WEEKLY: Published every Friday morning...

THE GRAIN FIELD.

The New York Times publishes a despatch from London to the effect that the United States this year will be required to make good a deficit in the grain supply of Europe...

Heretofore England has imported the great bulk of her wheat from Russia and Austro-Hungary...

Reports from different sections of the United States show that our wheat crop is not likely to be very large. The crop in the Northwest threatens to be a poor one...

THE OBNOXIOUS MORMONS.

The Mormons are content with their operations in Utah, are just now endeavoring to spread their selfish doctrine over the entire country...

Two Justices of the Peace subsequently prepared a big dinner and invited the community at large to come and hear Mr. Barrett preach and give him protection...

Unless measures are taken soon to suppress the blot upon the fair name of our country, serious trouble, violence and bloodshed will ultimately follow.

An English gentleman who is connected with some of the moneyed syndicates which are creating so much talk in the newspapers at the present time has explained the reason why so much foreign capital is seeking investment in the United States just at present. "In the first place," he said, "this syndicate is not operating with English capital altogether. Money from all sections of the continent pours into London for the purpose of being invested in American enterprises...

For a small amount of money that will in a year's time double or triple your money, such an opportunity is offered in South Albany...

Mr. L. Sanders, of this city, will buy all the clean timothy hay brought to him in lightly compressed bales...
