THE OREGON PACIFIC RAILWAY

In its eastward course, has at last reached this great belt, and has cut across one large ledge, which promises good pay, in the Santiam district. We are glad to learn this, for it will be the direct means of proving the ledges in this great belt, which is now tapped only in a few places; viz: On the headwaters of the Clackamas, Calapooia and Blue, and in the Bohemia district on the head of the coast fork of the Willamette, on the line of Lane and Douglas counties. Here we have a distance of something like one hundred miles long, containing from twenty to thirty distinct ledges, carrying more or less gold on the surface, and flanked on the whole west by the broad and fertile Willamette Valley, and where but little snow ever falls, and surrounded by forests of the finest timber and cut through by streams of water, thus furnishing all the facilities and power needed for successful reduction of ores. Many people are so blinded with prejudice in our midst that they cannot see anything favorable in this Cascade range of mountains—it is too near home. Why, only a couple of weeks ago a young man of this city, who had spent some months in Butte City, Montana, came home, and brought down some fine specimens of ore from these justly celebrated mines, and in comparing these aforesaid specimens with some here, brought from the River, some people laughed at the idea of their resemblance, and yet careful comparison shows that the quality, color and grain of the quartz is exactly the same—the colored and shaped sulphurets of iron, and the galena is the same, only that the Montana ore is the richest ore—the latter comes from the 1200-foot level of the mine, while the ore from the Cascades comes from a depth of about THIRTY FEET BELOW THE SURFACE. We hear it said many times that there is nothing in these ledges because quartz mills were built a number of years ago at Quartzville and Bohemia and failed to make them pay. Has there been no improvement in mills since those were tried? Has there been nothing learned about ores since that time? In 1860 the writer was in Nevada when the price of crushing ore was $50 per ton—this did not include the extraction or handling. Truly Mr. Harnett makes the matter very plain when he says: "If with proper machinery and appliances they can make $4 and $6 pay millions in Alaska, and $1 in California, what would the ledges of Oregon pay under the same conditions?" Mr. H. says it is estimated that the gold yield per ton does not reach $15. The gold yield of several leading mines in the Black Hills, which were large producers, only averaged from $4 to $6, while the "Treaty" in Alaska, which has the largest quartz mill in the world, only pays from $4 to $6 per ton, and many mines in California are about in the same scale. We have the necessary farming community at our door to produce all the food supply; we have the most favorable climate in the world for constant working; we have endless supplies of fine timber, and everywhere fine streams of water, furnishing power to run thousands of stamps and other machinery required; and last, but not least, there are hundreds of thousands of tons of quartz, extending the whole length of the Cascade range, carrying the precious metals, and only awaiting the hand of capital to unlock the immense wealth that lies hidden in their rock-ribbed sides. How much longer we will have to wait is a problem that is hard to solve, but we suppose when no more mines can be found in distant states and territories, then, and not till then, will we begin to look around home for investment.

COAST NOTES.

The new bridge at Portland is now open for traffic. There are over 380 convicts in the state penitentiary. Washington has almost the same population as Oregon. Boatmen say the upper Willamette is as low as they ever saw it. It is said the citizens of Astoria send $1,000 to the Louisiana lottery every month. Frank Avery, the man who was shot on the train at Geryais about a month ago has recovered and gone to California. The farmer's institute, under the auspices of the State Agricultural college is to be held at Hillsboro March 14 and 15. Capt. Thomas Stears of Siuslaw, has gone to Yaquina to buy out his partners in the steamer Favorite, intending, so he stated, to take the Favorite back to Siuslaw. There has not been a star added to our flag since August 1, 1876, when Colorado was admitted, nearly thirteen years ago, but several new states will be admitted during the year. The city council of Silverton refused to renew the license of their one saloon and the proprietors are now selling liquor by the quart, and the city is without the customary revenue. A force of men is at work on the O. & C. road near Junction replacing the old rails with new steel ones and will probably reach Eugene soon. They have already been laid on most of the line south of here. Besides the large number of immigrants from the Eastern states daily arriving in the Willamette valley, there are a great many Californians coming. The boom down there has burst and now they are flocking to Oregon on every train. The Eugene Register says that the O. & C. railroad company is talking of changing their road above Judkins point, about a mile above Eugene, and running it up the river around nearer to Springfield. Such a change would be of quite a benefit to Springfield. Condition of the G. A. R. The following showing for the year is made in Commander Borthwick's report: The year was commenced with a total membership in the department of 85 posts and 1228 members. We have now 41 posts in good standing and 1431 members, a net gain of 203, besides 20 members out on transfer cards. There has been a gain of five new posts and one post recognized, Burnside, No. 23, at Ashland, which is now in a flourishing condition. Preliminary steps have been taken toward establishing posts at Albany in Yamhill county, at Burns, in Harney Lake valley, and at Newberg, in Yamhill county. The financial statement of the quarter-master-general shows that we commenced the year with a balance of cash on hand of $464.31; we now have on hand, cash, with all bills paid, $643.82, showing a gain of $181.51. Evangelical Seminary. The authorities of the Evangelical church in Oregon have selected Lafayette, Yamhill county, as the site for their new seminary, and have purchased the old court house building there, which they will have thoroughly renovated and fitted in a suitable shape. The following trustees have been elected to have general supervision of the institution: C. C. Poling, chairman, F. S. Locke and A. Odell. Pleasant Social Party. The dancing party given by the Dulce Far Niente Club at the opera house last night was a brilliant social success. The hall was tastefully decorated and in addition to the electric lights was illuminated with Chinese lanterns. A number of young people were present from Salem, Corvallis and neighboring towns. For a Bridge at Waterloo. A petition is being circulated and signed by the citizens in the vicinity of Waterloo, asking the county to bridge the Santiam at that place. It will probably be presented at the next session of the county court. New Music Box. F. L. Kenton has just received a new music box direct from the east. This box has a very fine tone and plays eight tunes. This is a good opportunity to get a fine box very cheap. Bucklin's Arnica Salve. The best Salve in the world for cuts, Bruises, Sore Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetters, chapped hands, Chilblains corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box at Foshay & Mason's. Caution to Mothers. Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or praxoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Aker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Foshay & Mason. A Child Killed. Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Aker's Baby Soother. It contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Foshay & Mason. For chilblains and frost-bites use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When promptly applied to the frozen parts it will prevent a shivering attack, and bring about the speedy restoration of the child and soon restore the patient to healthy condition. For sale by Foshay & Mason.

