NOTICES ABOUT TOWNS.

County taxes will become delinquent to-morrow.

There was about $100,000 value in horse flesh represented at the horse show in this city Friday.

The front law expires to-day, and the speckled beauties will no longer when caught be called chubs or suckers.

The G. A. R. and Womens' Relief Corps are talking of putting on a series of plays at the opera house in the near future.

To-morrow will be All Fool's Day. When all the fools are dead the senseless jokes practiced on April 1st will vanish.

Louis Miller has purchased of L. H. Montanye his house and two lots on Fourth and Broadbald streets, paying for the same $3000.

A public meeting will be held at the opera house next Sunday, for the purpose of concluding the organization of a Y. M. C. A.

Death has relieved the sufferings of the lad at Corvallis who broke a thermometer in his mouth and swallowed a portion of the quick-silver.

Jim Westfall and San Wa have leased small buildings of Harper Crator on Lyon street and will remove their Chinese houses from First street.

John Crossen has purchased the interest of S. W. Paisely in the Albany Furniture Company's store, and the firm will hereafter be Crossen & Son.

Albany should have a rousing Fourth of July celebration this year. Business is prosperous and times good, and everybody feels like celebrating.

The Southern Pacific depot at this city is now provided with a pair of 100 ton scales, the only railroad scales on the Oregon division of the road outside of Portland.

C. H. Stewart, Jay W. Blain, B. F. Tabler, N. T. Moore and Richard Fox have returned from a trip up the Santiam. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Blain expect to purchase timberland in that locality. The others already have claims up there.

The Chinese section gang at Junction in Lane county, were recently driven out of town by white men, and now it is said that two men, supposed to be deputy U. S. marshals or employees of the railroad company, are guarding the section Chinamen at Junction, which is more expensive than it would be to hire white men to do the work.

Mrs. Merie Davis & Co., recently filled an order for an entire millinery stock of goods to go to Mill City, the ladies starting the store there having investigated and found that they could do better in prices and quality of goods here than either in San Francisco or Portland, thus starting a wholesale millinery business.

Mrs. Merie Davis & Co., who have recently opened a millinery store in Strahan's block, and came directly from Chicago, bringing the latest and freshest styles and goods with them and receiving constantly fresh invoices each week from the same place, are doing a fine business, their parlors being crowded every day.

Prof. C. Krumbain, the well known London artist, who has been doing some fine portraits of noted Oregonians at the state capitol, is in the city, and will remain for a week or two at the St. Charles hotel. Some of his pictures have been on exhibition in the show window of G. L. Blackman, and need no recommendation. Those wishing fine portraits in oil crayon should not neglect to call upon him. He has executed portraits of the Emperor of Germany and the Queen of England, and many other notables.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Hon. R. A. Irvine went to Salem yesterday.

Judge Shaw, of Salem, was in the city yesterday.

T. H. Munkers, of Munkers' Station, is in the city.

W. H. Smith representing H. E. Bucklen & Company's remedies, is in the city.

Miss T. Pierce, of Harrisburg, is in the city stopping with Mrs. Dr. V. H. Davis.

N. J. Henton has returned from Elensburg, where he has been during the recent fatal illness of his father.

Immense Immigration.

The following is taken from the Drain Echo, without knowing where that paper gets its information: The Southern Pacific railroad company has contracted to bring 90,000 passengers from the New England States to this coast during next September. Oregon will come in for a good share of these people. There is plenty of room for them to secure good homes here in a glorious climate, rich and marvelously productive country.

THE ALBANY DEPOT.

Its Artistic Grounds the Finest in the State—A New Summer House.

An elegant new summer house has just been completed at the Southern Pacific depot, which adds much to the already picturesque appearance of the Albany depot grounds. The depot hotel, under the efficient management of Mr. J. A. Gross and wife, who have won a deserved popularity among the traveling public in the superior style in which they are dined and accommodated, is one of the best on the entire line, and the grounds have been planted with flowers and trees and laid out in a manner which is a constant source of remark and wonder among the steady stream of travelers, who daily come and go over this route. The artistic manner in which the grounds are kept is a source of many flattering compliments for Albany and it certainly reflects credit upon the proprietor, Mr. Gross. The depot building is one of the best in the state and will only be supplanted when Albany advances to that stage requiring a grand central depot of all the lines of railroad which center here.

