JOHNSON ABOUT TOWN.

I. O. O. F. excursion on the 26th. McKanlass minstrels next Wednesday.

Wheat has dropped to 65 cents in this city.

Theodore Skillman has purchased of W. W. Crawford his fine horse Seasco for $300.

A valuable horse owned by Alfred Wheeler was killed a few days ago by being kicked by another horse.

The circus was taken to Independence yesterday morning on the O. R. & N. boat Occident.

The Royce & Lansing Co. will appear at the opera house in this city on Tuesday evening, April 23.

Oregon appropriated over $100,000 for wagon roads and California has appropriated over $1,000,000.

Mr. E. R. Wheeler, formerly of Albany, and Miss Belle Crisp were married at Pendleton on the 9th inst.

Mrs. Julia Abrams, president of the W. R. C., has been in The Dalles to organize a corps in that vicinity.

Dr. E. R. Barker has been appointed deputy recorder of Linn county, for the North Santiam and Quartzville district.

Services will be held at the Episcopal church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., by Rev. Mr. Donaldson, of Oregon City.

The McKanlass company, old favorites in Albany, will play at the opera house on Wednesday evening, April 17, 1889.

The Eugene Journal says that Judge Washburne's health has not improved materially, and he was taken to the hospital in Portland Friday morning for treatment.

Keep your eye on the date of the McKanlass Minstrel Co. at the opera house on Wednesday, April 17. They have been here before and give a good performance.

John Wilson, the burglar who was caught in the City meat market, was arraigned yesterday before Justice Humphrey and held in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

Mr. Joaquin Miller has been appointed a member of the Forestry Commission by Governor Waterman, of California. The governor probably thinks it is time Joaquin was taking to the woods.

A letter received from State Printer Frank C. Baker, of Salem, states that he will be pleased to mail a copy of "The Resources of Oregon" to any person whose name and address is furnished to him.

Mr. E. T. Looman, of Santa Rosa, Cal., whose poems written under the nom de plume of "Corporal Joe" are well known on this coast, is registered at the St. Charles. Some of his poems have been reprinted in the HERALD.

From 30 to 50 Oregon school teachers will probably attend the meeting of the National Educational Association, to be held in Nashville, Tenn., July 16 to 20. Superintendent McElroy has engaged headquarters for the Oregon delegation at the Maxwell Hotel.

A poorly made hat or bonnet is the laughing stock of the ladies. Do not wear one when you can get the best work, the latest styles and the lowest prices at Mrs. Merie Davis & Co.'s new millinery and notion store. Room No. 1, Strawn's block.

A couple of poor immigrants on their way to California had a baby born to them on a Southern Pacific train some days ago, and out of gratitude wanted the passengers, who made up a fine purse for the little fellow, to choose his name, and that of Grover Harrison was finally decided upon.

The Lebanon Express says that recently Mrs. N. J. Sippy, Mr. Hearn's mother-in-law, fell from off the high sidewalk near the depot, about the same place where Wm. Watkins fell a short time ago. This makes three that have fallen off at that place lately, but Mrs. Sippy is probably worse than any of them. It seems strange that such a dangerous place is not repaired.

W. H. Mitchell, manager for the Mitchell & Lewis Co. of Portland, is in the city for the purpose of opening their branch house in the new brick built by Wm. Bates on second street. The house will be opened Monday. Persons wishing farm machinery, wagons, etc., will find it to their interest to call and examine before purchasing. They are putting in a full line of buggies, phaetons, surries, in fact everything to the spring work line.

Mrs. Ezra Henson was fatally injured recently while riding with Mrs. Harvey Smith, in Grass Valley, Wasco County. They were in a cart and Mrs. Henson was carrying Mrs. Smith's baby. By some means they got off the grade and Mrs. Smith was thrown out, dropping the lines at the same time. Mrs. Henson dropped the baby behind the cart safely on the ground, and while endeavoring to reach the lines over the dashboard received a contusion on the forehead that eventually resulted in her death.

THE WASHINGTON CENTENNIAL.

It will be celebrated in this city. A flag will be presented by the G. A. R.

The celebration of the centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration as president of the United States, on April 30th, will be duly observed in this city.

A programme will be arranged and exercises held at the opera house. An interesting feature of the occasion will be a flag presentation to the public school by McPherson Post, G. A. R. The presentation speech will be delivered by Judge D. R. N. Blackburn.

A complete programme will be arranged which will be published.

A Fine Portrait.

Some of the finest artistic work ever done on this coast has been executed during the past few days by Prof. Krumbein. The lifelike portraits of Mr. Earl Race and wife, of the St. Charles hotel, and the two little children of Mr. Harry Miller are specimens of the Prof's skill in this line, but his crowning effort is an exhibition in Blackman's window this morning (a little child in its cradle). As an artist the Professor stands at the head of the class. All wanting work done by him must leave their orders at the St. Charles Hotel by Monday evening, as he has only a few more days to remain here, owing to previous engagements elsewhere.

Serious Accident.

Charlie Bardwell, son of A. Bardwell, met with a serious accident Thursday evening. His team became frightened and ran away near Sand Ridge, throwing him out and breaking his leg, the bone breaking through the flesh, and he was considerably bruised up in other ways. Dr. L. Foley was called and dressed his wounds, and he thinks the boy will recover.—Lebanon Express.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Chas. Monteith, Spokane Falls, is in the city.

Prof. W. N. Hull and bride, of Corvallis, are at the Revue House.

Mr. Luke Dorris, of this city, will leave Monday for Portland, where he expects to locate.

Just received at H. Ewert's, a nice assortment of gold-headed canes.

