NOTICES ABOUT TOWN.

Dr. R. C. Hill and wife have returned from a visit to McMinnville.

J. R. Stewartson and wife left last night for a visit with friends in the East.

H. M. Traux has bought a farm near Millers and moved there to reside.

Mr. J. A. Gross has returned from a trip to California, much improved in health.

The deed of the ground for the woolen mills was executed yesterday by Messrs. Loom & Lanning.

Wm. Frazer purchased twenty head of horses in this city yesterday for the Portland and Sound markets.

Wm. Snow, brother-in-law of Dr. J. B. Fuller, of Halsey, had his leg broken recently by being kicked by a horse.

Levi Douglas, of Harrisburg, is in the city. He states that his new flouring mills at that place will be put in operation this week.

George A. Dyson has been commissioned postmaster at Brownsville. Dr. Frank Whipple at Cottage Grove and Joseph L. Calvert at Hubbard, Or.

U. S. Judge Matthew P. Deady had another honor thrust upon him Monday. He became the grandfather of a bouncing boy in the family of his son Ed.

The seventh annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Oregon, will be held in Salem, Oregon, May 8th, 9th and 10th, in the M. E. church.

Rev. L. G. Rogers, pastor of the Congregational church of this city is in Forest Grove attending the annual meeting of the Willamette Association of Congregational churches.

Although Albany has three or four good hotels now they are unable to accommodate the rapidly increasing transient travel of that growing city, and arrangements are being made by a joint stock company of citizens to erect a large brick hotel, the accommodations of which shall be second to none in the state.—Oregonian

Governor Penneyer, Secretary McBride and Treasurer Webb, ex-officio trustees of the insane asylum have been looking around Salem for land to be added to the asylum farm, the money to purchase which was appropriated by the last legislature. The Cross tract, about two miles south of the city, will probably be bought.

The McKanlass company gave an exhibition at the opera house last evening to a moderate-sized audience. Mr. McKanlass in his specialties is as good as ever, and the performance of his two children was good, but his support is by no means equal to his company which last visited Albany. McKanlass is an artist in his profession and needs better support.

Mr. Chas. Metzgar was arrested yesterday on complaint of Mr. Earl Race, proprietor of the St. Charles hotel, on a charge of running for the Revere House without license. The case was tried before Recorder Henton, Mr. Metzgar pleading his own case. The court took the case under advisement and will render his decision at 9 a. m. today.

Mr. Blum's place of business will be open to the public this afternoon. He has changed his store in true metropolitan style, and doubtless understands equally well how to cater to the trade. As a moment of the opening and proposals of the season the children will receive Easter cards, while the grown folks will be presented with an article both neat and useful. "Yes, we all will be dar."

The Rovee & Lansing Musical Comedy Co. who play here April 23rd, come endorsed by press and public of the entire East and West. The verdict has been so absolutely unanimous and so well known that to quote notices would be quite unnecessary. We take pleasure in announcing a company which has attained by their nine years of steady work a position in the estimation of all as one of the best now before the public. Remember they remain here but one night.

Party at the Opera House

By the urgent solicitation of a number of citizens the Italian orchestra that furnished the music for the party last Saturday evening will remain over and another dancing party will be given at the opera house on Thursday evening. This gives an excellent music while attending a first-class social party, as they give the finest opera music between the dances. A committee of citizens has the party in charge.

Something That's New

Thomas Brink has added to his factory machines for the manufacture of woven wire mattresses and is turning out some No. 1 mattresses; so if you want a good mattress that is the place to find it.

Use Fairney's patent.

THE DANIELS AFFAIR.

Sheriff Smallman and Ex-Sheriff Smith Were Not Indicted.

No little comment was created in this city yesterday by the report that Sheriff Jno. Smallman and Ex-Sheriff D. S. Smith had been indicted by the U. S. grand jury for allowing W. R. McDaniel, while sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail here, to remain at liberty, and had been arrested by a U. S. marshal and taken to Portland.

