THE CHRONICLE seems to doubt the genuineness of the story that the Apache Indian Geronimo has become a good Sunday school scholar.

THOMAS NASH has left his position as cartoonist on the San Francisco Examiner, and has been employed by the proprietors of Time, a New York illustrated republican paper.

The passage of time has given such an air of improbability to the yarns relative to Gen. Washington's alleged body servants, that some new personage had to be hunted up to stand sponsor for said colored individuals.

EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH, of Austria, is to be added to the list of royal contributors to the fund for the relief of the Johnstown sufferers.

English capitalists are looking with envious eyes upon the watch factories of this country, which, thanks to the bounteous aid of the tariff, have prospered beyond measure.

New Mexico now wants to come into the Union. She should be allowed to come in. This country has room for all of the territories within the circle of states.

Many things combined have suggested to the Gladstonians that this broader plan for home rule for Ireland is more likely to meet with success.

It is believed to be true that if each of these countries were balanced against each other by local self-government, each would be inspired by a pride in maintaining the integrity and dignity of the whole.

A singular decision has been rendered by the interstate commerce commission in a case against the Southern Pacific, lessee of the Central Pacific, and the Union Pacific railroad companies.
