Peik county and her county seat and new court house question continue to be the topics of discussion and excitement at Dallas. No decision has been arrived at as yet by the canvassers of petition and remonstrance.

The board of trade of Corvallis are making every effort to bring the importance of the extension of the West Side division to Junction City, before the Southern Pacific officials. Petition have been printed and the board will send a representative along the line for the purpose of securing signatures.

PERSONAL MENTION. Miss Laura Goltra of this city is visiting in Salem. D. S. Smith returned from a trip to Gatesville last evening.

John Trask and David Scott, of Fox Valley, are in the city. O. P. Coshov and L. C. Rice, of Brownsville, were in the city yesterday.

Rev. J. S. McCain, teacher at the Siletz Indian reservation, is in the city. J. W. Bentley and wife of this city are visiting the deaf mute school in Salem.

Coll Van Cleve and family are in the city, removing from Baker City to Yaquina. Death of John McCoy.

John McCoy, an old pioneer of Linn county, died suddenly at his home near Oakville at 5 o'clock last evening, aged 74 years. He had been able to be up the day before and was not thought to be seriously ill. He was taken with congestion of the lungs and died very peacefully. He came to Oregon in 1845 and reared a family of seven children. Two of them, Mrs. F. M. French and Andrew McCoy, reside in this city. James B. McCoy resides at the home of the late father and four sons, William, Fred, Joseph and George reside in Washington territory. The deceased's wife died some years before him, also passing away quite suddenly.

Twenty-Seven Children. "Yes," the old man said to the reporter, his breast heaving with pride and his eyes sparkling with joy, as he pointed to his young army of seventeen boys and ten girls, "those are all mine. But I'll tell you what, stranger, it was hard rustling in Kansas for a living, when the corn was planted for it to sprout, but since we got here we live like princes, it's the finest country in the world. Every one you could see the grass-hoppers sit down and wait thing is so cheap, especially when I buy at the Willamette Packing Company's store. They have the best goods and undersell any house in the city.

Wedding Bells. It is announced that Mr. Elmer Samuels, of Corvallis, and Miss Bird Thompson will be united in marriage in this city to-day. The bride is a daughter of Rev. E. J. Thompson, D. D., of Corvallis, and a sister of Mrs. Rev. E. R. Fritchard and Mrs. Wm. Fortmiller, of this city, and has a wide circle of friends, who will extend hearty congratulations.

Paying Up. Paymaster C. C. Hoag and Superintendent Bowen, of the Oregon Pacific, returned from the front last evening, having been out over the road paying up employees. For your fine imported and Ke West cigars, go to M. Baumgart cigar store, one door east of Black man's drug store.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHTS.

The Capacity of the Plant Will Be Doubled This Summer.

The growth of Albany is admirably shown by the increasing demand for the electric lights. Messrs. Allen & Goff states that since putting in the present lights twelve months ago the plant, which was then considered of sufficient size for several years to come, has been taxed to its utmost capacity and the demand for lights cannot now be supplied. They will accordingly this summer double the capacity of the arc lights by adding another 2000 candle power, 35 lamp dynamo. If the present demand for the incandescent lights continues another dynamo will be added to the system. Albany has the largest and most complete electric light plant in the state outside of Portland, and under its present managers is giving a most satisfactory service as is shown by the manner in which it is appreciated and used by the public.

Look Out for Him.

There is a very sleek fakir doing this city at present, for whom the people should be on the lookout and give him the grand bounce. He is playing an old game, but there are always those who get caught, no matter how often the warning is sounded. His scheme is to represent himself as carrying a line of dress goods, men's suitings, carpets and other goods, which he is selling at extremely low prices. The carpets and dress goods he will sell on six month's time and at such low rates as to astonish the housewife. The suitings are the only items for which cash is required and the great inducement offered in this case is that he has a tailor following him right up, who will be along in a week or so and make up the suits in guaranteed style for little or nothing, six or seven dollars for the best suits. These suitings are the only part of the order filled on the spot, and as they are the only part for which cash is taken, they are all that are ever delivered, and it is needless to remark that the tailor, who seems to be on the road only for his health, never shows up. The fellow's name doing Salem, is given as G. H. Hamilton, a good talker and has succeeded in roping in a few families, but not many. Pass him along, you have no use for him; and if he becomes saucy introduce him to the bulldog.—Salem Statesman.

