THE SUFFRAGE QUESTION.

The great interests involved in the suffrage question makes it paramount to all others. The Sun in reviewing the female suffrage issue says that feminine interest is aroused in municipal elections more particularly, of course, because they involve moral issues with regard to which women are sure to have an opinion.

It is a matter of interest that our neighbor on the south is on the line of improvement with the rest of the world. Bradstreet says that Mexican journals at hand contain the address delivered by President Diaz at the recent opening of the second session of the present Mexican congress.

to by him, among them two relating to the boundary between the countries and one relating to the exchange of closed bags with certified mail.

BOULANGER still continues to be the bug-a-boo in French politics, although he is in exile. Some of the correspondents think he is destined to be the future ruler of that nation and perhaps its dictator.
