Are We to Have Another War?

Some political prophets aver that we shall. Be that as it may, the battle waged by medicine science against disease will never cease until we arrive at the utopian epoch when the human family shall cease to be afflicted with bodily ailments. One of the most potent weapons which the armory of medicine furnishes, is Hoesetter's Stomach Bitters, which is of special utility as a family remedy, as it is adapted to the immediate relief and ultimate cure of those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which are of commonest occurrence. Indigestion, biliousness and constipation are inseparable companions, as these ailments are completely eradicated by the Bitters. But the remedial effect of this superlatively wholesome and genial medicine takes in also nervous ailments, rheumatism and kidney troubles; its action is, therefore, as in the other complaints, being characterized by unequalled tone.

What, Ge. L. Blackman. Is the reason people will not, cannot or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that affords universal satisfaction at a moderate cost? No medicine in the world is doing such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as Hoesetter's Blood Purifier and Blood Mender and every bottle that does not work will cost you nothing. Geo. L. Blackman, druggist.
