter is the probable cause of his death. He was one of Oregon's pioneers and leaves a wife and a large family to mourn his death.

A mysterious personage has been seen a number of times on the streets of Eugene during the past week: It appears only after night, masked and dressed in woman's clothes. A small child usually accompanies him. One woman claims to have chased him (for it must be a man), nearly a mile without overtaking it. The women are afraid to go out at night. It is thought to be either a sly sort of burglar or an insane woman, probably the latter.

There are 535 inmates in the Oregon insane asylum at Salem.