THE CROP OUTLOOK.

Everything Favorable for an Abundant Harvest and Prosperous Times.

The weather which Oregon has recently been experiencing is both favorable for crops and healthy for man. The pleasant weeks that came in January and February were not healthy, and caused fear that premature growth of crops might be a disadvantage if followed by any severe spell. The prospect now is that there will be no severe frosts, because there is but little snow in the mountains around the valley, and so long as there is not a heavy body of snow there farmers have little fear of injurious frosts. Fruit trees are blooming, and soon there will be young fruit formed, and any protracted and severe spell of cold rains, especially if followed by a touch of sharp frosts, will damage the fruit crop severely. This fact makes it important to plant orchards above the ordinary frost belt, so as to avoid danger from them when they actually occur. This is the only fear which is proposed against a good fruit yield the present year. Fruit-growing has become such an important business now that it is of material importance to the state that a good crop shall be secured. Early gardens are well along, but now is the time to be planting late gardens, and throughout Oregon the people are busily at work making ready and sowing seeds. Pastures are becoming green and the young grass has had enough sunshine and shower to give it strength. Winter wheat has become a heavy carpet and promises to be rank. That is the only fault and it will be necessary to crop it down well to secure the best results. Throughout the entire county indications point to an abundant harvest. In Linn county this is especially true, and farmers are in good spirits, while the marks of prosperous times and visible on every hand.

Domineering Next Saturday.

The excellent Lottie Wade-Leroy Comedy Company will appear at the opera house in the city next Saturday evening. The remarkable versatility of this lady has called forth some of the most flattering commendations ever bestowed upon an artiste, both from a discriminating public and the mighty wielder of public opinion, the press. Only talent of an extraordinary order of excellence could call forth such eulogies as shown in some of the leading journals in the country. As Mary Anderson is to tragic art, so is Miss Wade to the delineation of character and its portrayal on the stage. Her conception is true, her acting is ideal, the real personified in her. An attestation of this is her complete surrender of self to the living embodiment of the character she assumes—so conspicuous as to occasion her joy when pleasure is the emotion, or to fill her eyes with tears when the heart aches. And so she moves her audience. She has a lovely face, bright and vivacious, and a pleasing voice which enables her to execute her songs with telling effect. Unlike the majority of the successful women on the stage, she has never interred in her duty to the public. In private life she is dignified, modest and refined, and a favorite with all who know her, both as an artiste and a lady.

Reduction of Rates.

Western Union Telegraph rates to points in the East have been reduced, making the maximum rate from Oregon to Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska 75 cents, night and day rates to those points the same. The rate for some time past has been $1. Ten years ago the rate for these messages was $2.50. The Pacific postal telegraph-cable company has also ordered a reduction in rates. The changes are from $1 for each ten words to 75 cents with five cents per extra word instead of seven cents from California, Oregon and Washington to Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. These reduced rates go into effect on April 1st.

A Clever Swindler.

A young stranger succeeded in passing a forged check in Salem Thursday, swindling G. W. Johnson out of $150. His name and present whereabouts is unknown, as he left on the early train without leaving explanations. The check purported to be drawn by Ames Bros., of Silverton, on a Portland bank.

THE SCHOONER GEO. H. CHANCE.

Captain Robinson and Crew Rescued From a Perilous Situation.

News has been received from Yaquina that yesterday morning the tug returned from the search of Captain Robinson and the three men lost from the schooner Geo. H. Chance, having found them in a perilous situation near Nestucca Bay, about 30 miles north of Yaquina, where they had drifted in a small boat. Their boat was filled with water and they were nearly perished. They had been out two days without food. They were welcomed back by their friends at Yaquina, who had given them up as lost. Capt. Robinson's family, who reside at Newport, were overjoyed at his safe return. The schooner Geo. H. Chance was owned by the Deep Sea Fishing Co. Her rudder was broken by the heavy sea, which led to her abandonment. The men who rescued her have laid a salvage claim upon her and the loss will fall heavily upon the Deep Sea Fishing Company.

