100 YEARS

How the Washington Centennial Was Observed in This City.

THE EXERCISES OF THE DAY.

Religious Services by the Ministerial Association—Public School and G. A. R. Exercises.

The centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration as president of the United States was observed in this city yesterday with appropriate exercises.

The public buildings and business houses were profusely adorned with national colors and banners. At 9 a. m. the bells of the city joined with those in all the cities and towns in the Union in ringing to celebrate the event one hundred years ago.

THE RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

At 10:30 religious services were held at the opera house, conducted by the ministerial association of Albany.

The services were opened with prayer by Rev. W. D. Humphrey. A beautiful service of song was rendered by the choir, conducted by Rev. E. R. Prichard, Miss Frances Gilbert presiding at the piano. The opening selection was the old yet ever new patriotic song, "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

The proclamation of President Harrison was read by Rev. H. P. Webb.

Scripture lessons were read by Rev. D. H. Comann.

A service of prayer was also given by Rev. L. J. Trumbull, Rev. L. G. Rogers, Rev. D. H. Comann, Rev. W. D. Humphrey and Rev. R. C. Hill.

An excellent and able discourse was then given by Rev. S. G. Irvine, who eloquently portrayed the successive stages of civilization in this country, from the early colonial period to the present wonderful stage of advancement of the United States, when all nations, even the British, from whose tyranny this country broke away and established American freedom, now draw lessons of the science of government from this republic.

The choir then sang another patriotic song, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. P. Webb.

THE AFTERNOON EXERCISES.

At 1 o'clock the teachers and pupils of the public school, carrying flags, banners and portraits of Washington, Lincoln and Grant, headed by the color bearer, martial music and Frank Blodgett dressed as Uncle Sam, marched up First street to the opera house, where musical and literary exercises were held. About 1000 people were present, many not being able to obtain seats.

The exercises were opened with the song "America" by the school, which was followed by prayer by Rev. H. P. Webb.

Prof. Walker, principal of the public schools, then read a carefully prepared address on Patriotism in the Public Schools.

The following programme was then rendered: Recitation—Miss Lettie Bassett. Our Flag—Song by pupils of rooms 1 and 2.

Uncle Sam's Overseers—A character sketch by 24 boys, representing Uncle Sam and the 23 presidents.

Recitation—Clara Sternberg. Recitation—Miss Maude Devoe. Recitation—Miss Ella Risley. Song—Hail Columbia, by the school.

Recitation—Olive Baltimore. Recitation—Mamie Hyde. Recitation—Ella Parker. Recitation—Gussie Layton. Song—American Flag, room No. 3.

Maxims of Washington—By room No. 4. Concert exercise—Room No. 5. Character song—George Washington's Overseers, by little boys of rooms 1 and 2.

Recitation—The Brightest Name on History's Page, by room No. 6. The Hymn of the Republic—By room 5.

Our Flag—Recitation by Georgia Allen. Song—Mt. Vernon Bells, by the school.

This closed the exercises by the school. A beautiful silver flag was then presented to the public school by McPherson Post, G. A. R. The presentation speech was delivered in well chosen words by Judge D. R. N. Blackburn, and the response was made by Hon. J. K. Weatherford, who delivered a short and eloquent address.

Prof. Walker proposed three hearty cheers by the pupils of the school for the stary banner, which were given with a will.

Mr. Weatherford on behalf of the directors of the school, spoke in complimentary terms of the exercises of the children. The musical portion of the programme was especially good. Miss Lillie Robertson presided at the organ. The teachers deserve much credit for the excellent training exhibited by the scholars.

SOUTH ALBANY.

A most desirable and beautiful location for suburban residences, owing to its natural advantages and nearness to the center of business. Compare the size, location, view and access to and from these lots and you will be convinced of their merits. Call early and secure a home before the advance in price. Apply to Tweedle & Redfield, agents. First door south of post-office.

Fresh Sicily lemons at Kenton's.

SOME GOOD SUGGESTIONS.

An Opportunity to Advise Albany—Letter from Hon. E. B. McElroy.

The following letter from Superintendent E. B. McElroy has been received by Hon. J. W. Cusick, of this city. It contains some good suggestions, which should be acted upon:

Hon. J. W. Cusick, Albany Board of Trade: The National Encampment, G. A. R., of the United States, is to be held at Milwaukee, Wis., beginning August 27 of this year, and will continue in session during that week.

The department of Oregon has received a cordial invitation to be present in force. I have already accepted this invitation and expect to be present in person. In addition to this we shall make a vigorous effort to have our department largely represented, and the prospects now are that we shall have from fifty to one hundred members of the G. A. R. of this state in attendance. In addition to this we expect to have a large attendance of many of our most enterprising and public spirited citizens.

This encampment at Milwaukee promises to be one of the largest ever held in the United States, and will be one of the finest opportunities for advertising Oregon that has ever offered itself, and I deem it important that it should not be neglected by the enterprising citizens of our state. I have already written to the G. A. R. local committees at Milwaukee for headquarters, and the prospect now is that we shall be able to secure a large hall near the center of the city for Oregon headquarters.

One or two counties in the Willamette valley have already stated that they would be willing to send would furnish two car loads of fruit, consisting of prunes, apples, pears and plums. This will be a grand thing to do, and will represent the fruit products of our state better than by any other plan. Indeed, if the tens of thousands of visitors from the Western and Eastern states who will congregate at Milwaukee have the opportunity to sample our splendid fruits, this of itself would insure a large immigration within the next two years.

