When On Earth.

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap Johns or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is so virtuous, such a particular satisfaction for purifying the blood as Bess' Blood Purifier and Blood Massager every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. G. L. Blackman, druggist.

GENERAL NEWS.

No Reinforcements of Vessels Needed at Samoa.

U. S. AND GERMANY COMPROMISE
Over Forty Vessels Wrecked in Chesapeake Bay—A Colored Woman Murders
Her Husband.

[The Herald's Special Dispatches.] WASHINGTON, April 9.—A special to the Mail and Express says:
"Your correspondent has it from the very highest authority that an agreement has been reached by the state department and the German foreign office, and there will be no reinforcements of vessels or troops belonging to the two governments now on duty at Samoa. This agreement will be in force until the Samoan committee has finished its labors. It is understood the proposition for an agreement came direct from Bismarck to Secretary Blaine."

RAVAGES OF THE STORM.

Forty Vessels Wrecked and Many Lives Lost.

BALTIMORE, April 9.—The storm which raged in Baltimore with such severity Saturday swept over the Lower Chesapeake and was most disastrous to shipping. Over a dozen seamen lost their lives and thirty or forty vessels were wrecked. The reports of disasters to shipping and loss of life continue to come in by various vessels and special dispatches.

MURDERED HER HUSBAND.

A Family Quarrel Results in a Shocking Tragedy.

PORT JEFFERSON, (La.), April 9.— Lewis Conklin, colored, was murdered this morning by his wife.
Husband and wife were quarreling when their son Joseph interfered.
The father defending himself threw the son down whereupon his wife grabbed an ax and killed him.

Boatmen's Tribulations.

BRUSSELS, April 9.—The Belgian government has formally warned Boatmen to abstain from political agitation. The general has been informed that if he complies with the wishes of the government in this respect he will not be expelled from Belgium.

The French Conspiracy.

PARIS, April 9.—The indictment against Boulanger, besides charging him with conspiracy to destroy the republic, in specially directed against Count Dillon, M. Laguerre, member of the chamber of deputies, Rochefort and Dubarail and two journalists in Paris.

IT PUT HER ASLEEP.

Ex-President Cleveland Tells a Good Joke on Himself.

Ex-President Cleveland tells a good story at the expense of his wife, says a prominent society lady.
He was speaking of Mrs. Cleveland's splendid nerves and her ability to sleep under all circumstances.
"Last November," said he, "when I wrote my Thank-giving prela-mination, it was a busy day with me, and I was at my desk far into the night. We were at Oak View and Frankie had gone to bed early. I was pleased with the proclamation, and when I went to my room I awoke my wife, and asked her if she would like to hear me read it."
"Oh, yes," she said, "by all means." and I sat down by the bedside and read it through. When I finished, Frankie was fast asleep. I believe she had not heard a word. The next morning, when we were waiting for the announcement of breakfast, and health as well as appearance, I took up a morning paper. "Here is my Thanksgiving proclamation," said I, "would you like to hear it?"
"Very much; please read it to me." Then I laughed heartily, saying:
"I wish you may catch me reading it to you the second time, when it put you to sleep the first."

LADIES AT THE WHEEL.

Captain Minnie Hill, the Fair Master of the Clatsop Chief.

An Eastern paper in a late issue made the statement that two ladies who are masters of steamboats on the Mississippi are the only female captains in the United States. The enterprising reporter who wrote the item had evidently never been as far west as Oregon or he would have met Captain Mrs. Minnie Hill, who handles the wheel on the Clatsop Chief.

Captain Hill is a beautiful young woman of about 25 years, has light brown hair and eyes, and possesses a remarkably fine figure. Among the river captains she stands at the head, and her examination for a license was the most satisfactory that has ever passed in the Northwest. It is said that there is not a claque in the rules governing river navigation that she cannot reproduce from memory, and she possesses a mind of knowledge concerning the channels of the Columbia and its tributaries. Her boat is a small trader on the lower river, and is owned by herself and husband. The latter works on the

AN INMATED BRIDEGROOM.

One of the Features of Modern Illustrated Journalism.

"Is this the editor?"
"Yes, sir. What can I—"
"My name, sir, is Grumpy. I was married last week."
"Let me offer my congratulations, Mr. Grumpy. I am glad to see you. By the way, we published in this morning's paper quite a full account of your wedding."
"Yes, sir, I saw it."
"You have come, perhaps, to order some extra copy—" "I have come, sir, for personal satisfaction. Your reporter asked for photographs of Mrs. Grumpy and myself, to use in writing up the wedding, sir."
"Yes, didn't he—"
"He said he would have engravings made from them and run them in with the article he wrote about the affair."
"Well, was there any—"
"And some loopy-eyed, whopjawed, bow legged, goured-head of a printer in this office mixed up the portraits, sir. You published me this morning, sir, in your advertising columns as a Tennessee barber who had suffered for fifteen years with a lame back and a sore throat, and has been cured by twenty-seven bottles of Dr. Bill-jaw's Compound Extract of Haaskew Pankus; and you run the portrait of that infernal Tennessee barber in your account of my wedding, sir. You can stop my paper, sir. And now, will you show me the type setting department of this office? I am on the warpath this morning, sir, bigger than a grizzly bear, and I am going to find the man that mixed those cuts and reorganize him from the ground up!" In the excitement and confusion that followed some one hastily turned in a fire alarm, and it took the entire department and a squad of police to quench the fiery young man.—Chicago Tribune.

SOLDIER AND STATESMAN.

An Instructive Little Necessity of Two Very Famous Men.

Philadelphia Times.
Bismarck and General Sheridan, our "Little Pail," stood near each other at the battle of Sedan, where the defeat and capture of Napoleon III brought the great Franco-German war to a close. Surveying the field with his glass toward the end of fight, but before it was really ended, Sherman turned to the Count and said: "The battle is won."
Bismarck replied that he would be glad to think so, but he saw no signs of it. In a few minutes, however, the French gave way, and the German standards waved in triumph.
Soon the General turned his glass toward Sedan, and remarked:
"The Emperor is there!"
"Oh, impossible!" cried Bismarck; he would never be so foolish as to place himself in such a position as that."
But the General was right—the Emperor and his attendants had been taken as prisoners of war—and Sheridan, though far away from the scene, knew what was going on there from the large staff and the great confusion among them.
The impression that any occurence makes upon a spectator depends largely upon the latter's mental training and habits.

MARRIAGE IN BERLIN.

After Failure of a Society of Wedded Old Maids.

Pittsburg Dispatch.
In 1880 some young ladies in Berlin, Germany, founded a club, the members of which pledged themselves not to marry, under pain of a fine of 1000 marks. At first the club was a great success; it started with twenty-three members, and soon increased its number to thirty-one. Suddenly, however, an epidemic of marrying broke out in this club; and this year, at the general meeting, there was only one solitary member left, who found herself called upon to dispose of 28,000 marks, the amount remaining of the fine that had been paid. This, by the official advice of the perjurer ex members, the general meeting resolved to divide into equal portions, one to be given to the Berlin hospitals, the other to be settled on the last member. It seems a pity that an advertisement which has just appeared in a Frankfurt paper cannot be brought before this member's notice. It reads as follows:
"A poor devil wishes to make the acquaintance of a rich angel, with a view to matrimony, in the hope of making for himself a little heaven on earth."

How Can Parents

strain and cough and strain say "Oh, it's only a cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP. It has no superi-