The Ice Works.

The company organized in this city for the purpose of starting ice works, consisting of Capt. E. J. Lanning, John A. Crawford, Judge R. S. Strahan and John Isom, ordered the necessary machinery yesterday by telegraph, and the ice works will be erected at once. The building will be located on the canal back of the residence of Judge Strahan. The plant will cost $10,000 and will have a capacity of five tons per day, which can when necessary be increased to ten tons.

Yesterday's Baseball Game.

A match game of baseball between the college nine and a picked nine from the city was played on the college campus yesterday. The score in three innings stood 40 to 8 in favor of the college nine. W. J. Campbell, catcher for the city nine, had his eye closed by a hot foul. Some of the older players of the city, who witnessed the game, afterwards played a game of their own, of which no score was kept.

To Water Consumers.

Considerable complaint is being made that there is water running to waste in the streets in different portions of the city. In order to save trouble I would suggest that said leaks be stopped immediately as the continuance of such waste might lead to the entire failure of the water supply in some localities. Certain water closets are also left running continuously. The same rule will apply to them. Use all the water you need, but please do not allow it to run to waste. Those who are in arrears for water rent should also take warning.

Concord Harness.

Thompson & Overman, the leading harness dealers of this city, are agents for J. E. Hill's Concord harness and have a fine line of them at their store. These harness are something really fine and are noted for their durability and neatness, combining a showy appearance with good quality. This firm is thoroughly up with the times, and carry one of the largest shops in the Willamette valley.

The Woolen Mills.

Messrs. J. M. Moyer and F. F. Croft, of the Brownsville Woolen Mills Co., sent a dispatch to the citizens' committee in this city yesterday, stating that the telegram announcing that the subsidy of $25,000 had been raised and the water power secured, had been received, and that they would be in Albany Monday to close up the transaction and arrange for the commencement of work. Six car loads of building stone and a car load of sand was side-tracked yesterday on the site of the woolen mills, which is said to be for the foundation of the building.

Last Night's Entertainment.

The performance by the Earl Bros. at the opera house last evening was not attended by as large an audience as it deserves. Miss Osborn was suffering from a severe cold and was obliged to omit her vocal solos. The instrumental portion of the entertainment especially the flute and cornet selections, was truly an artistic performance, several of the numbers being repeatedly encored. Taken all in all the entertainment was one that can be recommended to all lovers of a good, refined, artistic musical performance.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Investigating the Silverton Postmaster's Case—The Scheme to Drain Lake Labish.

Special to the Herald.]—United States District Attorney McArthur arrived here this morning to conduct examination of Dr. J. F. Mosher, the case was called by commissioner Walton the defendant appeared with P. H. D'Aacy and Col. Knight for counsel but the witnesses for the prosecution were not present. On request of McArthur the case was postponed until next Wednesday afternoon. Postal inspector Treutlen was up to Silverton yesterday investigating the charges against Mosher and went back to Portland to-day. Mosher has a certificate of eleven Silverton business men discrediting the report against him. An enthusiastic meeting was held to-day at the court house to arrange for the draining of Lake Labish. It is estimated that 800 acres is to be drained, and the cost will be about $5000. A committee consisting of Gen. W. H. H. Beadle, Superintendent of the Chemawa Indian school, M. L. Jones and I. J. Beatty was appointed to make plats and take further necessary steps under the law passed last session. Peter August Burgerson, of Portland was committed to the asylum to-day. He is depraved and went to several farm houses with a huge knife and frightened some women badly. He is thirty-five years old. Revs. M. C. Wire, presiding elder, and W. Rollins, resident pastor of the M. E. church of this city, have purchased the mining claims of J. W. Daniels and H. D. McCutchen, eighteen miles east of Mehama.
