THE CROP-WEATHER REPORT

The crop-weather bulletin No. 15 issued by R. S. Pague, of the U. S. signal service bureau at Portland for the week ending June 15, says: The temperature has been above the normal from 8 to 12 degrees.

As an evidence of the advance made by the United States in the direction of building, it may be mentioned that the value of the building stone produced in the year 1888 was estimated at $23,500,000.

It is announced that England and the United States have come to an understanding, in accordance with which no seizures of British vessels will be made in Behring sea this season. As soon as the existing contract with the Alaska Fur Company expires an effort will be made to hold an international conference for the purpose of taking steps to jointly protect the seal-fur fisheries there, as well as in the South Pacific islands.

Reports from The Dalles and other portions of Eastern Oregon are to the effect that owing to extreme dry weather the grain crop this year will not be more than half the usual yield and in some portions of Wasco county will have entire failures.

Active business of rebuilding in Seattle shows the true pluck and energy of the people under their present most trying circumstances. Night and day the hammer and saw are applied and already one large brick block is half way up ere the ground is hardly cold from the fire.

The result of the election of directors of the O. R. & N. company seems to have been a compromise between the Villard forces and the former management, as a new man is to become president of the company.
