Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

You Cannot Afford.

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea balsam in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of BEGGS' DIARRHOEA BALSAM will do more good in cases of this kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. G. L. Blackman, druggist.

OUR GREAT NATION.

An English Opinion on the Greatness of the United States.

London Spectator.

If the United States were a small power, her "original idea of diplomacy," as the German chancellor's penman calls it, might be considered a caprice, and passed over with a smile; but her people are becoming the greatest nation in the world. It is probable that nothing short of actual violence would now induce any nation to attack her, while she could, if she pleased, almost ruin the commerce of any nation of the globe. It is true she has scarcely any regular army, her twenty-five thousand men being overworked at home; but if a neighboring planet kept no army, it would not be subject to attack.

Her coast, if threatened, would bristle with torpedoes and new means of destruction, and her protectionists would be only too glad if importation stopped. Her navy, though still small, is rapidly as to be a subject of special reports to the maritime powers; and if war were in immediate prospect her limitless command, alike of money and men, would soon draw a fleet together. Besides, apart altogether from her existing resources, the growth in the strength of the union affects the imagination of the European states.

There are children alive who will see, or at all events may see, the "North American Republic" with a population of 200,000,000 and the means of raising £300,000,000 a year; and the idea of incurring the enmity of such a power is as appalling as the idea of fighting Russia would be, say, by Italy or Spain. America could be met only by a confederation of Europe, which, without some great change of circumstances, would be impossible, or possible only if all Europe felt it too dangerous to put up with the treatment one power was receiving.

The union now stands toward the Spanish and Portuguese-American states in the relation in which she may one day stand toward Europe itself. Her foreign office already claims something like a protectorate over both Americas, and desires to wield a preponderating influence from the St. Lawrence to Patagonia, forbids any government to cut the Isthmus of Panama, and warns Europe, in a president's speech, not to meddle with any state "lying south of us," though it may be 4000 miles off.

Something About Old Maids.

There seems to be a desire on the part of every thoughtful member of society to contribute as much as possible to the comfort and happiness of the old maid. There was a time when the woman who was forced to live a single life was looked upon with a sort of pity. But that time has passed away. Spinsterhood is not now regarded as discreditable. How can it be when there are so many beautiful, charming and lovable women, not to say heiresses, who are included in its ranks? Some women remain old maids from choice. Some are old maids because they are true to the idols of other days. Some because they are fearful of the quicksands of matrimony. Others because their ideal has not yet come to them. Each, generally, has a reason for single blessedness which is both creditable and honorable; and, furthermore, each, generally, is a credit and an honor, not only to her sex but to the human race at large.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear pearly and transparent skin is always a sign of pure blood, and all persons troubled with dark, greasy, yellow or blotched skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of BEGGS' BLOOD PURIFIOR and BLOOD MAKER will remove the cause and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted. G. L. Blackman, druggist.

Woman's Discovery

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Luts." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at Foshay & Mason's Drug Store.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Political Notes and Comments from the National Capital.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONER

Capt. Armes' Punishment for Pulling the Nose of Governor Beaver—Queen Victoria's Sympathy.

[Special Correspondence.]

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The president has made the anti-Mahone Virginia republicans happy by telling a delegation of colored men that he did not contemplate recognizing Ex Senator Mahone in the distribution of federal patronage in Virginia, and to-morrow the committee appointed by the recent gathering of anti-Mahone republicans will have a hearing before the president. They will endeavor to convince him that they are the proper parties to control the patronage. It is not at all likely that the president will recognize either faction of the party in Virginia to the extent of giving them control of the federal appointments. So far, the few men appointed to office in Virginia are without exception, Mahone men, but the Mahoneites explain this by saying that ninety-nine one-hundredths of the working members of the republican party in Virginia are what is known as Mahone men, and that it is next to impossible for their opponents to get properly endorsed for office.

Secretary Tracy has ordered the commandant of the Mare Island navy yard to build a magnificent whale boat, which is to be presented to King Mataafa, of the Samoan islands, as a token of the appreciation felt by the American republic for his timely aid to our ship-wrecked sailors on his coast. The boat will be finished in about six weeks, and will be sent to Samoa in charge of three of the naval officers, survivors of the recent disaster, who will also carry an autograph letter of thanks and gratitude from the president to the king.

Civil Service Commissioner Lyman has received a telegram from his colleagues, who are making an investigation at Troy, New York, stating that owing to glaring irregularities they had cancelled the recent examination held there. A new examination will be held on the 15th inst. The commission will start West this week to make a number of investigations. The present commission seems to be determined to have the law strictly enforced, something never done before. It is not possible to make such a humbug of a law popular, but it is something to know that it is being, as far as the commissioners can control it, honestly administered.

Secretary Windom is not satisfied with the opinion given by Solicitor Hepburn, of the treasury department, that the Catholic university of America, to be established in this city cannot engage a corps of foreign instructors without violating the law prohibiting the importation of alien labor under contract, and has referred the question to the attorney-general.

Colonel John C. Kelton has been appointed adjutant-general of the army, to succeed Gen. R. C. Drum, recently placed on the retired list.

The president has commuted the sentence of dismissal from the service, which a court martial recently found against Capt. George A. Armes U. S. A., retired, to confinement within such limits as the secretary of war may prescribe, and to deprivation of the right to wear the uniform and insignia of his rank in the army for five years. Capt. Armes was charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. The principal specifications being, intruding upon the ranks of the inaugural parade, and attempting to pull the nose of Gov. Beaver, in a hotel lobby. Armes is generally regarded as a little more than half-cracked, but his war record was an unusually brilliant one, and it has pulled him through several scrapes as bad as this one.

The federal office-holder spoken of last week as having offered a toast to the assassin of President Lincoln, has been removed and a good republican appointed in his place.

Among the small number of appointments made by the president last week was one colored man—Chas. Hendley, of Alexandria, who is made receiver of public moneys at Huntsville, Ala. He is principal of the public schools and editor of the Gazette, at Huntsville.

Gov. Foraker's private secretary spent several days in Washington last week and his presence started all sorts of political speculations. One story that obtained greater evidence than any other of the rest said that Foraker had made up his mind that he would be a candidate for governor of Ohio for the third time, and that he had sent his secretary here to acquaint the president with his designs and also to urge upon him the necessity of appointing certain gentlemen, friends of the governor, to certain positions. How much truth, if any, there is in the story I have been unable to discover.

Secretary Blaine accompanied the British minister in a call on the president, Saturday, for the purpose of conveying to him the sympathy of the queen of England for the American people in the great flood disaster. The president replied in a few fitting words.

Public Printer Palmer expects to have to furlough a number of his employes, owing to the exhausted condition of the appropriation for this, the last quarter of the fiscal year. The new appropriation will be available.