As stated above, the reports already received from various parts of the state at these headquarters indicate that if attendance from Oregon of G. A. R. members will be quite large. I believe that I can safely say that the G. A. R. men who will go East to the encampment will all be men of enterprise and who are largely interested in the advancement and development of our state. I need not say to you that the personal expenses of each member attending from Oregon will be quite large, and it ought not to be expected that our G. A. R. men attending would pay their own expenses and also the additional expense of having our state fully represented by our fruit and grain products. I am now in correspondence with several trans-continental railway lines relative to passenger and freight rates, especially in regard to fruit freight rates. I visited Portland last Saturday to meet by appointment the general passenger agent of the Wisconsin Central railroad. I had a long conference with Mr. Barker, general passenger agent of that railway, with regard to rates for the G. A. R. and for freight rates for fruit, etc. The results of this meeting were very favorable, and the Wisconsin Central railroad will agree to carry three to four cars of fruit free of charge over their entire line, and also that the passenger rates will be as low as in any other line. If we are able to secure equal rates from the Northern Pacific railroad, we shall then be able to travel to Milwaukee by direct line. It will be necessary of course to transport the fruit cars as rapidly as possible, and Mr. Barker, of the Wisconsin Central, assured me that if necessary they would attach the fruit cars to the through passenger express. In addition to this he will furnish us sleepers, and also tourist sleepers, and during the week of the encampment will place them in the Wisconsin central yards so that they may be occupied by G. A. R. people, and thus save the annoyance of securing hotel room, etc.

If the boards of trade in the several cities in our state desire to take advantage of this grand opportunity for advertising, we shall have their immigration literature distributed in the most thorough and practical manner (not scattered broadcast and in a haphazard way, but placed directly in the hands of the thousands of intelligent business men and farmers who will be present at Milwaukee on the above occasion) it will be necessary to arrive at some conclusion in regard to such representation at the earliest practicable day. Last year the G. A. R. men of this department discussed the practicability and advantages of carrying to Columbus, Ohio, one of the best brass bands in Portland, but it was abandoned for the reason that the expense was found too considerable to be borne. The estimate then made for carrying a band of from sixteen to twenty pieces from this state equalled $2500. It is my opinion that a No. one brass band would be a grand auxiliary while in Milwaukee for calling attention and attracting visitors to the Oregon headquarters thoroughly and on a large scale without this very valuable auxiliary. I would make this suggestion: That with a few hundred dollars we can secure a first-class band from some of the cities near to Milwaukee, and for perhaps one-fourth of the cost of transporting a band from the Pacific Coast. I am already in correspondence with the best brass and military bands in Chicago. This band consists of thirty pieces, and is considered one of the best bands west of New York. They can be had for the week of the encampment for $640, and they are to pay their own expenses. This I regard as very reasonable. They are to pay their own traveling expenses and also their own expenses while in the city of Milwaukee. This band has received overtures from other departments, more especially from two or three G. A. R. posts in the city of Philadelphia, Pa.

I have seen two or three members of the board of trade in Portland, and active steps will be taken at once in regard to having the city of Portland and county of Multnomah represented. My opinion now is that it will require from $1500 to $1800 to have this department represented systematically and on a large scale. We ought to be able to carry not less than three car loads of fruit and one car load of grain exhibit in the sheaf, etc., also vegetable products.

I shall be pleased to have you present this matter before your board of trade at the next meeting. You will remember something of our work last year at San Francisco, where we established headquarters regularly at the Occidental hotel during the session of the National Teachers' Association. During that week we registered and entertained from four to five thousand visitors and induced over 2000 of them to pass through our state on their way home to the East. The results of this work are apparent every day. Now, while this effort was a very profitable one, yet in my opinion the encampment at Milwaukee presents opportunities incomparably superior to any that have ever been offered us, provided it be vigorously and thoroughly taken advantage of.

Please determine at the next meeting of your board, if possible, the amount, or the approximate amount that the city of Albany will be able to furnish in money, and also the amount of fruit that may be furnished by your city and county. I need hardly suggest that the prospective fruit crop is equal, if not superior, to that of any previous year at this time, and if the crop be half as large as it now appears, thousands of bushels of fruit will go to waste. I make this suggestion for the reason that the 'winishing of one carload of fruit, or even three carloads of fruit, will be attended by very little if any expense to your board. I have not the slightest doubt that if the matter is reasonably well advertised the citizens of Linn county would furnish half a dozen car loads if it were necessary. If the railways determine to carry our fruit clear through to Milwaukee without charge, this of itself will be quite a gift to our state and to the enterprise, for I am reliably informed by an extensive shipper of green fruit to Chicago and elsewhere that the freight rates per car for quick transportation costs several hundred dollars for each car—say from $300 to $600.

In addition to what I have stated above I would add that we are hoping to secure at least one active, public-spirited man from each board of trade in this state who will accompany our excursion to Milwaukee. And I trust that you will do yourself in person. I make this request because I know that you are closely identified with every active and prosperous movement of advancement and development in your city and county, and I trust that your board of trade will send you as a delegate to Milwaukee. In addition to this I would state that the Salem board of trade has already appropriated $300 for their share of the necessary amount of money for establishing headquarters at Milwaukee. I presume your board will be able to furnish as much. Please look after this matter at once for it will be necessary to arrive at some definite and practical conclusion at the earliest possible day, so that we shall be able to make the necessary contracts for halls, etc., at Milwaukee. This is absolutely necessary, so that we may be able to secure a large and eligible hall for our exhibits.

Please write me in regard to the above at the earliest possible day. Very truly yours, E. B. McELROY, Dep't Com. G. A. R. of Oregon.

It is no good to look at the thermometer this year to judge of winter. The only thing to guide you is Brownell & Stanard's prices, which are always down to zero.
