The Corvallis Times says: "Professors Grimm and Lake will address the grange at Tangent, Linn county, on next Saturday, by special invitation. They are also on the programme for addresses at the state grange, which meets at Salem on the 22d of May. Oregon has no one better posted in the science of agriculture and horticulture than these two gentlemen, and the grangers of the state appreciate their ability." The State Grange meets on the 28th day of May, instead of on the 22d, as stated by the Times.

Will Albany Celebrate.

Now that the celebration of the Washington inauguration centennial is over it would be an appropriate time to consider whether or not Albany will celebrate the coming Fourth of July. In view of the prosperity and business growth of this city we should have a rousing celebration this year. It should be arranged on a big scale. A sham battle by different military companies could no doubt be secured and other attractions which would make it a celebration long to be remembered by the oldest inhabitant. Let us celebrate, and let it be a grand and successful affair.

Board of Trade Meeting.

A meeting of the Albany board of trade will be held at the G. A. R. hall on Friday evening at 7:30 to consider the letter of Hon. E. B. McElroy relative to advertising Albany at the national G. A. R. convention in August, which letter was received by Mr. J. W. Cusick and was published in the HERALD. A full attendance is desired. By order of the president, S. E. Young, by Jay W. Blain, secretary.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Arrested for Forgery and Cleared—Serious Steamboat Accident.

Special to the HERALD.]

SALEM, May 1.—Charles Pyburn, who was arrested on a charge of forgery, was examined this afternoon and acquitted. The weight of the testimony went to show that he cannot write at all. There is little doubt now but that Willis Jordan, one of the boys who passed the order, was also the writer of it. When going from Salem, after passing the forged order, Jordan forged another order with the name of Ed. Dave, a Polk county farmer, with which he obtained a quart of brandy from an Independence druggist. Jordan stands a good show of going to the penitentiary this time.

INSANE MAN.

Henry Isansee, an insane man, was brought to the Asylum from Multnomah county this evening.

ACCIDENT TO THE OCCIDENT.

The steamer Occident, in coming down the river this evening, struck a snag at the mouth of the Santiam river and stove a hole in her bottom. The officers beached her right there and patched her sufficiently to take what cargo she had to Portland, where she will be drydocked for full repairs.

A Big Purchase.

Mr. F. L. Such has purchased of Mr. Ashby Pearce his farm lying across the river opposite this city. It contains 536 acres of fine land and nearly two miles of river front. The price paid was private. Mr. Such will improve the place, making it one of the prettiest in this portion of the state. He has already sown it to clover and has named it Cloverdale. It contains some beautiful groves nicely located for picnics, etc. Mr. Such states that he will also use every honorable effort to secure the construction of a free bridge across the river as soon as a bill for the same can be passed allowing the same by the next session of the legislature.

The Ice Work.

Work will be commenced to-day on the buildings for the Albany Ice Works. A portion of the machinery has already arrived and the remainder will be received by the time the buildings are completed. A cold storage room will be one of the important features of the ice works. It will turn out five tons of pure ice daily. Arrangements have been made with the Portland Ice Co. to furnish ice for this city until the works here are running, and the company now has ice, which will be delivered daily in quantities to suit by their salesman, F. H. Pfeiffer. D. C. Schell will be the architect and builder for the works.

O. P. Extension.

A special train will take the O. P. officials out to the end of the track to-day on a tour of inspection. We hope that this is the forerunner of lively times, as it is about time for something new to turn up. By the way, this reminds us that we did see something new and rich yesterday, it was ten kegs of souced pigs feet and the same amount of spiced sardines and a barrel of chow chow. They were just received by the Willamette Packing Company, and are delicious, just the thing for relishes and lunches, also a fine lot of cream cheese.

Arrived at Home.

F company arrived home on last evening's train well pleased with their trip to the metropolis. Albany has reason to be proud of their militia company, for the boys done splendid work in the parade on Tuesday and gained high encomiums. All honor to F company, Albany is proud of them.

UP THE SANTIAM.

Newsy Notes from the Lively Towns on the Eastward Extension of the O. P.

MILL CITY, May 1.

A party of three men, consisting of J. B. Maher, John Daley and O. VanOlstein, have returned from a prospecting trip up the Santiam. They went to within nine miles of Mt. Jefferson. They have located some valuable gold and silver bearing quartz ledges, assays from which show from $18 to $27 per ton. A sufficient quantity of ore has been taken out for a working test, which will be shipped to San Francisco. The party found scattering patches of snow from six to eight inches deep in Independence Valley, where twenty-five head of horses belonging to Henness Bros. are grazing. A fine quartz ledge has also been located five miles this side of Breightenbush.

Many timber and fruit claims are being taken along the Santiam, and the country is fast being filled by settlers.

The mills of this place shipped to-day to Albany and Salem 18 car loads of lumber, amounting to 108,006 feet. More machinery is being added to the mills, which are kept running constantly.

The new Mill City hotel has been completed, and is now opened for the public.

A hotel is to be built this summer at Breightenbush, which promises to be one of the liveliest mountain towns on the road. The fine water power and timber adjacent will make it thriving timbering point.

A good wagon road has been cut from Blue Lick to the Sulphur Springs, seven miles above Breightenbush.

J. W. Brown, the well known sawmill man, will conduct this summer a big sawmill at The Narrows, five miles above Rock Creek.

There is a marked activity among sawmill men and settlers all along the line of the Oregon Pacific railroad, and everybody is expecting the early resumption of work along the line.

Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick, of Lebanon, was in town a few days ago, looking after the interests of the Lebanon Express. He obtained a few new subscribers to his paper.

Most all of the citizens of this place, including the band, attended the Odd Fellows picnic at Brownsville last Friday. It was a lovely day for the time of year and all seemed to enjoy the picnic. The band boys remained in Brownsville until next day in order to attend the concert Friday night.