This, however, is incorrect. They were not arrested, but went to Portland of their own accord to give evidence before the U. S. grand jury, which is investigating the case. A dispatch received at this office from Portland last night states that they had not been indicted.

The facts in the case are that McDaniel, who was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the county jail for using funds of the postoffice while postmaster at Harrisburg, was given unlimited liberty and allowed to go anywhere in the city, and also to visit his wife, who was ill. Complaint has been made to the U. S. grand jury, and the case is being investigated by that body. They may or may not be indicted, or they may be simply fined for contempt of court, or the case may be dismissed.

The penalty, if convicted is either imprisonment, or a fine of from $1 to $3000 at the discretion of the court.

A Soldier's Heart.

The old saying that the way to a soldier's heart is through his stomach is very true. Others have the same strong weakness. It takes various dainties to tickle various palates; for instance take a good old German, he likes a good Limburger cheese, others a piece of fine California cream cheese; take the Italian, he likes macaroni and cheese. The average human, though, likes everything that's good, a nice fat chicken and horse radish or chow chow, delicious comb honey, gilt edge butter or fresh eggs. The Willamette Packing Co. receives all the above fresh every day.

Captured Two Chinese Pheasants.

L. L. Riley, of this city, shipped yesterday to his mother at Coburg two fine specimens of Chinese pheasants which he had captured near Millers station. They were beautiful birds, and in their coop did not appear wild. They were caught with a bird dog in a straight race. The birds, it is said, will often not fly from a dog but lead an ordinary canine a fleet chase. In this manner they can be caught. Mrs. Riley will endeavor to domesticate the two birds shipped to her.

Fine Timber Land.

John D. Daley, of Newport, says the Oregonian, who has just made an extended exploration of the country around the headwaters of the north fork of the Santiam, says there is a strip of fine timber land ten miles long and three miles wide near Lake Marion that has never been surveyed. White pine, cedar and yellow fir timber abounds. In some places the trees are very thick, and in one patch 20x50 feet he estimated that 250,000 feet of lumber could be cut.

The Yaquina Jetty.

Captain Bessell, of Yaquina, reports work on the jetty at the mouth of the river is progressing nicely. He says the south side of the jetty is badly filled in, which will necessitate the moving of the tramway further north, but that the work has been already of great benefit in cutting the channel and clearing it, and that the work hereafter done will be of a more serviceable and permanent nature, for the reason that the foundation work has now settled to bedrock and will not sag any further. There are about fifty men at work in the rock quarry and fifty or forty-five at the mouth of the river.

Another Chinese Pheasant Caught.

Yesterday afternoon a large male Chinese pheasant flew over the business houses on Ferry street, and alighted in open front of C. H. Dodd & Company's hardware store. His gay plumage and long tail made him a beautiful spectacle. He ran under some buggies, and Watt Monteith lost no time in capturing him. He proposes to secure a mate for him and send the pair to the Golden Gate Park in San Francisco.

Now Real Estate Goes Up.

H. Bryant sold yesterday to Mrs. L. Woodie 11 acres of land near this city for $7000. The same land was bought by Mr. Bryant of Jay Blain on March 1st for $350 per acre, making the price nearly double in half a month. Lucky is the man who owns real estate in Albany and vicinity.

Teachers Institute.

The teachers and friends of education throughout Linn county are hereby notified that the teachers' institute for the third judicial district will be held at McMinnville, beginning the 30th of April and continue through a three days' session. As this district includes Linn county, it is expected that a number of teachers from this county will be present. Every teacher should consider the importance of a good institute and should attend when it is in his power to do so. Ask your directors whether you can attend and explain the benefits to be derived from such work; if you are desiring to make a success of your work take advantage of these opportunities to improve yourself. Supt. McElroy is in earnest when he says he expects a good representation from Linn county, so let us all go. Every-body is invited to attend, teachers, parents and school officers.
