Cheney, W. T. was swept by a disastrous fire on the 15th inst. The loss reached $70,000. Half of the business part of the town was burned. The fire is supposed to have been of an incendiary origin, and the fire apparatus had been tampered with, wooden plugs having been inserted in the hose, which caused a delay of an hour on the part of the firemen.

A FINE DISPLAY.

A Market That Would Do Credit to Any City Read it for Breakfast.

A HERALD reporter observed yesterday in front of Wallace, Thompson & Co.'s store the following: New potatoes, green peas, string beans, celery, cauliflower, cabbage, asparagus, lettuce, green onions, rhubarb, fresh tomatoes, pine apples, fine navel oranges, bananas, and—well six cans of fine yellow Crawford peaches sold for $1, and he also saw 8 dozen sold in less than ten minutes. One man who had bought 6 cans the day before came hastily and ordered 2 dozen, and said they were the finest peaches he ever had. This great peach sale will close to-day. The reporter on being invited in observed a mammoth stock of staple and fancy groceries. Big barrels of sugar piled up in the warehouse, bought extremely low before the price went up, up, up until now they can sell you sugar at Portland wholesale prices and realize a handsome profit. He also observed a constant stream of farmer's wagons coming and leaving a large lot of choice products, and driving away loaded down with groceries and provisions. These are facts and it is with pride that the HERALD refers to them.

"The Scrap Book."

Will be presented by the famous Royce-Lansing Co. next Tuesday evening. Though its "plot" is not a deep one, it will be found sufficient to act as a "binding" for the great variety of "straps" contained within its covers. It abounds with the latest and most popular songs and music, embraces a great variety of new and novel musical and comedy specialties, giving ample scope for the display of the peculiarly versatile talents of each member of the company. It is designed to make you laugh, and you can't help it. In a word, its mission is to give its ardent two hours of clean, delightful amusement. After witnessing it, we need not say you will add your verdict to that of thousands of others, viz., "Its mission is well conceived, and most faithfully carried out."

A Hog with a Record.

Ex-County Commissioner Alex Brandon is the possessor of a hog with a remarkable record. It is a Berkshire and Poland China sow. During the past year she has raised for him 25 pigs, which when fattened yielded him $268. He sold two pigs for $20. He killed and put away for his own use 1400 pounds of pork which was worth $84. He also sold $164 worth of pork. The sow now has another family of a dozen lively little porkers, which a little later on will be worth another $100. Mr. Brandon says if any farmer can beat this record at hog raising he would like to hear from him.

A Lively Runaway.

Yesterday afternoon Edward Schmeer was riding a wild horse on First street, when the horse commenced "bucking" and nearly ran into a crowd on the sidewalk at the junction of First and Ellsworth streets. The commotion frightened a team owned by Jos. Bilyeu, which ran away with a covered hack. They ran about a mile down First street, and were wrecked, and the bill of damages was promptly footed by the young man with the "bucking" horse.

Fell from a Bridge.

A few days ago L. Hasbrooke received severe injuries by falling from the sidewalk leading from the bridge to South Brownsville. He fell a distance of fifteen feet, striking on his head and sustained a severe shock, but will recover.

The jury in the case of A. J. Cody, on trial for mayhem on one Morin, returned a verdict of guilty at 1:25 p. m. to-day after being out for one hour. The history of the case is that on the 10th of March last A. J. Cody, a runner for the Holton house, and Joseph Morin, a porter in the same establishment, had a personal encounter, during which Cody bit off the lower lip of his antagonist. On the 25th of the same month Cody was indicted for mayhem.

GRISMER-DAVIES COMING.

They Will Appear Here April 26 in the Great Play "The World Against Her."

Mr. E. A. Kilday, representing the well-known Grismer-Davies Company, is in the city arranging for their appearance at the opera house on April 26. This company are favorites here and are sure of giving an excellent performance and of receiving a large audience. The play is Frank Harvey's powerful melo-drama, "The World Against Her."