Snakes in His Boots.

The attention of Chief of Police Hoffman was directed yesterday to one H. B. Morgan, who had delirium tremens at the Waverly boarding house, which was a result of a protracted spree. The inmates of the house were alarmed by the cries issuing from his room and thought he must be dying. A physician was called who gave him a quieting potion, giving the fellow an opportunity to sleep off his delirium. His wife had telegraphed him $25 the day previous from Oaks, Dakota, but it was squandered by the wretched man, and when informed of his condition his wife refused to send him any more. Until he can recover from his debauch and get the swelling out of his head and snakes out of his boots he will probably be a city charge, after which he may have sense enough to go to work.

Valuable Fire Proof Stone.

Frank Wood, who owns two valuable stone quarries near this city, one on the Santiam river and the other across the Willamette in Benton county, received a letter recently from the Helena Granite and Sand Stone Co-operative Stone Co., inquiring if the stone obtained from his quarries would stand fire sufficiently to be used in lining mining smelters. Mr. Wood at once took a quantity of stone from both quarries and had it tested in the furnace of the Albany Iron Works. The stone stood the test perfectly, being left in the furnace with the melted iron for 40 minutes. He has replied to the company stating the result of the test. If this stone proves as valuable as it now promises to for this purpose there will no doubt be a big demand for it in the territories where mining is carried on extensively.

A Robbery at McCoy.

At McCoy on Monday a little robbery was committed, but the intruders were captured and the money refunded. A couple of small boys, aged 10 and 11, broke into a Chinaman's house and stole about $10, and started on foot to leave the country. They were captured yesterday at Ballston brought back home. They had spent very little of the money, and as it was returned to the griever pig tail, he was satisfied to let it go without prosecuting the young culprits.

THE WATER SUPPLY.

With the Improvement of the Water Works Will Come Fresh Water.

The people of Albany are to be congratulated upon the action taken by the city council concerning the matter of requiring pure water only to be furnished by the owners of the city water works. The present supply, as has heretofore been pointed out by the HERALD, is sufficiently impure to breed the germs of the worst kind of diseases, and it is gratifying that the committee on health after thoroughly investigating the matter, has made a vigorous report, for the purpose of correcting this abuse. With pure fresh water flowing down from the snow-capped gorges of the Cascade mountains, there is no excuse for furnishing sewer water for household purposes. It is well that a change is to be made and fresh water supplied.

The report of the committee from the city council upon the subject, which we republish by request, is as follows:

To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council: We your committee to whom was referred the matter of the water furnished the city by the water company, beg leave to report that we have made a careful examination of the matter, and find that portion of the water is taken directly from the Calapooia river, a short distance below the discharge pipe of the Calapooia street sewer, and a portion taken directly from the Vine street canal, and below a number of kitchen and sink drains, and would recommend that the owners of the water company be required to see that ordinance No 143 is enforced, in regard to the supply taken from the Vine street canal, and also recommend that the committee on health and police be instructed to confer with the owners of the water company to make some suitable arrangement that when the new pumps are placed in position a supply of fresh water can be furnished through terra cotta, cement, or other suitable pipes, from the Albany and Santiam canal, to be taken from above the city, or from the Willamette river.

Coming Next Friday.

Concerning the Grismer-Davies company, which will appear at the opera house in this city next Friday evening in "The World Against Her," the New York Evening Sun says: "The first production of 'The World Against Her,' a melodrama of English life, by Frank Harvey, was made on the city stage last night at the People's theater and the house was packed to its capacity. Mr. Harvey's play had considerable success in England before A. M. Palmer secured it for this country. It is, beyond a doubt, destined to become popular here with the vast multitude of playgoers who like melodrama. 'The World Against Her' is the story of a faithful wife's nobility and fortitude through a series of domestic calamities, caused primarily by the stupidity of a too-busy husband, and incidentally assisted by the rejected lover of the good wife. The play is full of action; all the incidents are stirring and probable; the language is vigorous, if simple; some of the character sketches are vivid, and every climax is ingeniously contrived and thoroughly effective.
