AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS.

The statistician of the agricultural department has issued his report for May, which contains some interesting information regarding the agricultural products of the European nations.

The report also shows that American farmers should give more attention to the cultivation of flax and hemp. Foreign fibers are imported into the United States in large quantities, and by growing these products at home millions of dollars could be saved.

THE NEW STATES.

It now seems positive that an element will come into congress this winter and demand a division of offices in the new states. Dakota will surely have republican members of the upper branch of congress.

China should offer a fine field for newsgatherers. Here is an item from the North China News: One day a sow belonging to Mrs. Feng happened to knock down and slightly injure the front door of a Mrs. Wang.

Two policemen in Oakland, Cal., were hauled up before the commission for dismissal because they had deserted their beats. They plead that they had deserted their duty to go to the circus of Sells Brothers.

The case of the New York murderer sentenced to death by electricity is to be carried to the supreme court on the ground that the punishment is "cruel and unusual," and as such contrary to the constitution of the United States.

unusual," and as such contrary to the constitution of the United States. That the punishment is unusual there is no doubt, but that death by electricity is cruel has not been proven.

The great faster, Dr. H. S. Tanner now proposes to be buried alive in a grave five feet deep, and after remaining in his coffin in a trance state, as he claims, for four weeks he will be dug up and resuscitated.

The supreme court of Nebraska has decided that a mortgage on a growing crop is not valid.
