STATE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE

They Excluded the Grangers—Election of Officers—New Constitution.

The alliance was called to order by President Miller at 9:45 A. M. and was opened with a song by the choir and prayer by Rev. I. B. Fisher, of Albany.

The committee on credentials reported the following additional delegates:

- Albany U. P. church—Mrs. E. Tate, Rev. S. G. Irvine. Albany Congregational church—Mrs. A. H. Matthews. Astoria Rescue Temperance Club—Rev. A. LeRoy. Albany U. P. S. S.—Ada McCornac, F. P. Nutting. Albany First Presbyterian church—F. Fortmiller. Oakville U. P. S. S.—Wm. Patterson, A. L. Smith. Oakville U. P. church—Rev. A. M. Acheson, R. A. Bamford, Chas. Patton. Oakville W. C. T. U.—Miss Jennie Acheson. Corvallis W. C. T. U.—Mrs. L. H. Addition. Oak Grove S. S.—Pierce Riggs. Harrisburg S. S.—Lucy Munson. Salem Capital Lodge, I. O. G. T.—Mrs. Isaac Miller, Mrs. N. J. McInerney, M. V. Kork. Taylor street church, Portland—Rev. M. C. McDermott.

The names of Z. T. Wright, of Portland, and D. P. Porter, of Shedd, were added to the list of delegates as old members of the alliance. Rev. T. J. Wilson and Mr. F. J. Wilson were accredited as delegates from the U. P. church of the Warm Spring Indian Agency. J. Conser, of Eugene, was also enrolled as a delegate.

The secretary, E. E. McKinney, of Turner, made his annual report—being the eighteenth annual report of the alliance—showing the work that had been accomplished, and that the growth of temperance was owing greatly to the influence of the alliance, in spite of the belittling of the work from various sources. Also embodying a claim for $500 in favor of Dr. J. W. Watts for services as lecturer. On motion the report was referred to a special committee of three.

Expressive remarks upon the subject of the secretary's report, especially that portion referring to the extracts read from the Daily Oregonian, were made by Rev. A. LeRoy, Mrs. Narcissa White Kinney, W. T. Bryan, J. N. Gay and others.

President Miller read a communication from California from Rev. J. W. Webb, enclosing $1 to keep up his membership. On motion a rising vote of remembrance to Rev. Mr. Webb was voted.

The executive committee reported that they had drafted a proposed new constitution and it was submitted for adoption.

On motion it was considered section by section. The name adopted by the new constitution is the State Temperance Alliance of Oregon. It provides for membership from churches, Sunday schools and temperance associations, on the basis of one member for the organization and one for each fifty members.

A motion was made to amend the section on membership so as to allow granges to be represented. Mrs. Tucker, of Arlington, made the statement that granges were not temperance organizations, that at the feasts and dinners wine was used and that she had been urged to partake of it. Quite a discussion followed, several persons showing that the granges had promoted and encouraged temperance, and that the largest vote for the prohibitory amendment was where granges existed and worked, and members of the grange from its inception emphatically stated that in their knowledge wine had never been used at feasts and temperance was strictly inculcated. It was also stated that churches were not strictly temperance organizations. This statement was emphatically denied by others, and the amendment was withdrawn and granges were excluded from the regular organizations entitled to delegations. By this action the Alliance drew the mantle of holiness about itself and said we do not desire temperance assistance from secular organizations.

Pending further action the Alliance adjourned until 2 P. M.

The excluding of granges from representation created no little commotion, inasmuch as several delegates from granges of Linn county were reported by the committee on credentials as entitled to seats in the alliance. One or two of them withdrew and returned home.

AFTERNOON SESSION. Alliance called to order at the hour named and opened by prayer by Rev. R. Logan, of Philomath. Major Hilton, being present, was invited to a place in the alliance by a standing vote.

The consideration of the constitution was rendered, the section naming the officers being under discussion. It provides that the officers shall consist of president, four vice-presidents, who shall also be presidents of four district alliances. The president of the W. C. T. U., G. W. C. T. of the I. O. G. T., and president of the state Sunday School Association to be vice-presidents ex-officio. The time of meeting of the alliance is fixed bi-annually on the third Wednesday in January, on the years on which the legislature meets.

Four district alliances were pre-

A MERITED TRIBUTE.

What Mr. and Madam Heine Think of the Sterling Pianos.

Mr. Josef Heine in his entertainment Wednesday evening took occasion to speak in terms of warm praise of the beautiful Sterling piano, which had been placed in the opera house for the use of Mrs. Heine.

He said that they had been able to play some of their most brilliant numbers because they had a good piano, which at several places they did not have, and were compelled to omit some of the passages on that account.

Mrs. Heine was so delighted with the instrument that she wrote the following note at the close of the performance to Mr. G. L. Blackman, who furnished the piano:

ALBANY, Feb. 13, 1889. Mr. G. L. BLACKMAN: Dear Sir—Having thoroughly examined the beautiful Sterling piano furnished for use at our entertainment at the opera house this evening, it affords me much pleasure to say that I consider it one of the best pianos upon which I have ever played. The purity of tone and excellence of finish makes it, in my estimation, a superior instrument, not excelled by any of the best pianos in use in this country.

Yours truly, ADA HEINE.
