NOTICES ABOUT TOWN.

G. W. Simpson pays the highest cash price for wool. Buy your binding twine of Knapp, Burrell & Co. A supply of fine cream cheese just received at F. L. Kenton's.

Strawberries five cents per box, and fresh every morning. Leave orders for canning at Broxwell & Stanard's. Have you seen those beautiful new hats just received at Ida M. Brush's.

Eleven splendid prizes free. A coupon given gratis with every 25 cent purchase at Blum's, opposite the Revere House. A profusion of fresh fruits, including peaches, apricots, bananas, limes, oranges, etc., etc., just opened at F. H. Pfeiffer's.

Our jewelry must look out as Matthews & Washburn have the largest and finest line of jewelry in the town. Ladies go and see them. The Eagle Brick and Tile Factory near this city is now turning out 20,000 brick per day. They sell brick at 88 per thousand at the factory.

Call and see the all steel light running plow binder, the superior of chain drivers. Stand next to Mitchell & Lewis Co., Albany, Oregon. Matthews & Washburn have secured the services of Mr. M. Ludvig, who is a first class plumber and are prepared to do all kinds of work.

Thirty-five acres of land adjoining Yaquina Bay was recently sold to Albany, Corvallis and Yaquina men at $350 per acre. The land was owned by Mr. M. Schmidt. Just received at Will & Stark's a new line of jewelry in latest patterns, including pins, charms, lockets, and gold and silver jewelry of all kinds. Call and see them.

Dr. E. A. McAllister leaves for Portland this morning, going with Mr. A. Green, of Benton county, who will have his eye operated upon by Dr. McAllister, assisted by Dr. Brown. Railroad tickets are sold to all points East by F. A. Burkhardt, opposite the First National bank from $5 to $10 cheaper than they can be had over any other line. Call and see him if you want to go East.

Col. Dan Jones, the G. A. R. veteran, who left this city Wednesday for the soldiers' home in California, was compelled to stop at Eugene until the conductor could ascertain whether or not his government ticket was good. For the best roasted coffee, cream cheese, beef chipped to order, Golden Star tomatoes, at five cents for 50 cents, and all canned goods in proportion, go to Conrad Meyer. He also has some of the best and freshest rolled oats in the market.

THE FLOOD SUPPERS.

A Subscription List Started in This City for Their Relief. A subscription was started in this city yesterday afternoon for the relief of the sufferers of the flood in Pennsylvania.

A Lane County Counterfeiter.

The Eugene Register says that J. C. Byers was arrested near Cottage Grove last week on a charge of threatening to kill Mrs. Numbers. He was tried before a justice of the peace and bound over to await the action of the grand jury.

Albany College Commencement.

The entertainment by the undergraduates of the Albany college at the opera house Monday evening promises to be most interesting and enjoyable. An interesting feature will be a Gypsy operetta, in which fifty students will appear in costume.

German Temperance Address.

Mrs. Henrietta Skelton, president of the W. C. T. U. of Idaho, will deliver a temperance address in the German language on Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock in the Evangelical church, corner Fourth and Lyon streets.

Wool Wanted.

All the wool in the country can find a ready market at G. W. Simpson's store, in Albany, and the highest market price will be paid for it. Call and get the prices. He has rented a large warehouse and will charge no storage to parties who wish to hold their wool.

Avoid.

We have contracted for thousands of gallons of all kinds of berries. We have just received 100 gallons of Champion gooseberries, which we are selling at 25c per gallon. Call early and leave your orders at the lowest market price. Willamette Packing Company.

COUNTY COURT.

Contract Let for the Waterloo Bridge—The Staton Bridge. At the session of the county court held yesterday the following bridge contracts were let:

Waterloo bridge—To Hoffman & Bates for $5600, the bridge to rest upon iron piers. Crabtree and Muddy bridges—To St. John Bros. at $1700. The commissioners decided to join with Marion county and pay half of the cost of building a bridge across the Santiam at Staton, and the clerk was ordered to advertise for bids for the same.

O. W. Warren was awarded the contract of building a new fence around the court house at 24 cents per foot. Some minor bridge petitions were continued. Bill of J. N. Hoffman for services in case of H. B. Morgan, deceased, was disallowed.

The resignation of L. C. Stratton as road supervisor was accepted and Eugene Fisher appointed. It was ordered that $8 be placed in the hands of J. H. Lame for the aid of A. Hayes. In the matter of the application of A. P. Flory and others for the location of a county road, C. B. Montague, G. H. Bland and R. C. Miller were appointed viewers.

Robertson. The business will be continued under the firm name of Barde & Robertson with whom the outstanding business accounts of the old firm must be settled. BARDE & ROBERTSON. Albany, May 14, 1889.

A HAPPY REUNION.

HALSEY, June 4. Three aged sisters met on the 29th of May. Mrs. Brosies from Iowa, Mrs. Stafford from Tacoma, W. T., met Mrs. E. M. Templeton at J. R. Templeton's, two miles east of Halsey.

Mrs. Brosies met Mrs. Stafford at Tacoma the week before, whom she had not seen for fifty years. This must have been a grand sight to have seen those aged sisters meet, all widows. Mrs. Brosies has but one child living, but the others have large families, all in Oregon and Washington territory. Their ages are as follows: Mrs. Templeton 77 years, Mrs. Stafford 70, and Mrs. Brosies 67. Those three are the last of a family of ten children. Their brothers and sisters have all crossed the river into the silent land. It is remarkable how their mental faculties remain so bright and clear. In talking about their childhood days, they remember their Grandfather Ramsey, and his history when he crossed the ocean from Ireland, when he was 17 years old on the ship, the Faithful Stewart, which was wrecked on the Eastern coast (he swam ashore with nothing but the clothes on his back). He settled in Pennsylvania, became wealthy, owned several slaves, lived in a large stone house, was very strict and allowed no cooking on Sabbath, but tea for breakfast. He died very suddenly, having gone to bed late one night and was found dead in his bed next morning. T.

SPECIALTIES.

Ladies' Dress Goods and Trimmings

The largest stock and greatest variety in price and style I have ever carried, and as good value as ever offered to the citizens of Linn county.

Special Bargains

In cashmeres in colors and blacks. Seersuckers, gingham, chambrays, French prints and wash fabrics. All the novelties of the season in black and colors. I will have something further to say about these in a few days.

EMBROIDERIES, SKIRTINGS,

Flouncings, and all overs on cambrics, Swiss and India linen. I have just opened the largest invoice of novelties in this line ever exhibited in this city, and at greatly reduced prices.

PIQUES, LAWNS,

India lawns, nansooks in white, ecru and colors, all at prices very much cheaper than ever before offered in this city.

TABLE LINEN

In brown and bleached. This stock I bought in New York at less than importers' price, and am able to give good bargains. 58 inch all linen bleached at 50 cts per yard and others in proportion.

TOWELINGS

Crashes, etc. All these goods I buy direct from importers by the bale, and can sell them much cheaper than if bought of jobbers—towels I buy in quantities in New York, and am offering them at prices that are sure to sell the goods.

LADIES COTTON HOSE

Are cheaper this year than ever before. I have succeeded in getting some good bargains, all of which I am offering to my customers—the same in Misses and Children's.

The above is an outline of the policy I am going to do business on and will endeavor to do my part towards securing the trade of Linn and adjoining counties to Albany, and to keep up with the procession of the lively and growing city of Albany. I will have something to say about Carpets, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, And Other lines Soon.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.
