Prof. Condon has the finest collection of fossils and valuable specimens in geology and natural history on the Pacific coast, as well as a splendid collection of curiosities and Indian relics. A museum has recently been added to the university and specimens sent to the museum or to Prof. Condon are forwarded free of charge by the transportation companies.

Some fine geological specimens have been added to the university from Yaquina, and Prof. Condon hopes to secure some more on this trip.

Chinese Pheasants for Dinner. "Chinese pheasants have become so plentiful in the valley that hotels are serving them for dinner in lieu of chicken," said a merchant who returned to the city yesterday. As the pheasant was very palatable I did not press my curiosity to the extent of asking him how he obtained the birds."

THE TEACHERS

The Closing Day's Session—An Interesting Address by Prof. Condon.

The closing day's session of the Linn County institute was held yesterday. The institute was called to order at 9:15 a. m.

The exercises commenced with music "Our Country 'Tis of Thee." Prof. M. R. Brown then took up his assigned topic, "Circumstances that Make a Teacher Happy in School." It was an able effort and was presented with much spirit.

Prof. G. F. Russell read an interesting paper, his subject being "Morality in Public Schools." He believes in the adage, "as the teacher so is the school." He urges teachers to commend the reform themselves in their own hearts if they wish to have a reform in their schools.

A general discussion was then entered into. Mrs. M. R. Brown urged the importance of training the young in the effect of the use of tobacco and other evil habits. Prof. Stites maintained that it was better that a vicious boy should not be educated than to have his immoral influence in the school. The discussion was continued by Profs. Hull, Walker, Hickman, Dyer and others.

On motion of Prof. Walker the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That it is the sense of this institute that the law prohibiting the sale of tobacco and cigarettes in this state to boys under the age of 18 years is a just and proper one, and meets our hearty approval, and we call upon every good citizen of the state to lend his influence to its enforcement.

Recess was then taken. The institute was again called to order with roll call and a song by the institute.

Prof. W. N. Hull instructed the institute in the use of graphic illustration in public school.

An intermission was then taken until 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION. After roll call Prof. Hull continued his instructions.

The subject of supplementary work in common schools was ably discussed by Prof. J. D. Gunn.

The subject was then discussed at length by the institute in general.

Hon. E. B. McElroy spoke briefly on methods and suggestions in daily school work, followed by a miscellaneous discussion.

A recess of ten minutes was then taken.

Prof. J. D. Hickman took up and discussed at length the subject assigned him, "Literature in Public Schools."

Supt. Curl brought up the subject of local institutes and the county was organized for local institutes, with Supt. L. M. Curl officio president and the principal teachers in each town as vice president, as follows:

Halsey—G. F. Russell. Harrisburg—Jay Jewett. Shedd—Z. T. Truelove. Scio—Geo. Sutherland. Brownsville—J. D. Boyer. Lebanon—C. S. Hunt. Tangent—W. A. Robb. Secretaries—J. R. Gerdes of Scio and W. W. Hall of Brownsville.

The whole number of teachers enrolled was 84.

EVENING SESSION. The closing exercises last evening were most interesting, and a large audience was present.

First was a chorus of male voices, which was followed by a song by the pupils of the public school.

Prof. Thos. Condon, of the state university, then delivered an interesting and able lecture on the subject of "Fossil Teeth and Their Lessons," illustrating his subject by geological specimens of the teeth of animals from the earliest periods of animal life, and showing the gradual and successive stages of animal development up to the present time. He exhibited the teeth of elephants, camels, the rhinoceros and other tropical animals, which were found in the Willamette Valley, thus showing the great climatic changes which the earth has undergone. His lecture was full of interest and was listened to with close attention by the large audience.

Then followed a beautiful song by two little girls, the Misses Giber, of Brownsville. In response to a hearty encore they sang again. These little girls exhibit a remarkable talent for music and sing very sweetly.

This closed very successful teachers' institute, much credit for which is due to the untiring efforts of County School Superintendent L. M. Curl and State Superintendent E. B. McElroy.

The company has 47 1/2 miles in Oregon and the pro rata per mile is fixed at $645.72.

Wedding Bells. Mr. Allen Bemer, of this city, went to Independence yesterday, where it is announced he will be married to Miss Ethel Gearhart. Both are popular young people and their many friends will wish them a long life of happiness.

Protracted Meeting. Protracted meeting services will be held at the Christian church, beginning next Sunday, and continuing during the week. Help from abroad is expected. Services at 7:30 p. m. W. D. Humphrey.

WHAT HERMANN SAYS.

The Oregon Delegation in Not United as to Filling the Offices.

Representative Hermann, of Oregon, says that the delegation from this state has not united upon a list of persons to fill permanent federal positions there, and will probably not do so at present. Differences as to whom should be appointed exist, and the delegation is endeavoring to harmonize the factions.

Mr. Hermann says that he does not expect to leave for home for some time. Said he: "The pressure for office from our state is tremendous. We have had a delegation of Oregonians here since the inauguration. I pass my days in traveling from one department to another and my nights are given up to callers."

The Wade-Leroy Company. This excellent company will appear at the opera house in this city next Saturday evening. The Denver Daily Transcript says of them: Miss Lottie Wade and Mr. Henry Leroy are worth a dozen of the ordinary traveling actors. They are both artists who would grace any stage.