"The New York Herald says of it: "The World Against Her," by Frank Harvey, author of the "Wages of Sin," was produced last night at the Grand Opera House before a large audience, and proved to be one of the strongest melo-dramas on the stage to-day. The interest is artistically worked up from the beginning and well sustained throughout, the curtain finally falling on a scene that is so effective that the audience—a rather rare thing for this city—with one accord delayed its exit, although it was half past eleven, to applaud, while the leading characters loved their acknowledgements before the curtain. To say that everybody in the house was delighted at the truth. They were held spellbound in the most interesting scenes, and were wrought up to a pitch of rare enthusiasm. All this was due to the workmanship of the author alone. There is really not a weak character in the play. Madge Carlton, a wrongly suspected and cruelly divorced wife, with a noble forbearance and loving simplicity, completely captures the hearts of the audience. The part of James Carlton, the injured but forgiving husband, and the part of Gilbert Blair, the accomplished villain, who gives the key to the whole drama, are also well-drawn characters. Bob Millet, a showman, is an excellent comedy character, and the part of Sally, his wife, is admirable. Those who have seen the play will indorse the opinion we have expressed as to the merit of "The World Against Her."

Masonic Easter Services.

The members of Knights Templar Commandry No. 3 will celebrate Easter Sunday by attending services at the First Presbyterian church to-morrow at 7:30 p. m. They will attend in a body, a special service having been arranged for the occasion. The sermon will be delivered by Sir Knight Rev. H. P. Webb. The exercises, consisting partially of Masonic rites, will be interspersed with a service of song.

Teachers Institute.

The teachers and friends of education throughout Linn county are hereby notified that the teachers' institute for the third judicial district will be held at McMinville, beginning the 30th of April and continue through a three days' session. As this district includes Linn county, it is expected that a number of teachers from this county will be present. Every teacher should consider the importance of a good institute and should attend when it is in his power to do so. Ask your directors whether you can attend and explain the benefits to be derived from such work; if you are desiring to make a success of your work take advantage of these opportunities to improve yourself. Supt. McElroy is in earnest when he says he expects a good representation from Linn county, so let us all go. Everybody is invited to attend, teachers, parents and school officers.

CORVALLIS NEWS.

Steps Taken for Providing the Town with Water Power—Items of Interest.

A meeting of citizens was held Thursday evening in the parlors of Job's bank to discuss the matter of the feasibility of digging a ditch from a few miles above Corvallis in order to bring in water for power purposes. A committee was appointed to ascertain the cost of hiring an engineer to make a survey of the proposed route, also to secure a subscription of money for paying said person. Another committee was named to draw up articles of incorporation for such water ditch company. This seems to be all the talk here among the citizens, and property is rising in value. One gentleman, a wheat dealer at present, says that if the water power can be furnished he will erect a 100-barrel flour mill by furnishing one half of the cost in money himself and raising the other by outside capital.

It was W. A. Wells and Prof. McElroy who purchased the 175 acres just west of Corvallis on Monday for $100 per acre. W. S. McFadden and Dr. Lee purchased 60 acres adjoining the same for the same price.

Haman Lewis, Sr., died at his residence, a short distance below Corvallis, Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. He was an old pioneer of Benton county, and was 83 years of age.

The steamer Hoag is now engaged in running on the river above this city getting out some of the large amount of wheat and flour held in various warehouses along the route.

The commencement exercises of the Agricultural college will commence on Wednesday, June 24, continuing three days. There are sixteen in the graduating class of '89, six girls and ten boys.

The engagement of Prof. P. A. Irish and Miss Emma Weber is announced. He is professor of chemistry in the Agricultural college, and she is a resident of Corvallis. When this marriage occurs there will be left only one unmarried professor out of the seven employed. That is Prof. Letcher.

A Soldier's Heart.

The old saying that the way to a soldier's heart is through his stomach is very true. Others have the same strong weakness. It takes various dainties to tickle various palates; for instance take a good old German, he likes a piece of Limburger cheese, others a piece of fine California cream cheese; take the Italian, he likes macaroni and cheese. The average human, though, likes everything that's good, a nice fat chicken and horse radish or chow chow, delicious comb honey, gilt edge butter or fresh eggs. The Willamette Packing Co. receives all the above fresh every day.

The Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Co. who play here April 23rd, come endorsed by press and public of the entire East and West. The verdict has been so absolutely unanimous and so well known that to quote notices would be quite unnecessary. We take pleasure in announcing a company which has attained by their nine years of steady work a position in the estimation of all as one of the best now before the public. Remember they remain here but one night.

For this week only we will sell 6 cans of fine yellow Crawford table peaches for $1. Wallace, Thompson & Co.