A MERITED TRIBUTE.

What Mr. and Madam Heine Think of the Sterling Pianos. Mr. Josef Heine in his entertainment Wednesday evening took occasion to speak in terms of warm praise of the beautiful Sterling piano, which had been placed in the opera house for the use of Mrs. Heine. He said that they had been able to play some of their most brilliant numbers because they had a good piano, which at several places they did not have, and were compelled to omit some of the passages on that account. Mrs. Heine was so delighted with the instrument that she wrote the following note at the close of the performance to Mr. G. L. Blackman, who furnished the piano: ALBANY, Feb 13, 1889. MR. G. L. BLACKMAN: Dear Sir—Having thoroughly examined the beautiful Sterling piano furnished for use at our entertainment at the opera house this evening, it affords me much pleasure to say that I consider it one of the best pianos upon which I have ever played. The purity of tone and excellence of finish makes it, in my estimation, a superior instrument, not excelled by any of the best pianos in use in this country. Yours truly, ADA HEINE. This voluntary recommendation coming from such distinguished musicians as Mr. and Madam Heine speaks volumes for the popular Sterling pianos. WALTON RIVER NOTES. WALTON, Feb. 22. Mr. C. J. Brooks has gone to Eugene on business. Mr. William Thurman has gone to California to work. Born—to the wife of D. G. Gay, a 10½ pound daughter. Mother and child doing well. Mrs. Geo. Meridith has been called to Pleasant Hill by the dangerous illness of her mother. The Lyon Bros. has taken a contract of cutting 400,000 feet of logs for R. V. Howard's saw mill at Elmroye. Bertie Whitaker having tired of the parental roof has gone out in the wide world to make a mark for himself. He is supposed to be in the Willamette Valley. Quite a number of citizens have taken the advantage of the nice weather, and went to Eugene for supplies. Mr. Atkinson is out now and the prospects are that he will get the loose socks loose from his back before he gets home, as it is raining very hard. The Rev. Robinson preached at the Walton school house last Monday evening, also at the residence of W. Lyons at night. He proposes to preach once a month for the next twelve months, which is a good thing, as we have not had more than ten sermons preached here since the country has been settled. We also received a letter from M. M. Marks a former resident of Linn county, well known about Harrisburg and Halsey, who has determined to devote his time and talent to preaching the gospel and looking in our direction for a field to work in. There is quite a cry raised to have the law protecting the Chinese pheasants repealed. I do not think it necessary for I do not think any attention is paid to the law. On my return from rail roading last fall I stopped at Plain View one day, and I never heard the shot guns pop as industriously in duck and goose time, as I did that day, and I did not see a duck or goose that day. What were they shooting at? It looks to me like those birds would become extinct as they fly so straight that I can not see how a hunter could miss them. Evergreen for Sale. Mr. H. W. Settemire the Tangent nurseryman that has a full supply of all the leading and desirable varieties of evergreen trees from two to three feet high, which he is selling cheap, and these desiring such trees will do well to call upon him before going away from home. Make out your orders and send or go to him for the trees you want, and support a worthy home industry. Guard Against The Strike. And always have a bottle of Aker's English Remedy in the house.