BROWNSVILLE NOTE.

BROWNSVILLE, Or., April 13. Last night Revs. Dr. Gordon and Burchett were here and ordained Rev. Mr. LeRoy as pastor of the Baptist church.

A. W. Starnard, school clerk, is around assessing property holders, preparing to levy a tax for the new schoolhouse.

While W. Miller was out hunting in a canoe boat, the boat struck a snag and upset, nearly drowning Mr. M. and losing a fine gun.

Calipooia lodge of Odd Fellows here have decided to have a celebration on the 28th inst., and intend to invite all the lodges in this vicinity.

Monday evening the ladies of this city gave a donation to the family of John Hall, presenting them with a big lot of goods, such as provisions, clothing, money, etc.

Mrs. Putman returned home from Oregon City last week, bringing with her Mr. Leab's little boy, his mother having died from the effects of a surgical operation last week.

Mrs. James Blakely is in very poor health. Mrs. Zeiner's two little girls are down with the measles, but are improving. Mr. D. P. Bennett is confined to his bed by sickness.

The steam sawmill is running again, cutting a lot of hardwood for the Oregon Furniture Company of Portland. The upper Calipooia has plenty of the finest maple timber in the state, but there is no way of getting it out yet.

The Royce & Lansing Co.

It is comparatively a rare thing for us to be able to announce an entertainment which we honestly feel will be in no sense a disappointment to our people. Such we are confident will be given by the Royce & Lansing Co. on Tuesday evening, April 23. In addition to their entire company of last season they have secured Mrs. E. Owen Flint, the famous English comedienne and character impersonator; also Maude Flint (7 years of age), the most accomplished child actress before the public. Her great success has been attained through her beautiful rendition of the role of Editha in that delightful little sketch Editha's Burglar. This little sketch will be remembered by many as having made such a decided hit at the Lyceum Theater in New York the past season. Royce & Lansing's success is accounted for by their strict adherence of presenting a strictly refined entertainment, composed of the best artists and the best vocal and instrumental music.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

A gospel meeting for men only will be held at the W. C. T. U. hall at 4 o'clock this afternoon by the Y. M. C. A. This is only a temporary place of meeting. A committee appointed for that purpose will arrange for rooms in which to meet until such a time as the organization can build a hall of their own.

The River.

The Willamette, which owing to the absence of rain until recently has been falling, is now slowly rising. At present boats cannot go any further than Corvallis, while but little work is doing in the line of navigation. The river is now about two feet above low water mark.

In the Catholic Churches.

Archbishop Gross has ordered that at 9 o'clock on the 20th of April the bells in the various churches in the archdiocese be rung, and that the divine sacrifice of the mass be celebrated at that hour. This is in honor of the centennial anniversary of the inaugural of Washington.

Social Dancing Party.

A pleasant social dancing party was given at the opera house last evening by some of the young people of this city. Excellent music was furnished by the Italian string band, and a large number of dancers were present. It was a very successful affair.

Bids for Street Cars.

The bids for the street car line were not opened yesterday, but the finest lot of comb honey ever received in town was opened by the Willamette Packing Co. yesterday.

Second Visit of 1889.

Dr. J. B. Pilkington will be at the Revue House, Albany, all day Tuesday, April 16, 1889. All sufferers from severe dyspepsia, neuralgia, catarrh, rheumatism or any eye, ear, chronic, nervous, uterine or rectal disease will be given special free examination and opinion. The "incurables" are particularly invited. References: Jas. G. Cherry, Frank Wagner, Mell Young, Rev. Israel Carlton, of Lebanon, R. A. Rauppy, of Harrisburg, and more than fifty other well known citizens of Linn county.

SOUTH ALBANY.

A most desirable and beautiful location for suburban residences, owing to its natural advantages and nearness to the center of business. Compare the size, location, view and access to and from these lots and you will be convinced of their merits. Call early and secure a home before the advance in price. Apply to Tweedale & Redfield, agents. First door south of post-office.

Here Light.

Genuine Pearl coal oil 150 degrees first test, $1.25 per five gal iron can. Willamette Packing Co.

A new line of beautiful portiers and rugs has just been opened at Fort Miller & Irving's, also line of silk table covers, high backed oak dining chairs and novelties in furniture. Call and see them.

A GANG OF BURGLARS.

They Raid Three Butcher Shops but Secured Only Fifty Cents.

In addition to the attempted burglary at the City meat market, an account of which was published in the HERALD yesterday morning, burglars also raided two other meat markets the same night, those of John Diereger and Broder Bros. In the former they got the cash box, which contained but 75 cents and left it on the floor with 25 cents in it. A dog was tied inside, and it is supposed the burglars were frightened away. At Broder Bros. market they failed to effect an entrance. The burglars did not seem to be hungry, as no meat was taken, not even a leg of mutton.

John Wilson, the offender who was discovered by W. McLaughlin in the act of robbing a till and was caught by the officers, and who is now in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, is supposed to have several confederates. The city officers are keeping a sharp lookout and it will not be healthy for them to loiter about the city.

Teachers' Institute.

The teachers and friends of education throughout Linn county are hereby notified that the teachers' institute for the third judicial district will be held at McMinnville, beginning the 30th of April and continue through a three days session. As this district includes Linn county, it is expected that a number of teachers from this county will be present. Every teacher should consider the importance of a good institute and should attend when it is in his power to do so.

Ask your directors whether you can attend and explain the benefits to be derived from such work; if you are desiring to make a success of your work take advantage of these opportunities to improve yourself. Supt. McElroy is in earnest when he says he expects a good representation from Linn county, so let us all go. Everybody is invited to attend, teachers, parents and school officers.
