A Fortunate Druggist.

Dr. Edwin W. Joy a prosperous druggist at the corner of Stockton and Market streets, in San Francisco, probably never dreamed of rivaling in wealth the medicine kings of the country. But various rumors having been floating around to the effect that he has struck it big, an Examiner reporter was detailed to unearth the cause. It seems that about seven years ago an English physician, a great student of Botany, located in this city. His practice was not extensive, and yet the few cases that came to him attracted no little attention. His great success seemed to be in the treatment of liver and kidney disorders and vitiated blood. He seemed almost infallible, and his well-kept secret was as much a mystery as himself. After his departure Mr. Joy determined to fathom the secret, and copying all the prescriptions he had filled for the erratic doctor, he began a systematic analysis. He discovered running all through the prescriptions for liver and kidney troubles, vitiated blood and stomach disorders a couple of vegetable extracts indigenous to California so simple and so well known under home-very day names to every school boy as entirely dissipate the suspicion that they were the active principles involved. So certain, however, was Mr. Joy that he had discovered the secret that he embodied the new elements in a preparation of Sarsaparilla to disguise the taste, and put it before his customers under the modest name of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Immediately the same stories came back of its astonishing effects, and the mystery was solved, and the talk it has created has already caused it to step into prominence, and orders pour in daily from all over the coast. And thus another California industry leaps into existence.—S. F. Examiner.

Are We to Have Another War

Some political prophets aver that we shall. Be that as it may, the battle waged by medical science against disease will never cease until we arrive at the utopian epoch when the human family shall cease to be afflicted with bodily ailments. One of the most potent weapons which the armory of medicine furnishes, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is of special utility as a family remedy, as it is adapted to the immediate relief and ultimate cure of those disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which are of commonest occurrence. Indigestion, biliousness and constipation are inseparable companions, as the ailments are completely eradicated by the Bitters. But the remedial scope of this superlatively wholesome and general medicine takes in also nervous ailments, rheumatism and kidney troubles; its action in these, as in the other complaints, being characterized by unequalled tone.

An Oregon Woman Missing.

Mrs. Noyes, of The Dalles, Or., is missing, says the Tacoma Ledger. Her son is in Tacoma looking for her, and with the aid of Chief of Police Chesney, hopes to locate her. Mrs. Noyes was in Portland, headed towards the Sound, on July 2. Mr Noyes has not heard of his mother since. The old lady was accustomed to travel and her disappearance is to her son a great mystery.

A Perfect Laxative

should be mild, and prompt and pleasant, with no griping or purgative effects. It should also incite the liver to action, aid digestion, and relieve the kidneys. Like nothing else, Paine's Celery Compound is a perfect laxative and cures constipation where all other remedies fail. "As a gentle laxative Paine's Celery Compound is surely without a peer. I think I ought to know, since I have tried remedy after remedy for about six years, and have found nothing that equaled it in my case of constipation." J. B. JENKINS, Teacher, Clay's Creek, Tenn.

Pain's Celery Compound is prompt and pleasant. As a laxative it leaves little to be desired. I have great confidence in its merits." ALBERT LEANARD, Asst. Editor Jour. of Pedagogy, Athens, Ohio. "For two or three years years I suffered intensely with severe pains in my bowels, which were habitually constipated. My bowels are now regular, and I have had no return of these pains since using one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound." F. G. STICKNEY, Druggist, Havana, Ala. Moral: Use Paine's Celery Compound and stop purging the intestinal tract with harsh purgative pills. $1.00. Six for $5.00. Druggists. Wells Richardson & Co. Burlington, Vt.
