NOTICES ABOUT TOWN.

Hire show to-day. The city will be full of fine horses to-day.

The funeral of Mrs. Jos. Clark yesterday was largely attended.

Chas. B. Roland, formerly of this city, is now post-master at Jefferson.

Earl Bros. Musical Comedy Company Saturday night. It will be a clean, refined entertainment.

L. Vierick has rented his building on Broadalbin street to Geo. C. Henderson, who will open a real estate office.

Mrs. Dr. Davis, of this city who has been quite ill, is much better.

County Clerk E. E. Montague, who was called to Lebanon by the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. G. W. Gibony, returned yesterday.

Carl Luderman, Ashland's leading boot and shoe dealer, is in the city.

Messrs. Burkhardt & Keeney sold yesterday to J. W. Cusick six vacant lots in blocks 99 and 100 belonging to Bishop Morris.

Mrs. A. Burkhardt, real estate agent, sold yesterday the fine farm situated just east of Albany containing 171 acres and owned by Mr. T. H. Burkhardt.

Mr. Burkhardt has already placed the same in the hands of F. A. Burkhardt and Burkhardt & Keeney for sale.

A fire alarm. At 4 o'clock yesterday the vigorous ringing of the fire bell aroused the sleepy populace from their morning slumbers.

Married at Jefferson. Jas. A. Hudson and Minnie M. Allen were married at the residence of the bride's parents.

McPherson Post No. 5, G. A. R., and Womens Relief Corps are requested to meet at their hall in joint session on Saturday evening at 7:30 P. M.

Improvement. We have the woolen mills; now for the street cars.

Water Consumers. Considerable complaint is being made that there is water running to waste in the streets in different portions of the city.

First Chance. Call early and leave your orders to get the best of our many delicacies.

To Water Consumers. Considerable complaint is being made that there is water running to waste in the streets in different portions of the city.

Concord Harness. Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers of this city, are agents for J. R. Hill's Concord harness.

To the Ladies of Albany. You are cordially invited to attend the spring opening of fine millinery at Ida M. Brush's.

Dressed Chickens. We have a fine lot of fat dressed chickens for Sunday.

Use Fairney's panacea.

IN THE HOLY LAND.

Letter from A. B. Maston, Brother of Dr. G. W. Maston, of This City.

BROWNVILLE NOTES.

A New $5000 School House to be Erected—Removal of the Woolen Mills.

Brownville, Or., Mar. 26. J. M. Moyer is in Portland spending a few days.

R. N. Thompson, wife and infant son arrived from San Francisco last Friday.

Many gardens are planted, and in some the peas are four inches high and growing nicely.

Thomas Kay and family have departed for the East on a visit to be gone several weeks.

D. M. Walter took W. B. Anchart back to the McKeezie mines last week with more supplies.

Stephen Goble, who lost part of his fingers and thumb a few weeks ago, is having a serious time, but is improving.

C. E. Starnard has resigned the position of postmaster, so long held by him, and George A. Dyson has been appointed in his stead.

R. A. Sander's horse ran away on Sunday last, throwing him off just before crossing the bridge, a dam came near colliding with Dr. Starr's buggy. No serious damage was done.

A new project is on foot here to enlarge the present tannery, and put up a boat and shoe manufactory, and go into the business on quite an extensive scale by using home capital.

Last Friday Mary Zeiner, and her two children, arrived home from San Francisco. Mr. Z. will be home in two weeks.

Dr. Tucker and family are here from McMinnville visiting Rev. Dr. Sperry. The Dr. has been sick in bed ever since his arrival, but is improving.

The all-absorbing topic here the past week has been the removal of the woolen mills to Albany.

The necessary $25,000 bonus has been subscribed in Albany, and all that remains now is to arrange matters in regard to the water power from Mr. Crawford.

On the eve of the 19th inst., a school meeting was held, and by almost a unanimous vote it was decided to build a new school house, costing $5000, to be located in the gap between Mr. J. M. Moyer's and Mr. W. Cochran's land.

Many oak logs are being cut near this city and hauled to the mill here to be made into lumber for the Portland market.

Owing to the dry weather this spring no logs have been floated down the Calipoola to either the sawmills here or in Albany, and the Albany logging crew broke camp up the creek Sunday morning and went home without getting any logs out this year.

City Park. We hope that the city fathers will soon have the park all fixed up so the ladies and children will have a pleasure resort.

Horses! Horses! Horses! At the horse show on Friday, the 29th, Greenwood will appear in person and will make some very fine pictures of the exhibition.

Teachers' Institute. The regular annual County Teachers' Institute will be held in this city on April 3d, 4th and 5th.

Latest Novelties. Miss C. Howard will soon return from San Francisco, where she selected a full and complete assortment of millinery goods.

To Stockmen. Crawford & Paxton will be on hand to photograph any and all stock on exhibition Friday, the 29th.

First Chance. Call early and leave your orders to get the best of our many delicacies.

To Water Consumers. Considerable complaint is being made that there is water running to waste in the streets in different portions of the city.

Concord Harness. Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers of this city, are agents for J. R. Hill's Concord harness.

To the Ladies of Albany. You are cordially invited to attend the spring opening of fine millinery at Ida M. Brush's.

Dressed Chickens. We have a fine lot of fat dressed chickens for Sunday.
