Are We to Have Another War?
Some political prophets aver that we shall. Be that as it may, the battle waged by medical science against disease will never cease until we arrive at the utopian epoch when the human family shall cease to be afflicted with bodily ailments. One of the most potent weapons which the army of medicine furnishes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is of special utility as a family remedy, as it is adapted to the immediate relief and ultimate cure of those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which are of commonest occurrence. Indigestion, biliousness and constipation are inseparable companions, as these ailments are completely eradicated by the Bitters. But the remedial scope of this saneratively wholesome and genial medicine takes in also nervous ailments, rheumatism and kidney troubles; its action is, these, as in the other complaints, being characterized by unequalled rapidity.

Spring Disorders
Shattered nerves, tired brain, impure blood, debilitated system, all are the natural outcome in the spring. A medicine must be used, and nothing equals Paine's Celery Compound.
Observe—you cannot help believing a disinterested party.
Brigadier General W. L. Greenleaf, Burlington, Vt., writes: "I have used Paine's Celery Compound on several occasions, and always with benefit. Last spring, being very much run down and debilitated, I commenced taking it. Two bottles made me feel like a new man. As a general tonic and spring medicine I do not know of its equal." I have used two bottles of your Paine's Celery Compound, and it has given entire satisfaction as an appetizer and blood purifier.
T. L. BARNES
