Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

The Albany Furniture Co. would be glad to have you call and examine their complete stock of goods before purchasing elsewhere. We believe we can make it to your interest to examine our prices and goods before purchasing. Corner First and Ferry streets.

GENERAL NEWS.

Our Usual Budget of News from Washington.

THE STAR ROUTE CONTRACTS.

Investigating the Indignity Offered to American Ladies in France Eastern News.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Gardner Van Nostrand, a brother of the American ladies arrested in Mentone, France, at the instigation of Miller, was at the department of state this morning. He made a statement of the case, which contained nothing in addition to what has already been published. The papers have been filed and the superintendent will look into the case. The ladies were arrested on a trumped up charge of a milliner who demanded an exorbitant price for goods which had not been delivered.

In the matter of the star route contracts, suspended by Second Assistant Postmaster General Whitfield because of their apparent illegal, not fraudulent, execution, the assistant attorney-general for the postoffice department has just rendered a decision. He holds the entire series of contracts, amounting to $147,000, to be illegal and void. The proposals upon which the contracts are based, while irregular in many respects are not deemed absolutely void. The assistant attorney general holds that the new contracts, properly and legally executed, may be received. The opinion recites at length the exculpatory evidence presented by the contractors.

Why Is It

That people linger along always complaining about that tired feeling? One bottle of BEGGS' BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will entirely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. G. L. Blackman, druggist.

HE FOLLOWED SUIT.

My wife has been under physicians care for two years, for what they called "liver complaint." She would get some relief while taking prescriptions, but would soon fall back into the same drowsy, inactive state. I got her a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It did her immediate good, and when three bottles had been taken she regained her old accustomed health and spirits and is now as well as ever. I used it for rheumatism with the result that I am now entirely free from the disease with which I had suffered a year.

A FEW FACTS.

SANTIAM, May 29, 1889.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

1st. It is a fact that a bridge is neeeded between Lebanon bridge and the Sweet Home bridge for the use of the actual settlers and tax payers of a portion of Linn county.

2nd. It is a fact that those settlers and tax payers are located in that part of the county, from McDowell creek up the Santiam for several miles.

3d. It is a fact that there are scores of them, and there is room for scores more, on lands unoccupied, which is first class grain land, and would have been occupied long ago had there been a reasonably convenient way of getting out to Lebanon, or elswhere to do their trading.

4th. It is a fact that those people who sent up a petition to our county court for a bridge at the mouth of McDowell creek, were those who knew just what they wanted and where they wanted it.

5th. It is a fact that there is not to exceed ten of the hundreds of signers of the petition for a bridge at Waterloo who can show for a fact that they are located so that a bridge at that place would be anything more than a rare convenience.

6th. It is a fact that a bridge at Waterloo will not enhance the value of land to any extent worth mentioning if any at all, except it might cause the some few living in Waterloo to think they felt a boom coming, and ask an imaginary price for their property.

7th It is a fact that a bridge at the mouth of McDowell creek would enhance the value of land to such an extent that there would be dollars added to the county funds to where there would only be cents with a bridge at Waterloo.

8th. It is a fact that a bridge at McDowell creek would have a county road at both ends, but at Waterloo one end of the bridge would have no road.

9. It is a fact that the people of Hamilton creek have never asked for a bridge since they got this bridge at Lebanon, but Waterloo citizens have done the asking, and there is where all the bridge interest is located.

10th. It is a fact that there are many more facts which are inseparable connected with this subject which time will not now permit mentioning.

OLD RESIDENT.

THEY ASK US TO FORGET.

Written for the HERALD.

'Tis many a day since we have met,
'Tis many a year: O Joe!
They say to me we must forget
Those days so long ago!
Those days when we stood soldiers there
And met this Nation's foe;
When fiery death held Crimson Court
Along the Potomac's shore,
With music by the hurtling shells,
And cannons sullen roar,
When flow'ry field's a desert grew
Begrim'd with human gore.
Strong memory holds those fateful hours
So near—Yet far away—
When forth we marched with bucyant tread,
And cheers and banners gay,
Until we came a silent band
Of Veterans, worn and gray.
Scorn'd be the wretch who can forget
The cause for which he bled!
Tho' busy years their course may run
With stern remorseless tread,
And hide the graves with grasses wild,
Where sleep Our Martyr'd Dead.

CORPORAL JOE.

A TALK WITH SULLIVAN.

He Proposes to Retire After His Fight With Kilrain.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Nellie Bly had an interview with John L. Sullivan, in which the following conversation took place:

"Do you like prize-fighting?" I asked Mr. Sullivan, "I don't he replied. "Of course, I did once, or rather I was fond of traveling about and the excitement of crowds, but this is my last fight,"

"Why?"

"Well, I am tired, and want to settle down."

"What shall you do if you stop fighting?"

"If I win this fight, I will travel for a year and give sparring exhibitions, then I will settle down. I have always wanted to run a hotel in New York, and if I am successful I think I shall spend the rest os my life as a hotel proprietor."

"How much money have you made during your career as prize-fighter?"

"I have made $500,000 or $600,000 in boxing. I made $125,000 from September 26, 1883, to May 26, 1884, when I traveled through the country offering $1000 to any one I couldn't knock out in four reunds, which takes twelve minutes."

"How will you fight Kilrain, with or without gloves?"

"I will fight Kilrain according to London prize-ring rules, that is without gloves, and allows wrestling and throwing a man down. We get a rest every thirty seconde."
