OVER THE WIRES.

The Pilgrims Have a Monument Dedicated to Them.

MONTREAL OVER EXCITED.

The Weather Buys a Newspaper—What the Treasury Contains—The Queen and Her Son.

The Herald's Special Dispatches.

Plymouth, Mass., August 1.—The grand national monument in honor of the pilgrims was dedicated today. The Sons and Daughters of Plymouth were here in great numbers; also visitors from far and near. The early part of the morning was unpropitious and it was necessary to view the parade from beneath umbrellas. The celebration began at sunrise with salutes and ringing of bells. The morning trains brought vast numbers of visitors. A great throng surrounded the monument at 9:30 A. M. The dedicatory exercises were carried out by the Masonic Grand Lodge according to the Ritual of their order.

SEIZURE TOPICS.

They Still Worry the Canadians Into Fits.

New York, August 1.—A special from Montreal says that city is in a perfect furore of excitement over the seizure of the schooner Black Diamond. Expressions are heard on every hand that unless the vessel is released and full indemnity paid by the United States that government must stand the consequences of what may follow. Here almost as much disgust is expressed at the action of England in the business, and if she will not help Canada to uphold her honor the sooner Canada takes the defense of that honor in her own hands the better. Both the morning papers published strong leaders demanding immediate action on the part of England or our own government to prevent the seizure or else break off relations with the United States till a final settlement of the trouble is arrived at.

QUITE A FEW SCADS.

The Treasurer Receipts for the Amount in the Vaults.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—Treasurer Huston today gave a receipt to Treasurer Wyatt for $771,500,000, representing the amount of money and securities in the United States treasury, turned over by the latter to the former. Of the above $257,208,402 is in actual excess, and the remainder, including United States bonds, reserve fund.

A Conference.

BELGRADE, August 1.—A conference was held today between King Milan and the regents to consider further relations between Natalie and her son resulted in a decision that the queen should meet her son only outside of Serbia.

Newspaper Change.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—A. W. Lyman, who for several years has had charge of the Washington bureau of the New York Sun, has purchased a controlling interest in the Independent and will take possession today.

Cooler Weather.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—Forecast to 8 A. M. Friday, for Oregon and Washington territory: Fair weather, variable winds, slightly cooler.

REPARATION EXPECTED.

The Claims of American Women Against France.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Minister Reid has informed the State Department by message received today that he has taken in Paris the statements of Miss Van Nostrand and Mrs. Dorr. These are the ladies who had trouble at Mentone with a dressmaker and at Nice were seized and thrown into prison until the dressmaker's claim was paid. The case as recorded was a particularly exasperating one, and the state department ordered an investigation by our representatives in France. The attitude of the French government in the case is said to have been friendly and conciliatory and ample reparation for all damages inflicted is confidently expected.

LATE ALASKAN NEWS.

A Whaling Bark Crushed in the Ice—The U. S. Squadron.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—The Alaska Commercial Company's steamer Dora, which arrived here last night from Seal Island, Alaska, brings tidings of the United States fleet in Alaskan waters. The United States steamer Thetis was at Onalaska on July 4th, and left St. Michael's on July 8th for the Arctic seas. The Bear had proceeded direct from Onalaska to the Arctic with the Point Barrow supply expedition on board. The United States survey expedition appointed to establish the boundary line between Alaska and British America arrived safely at St. Michael's and on July 10th was awaiting the fitting up of their boat in which they will make the journey up the Yukon river.

Among the passengers arriving on the Dora last evening were two of the survivors of the American whaling bark Ohio, which was wrecked four weeks ago. About a year ago the whaler known as the Little Ohio was lost, but the news of her fate did not reach civilization until this year.

The Big Ohio was crushed in the ice on Noutnivak island. She was very near the shore when the accident occurred. The crew were taken on by other whalers who were in the vicinity and most of them placed on board the United States steamer Thetis. Two of the men returned on the Dora. The vessel was a total loss. She was owned by Aitken & Swift of San Francisco and was fitted up here a year ago.

The Catholic Mission established on the Yukon river by the Sisters of Charity is in a most prosperous condition and the Sisters are well pleased with their prospects.

AN OMAHA SCANDAL.

Charges Against a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army.

OMAHA, July 31.—Mrs. McFarland of Philadelphia is by no means proud of her distinguished military brother-in-law, Lieutenant Colonel Fletcher, ex-Commandant at Omaha. She took the stand before the court-martial at the fort this morning and to-day what a time she had of it when she visited her sister at the fort last June. The Colonel, she said, accused his wife of infidelity repeatedly in her presence, and abused her after a most un-gallant and unsoldierly fashion. The Colonel's lawyer had all the reporters dismissed from the room, and then asked Mrs. McFarland whether she herself had not been unkindly intimate with some Omaha citizens during her stay here. The pretty little woman, a blue-eyed blond with indignation as she replied that her conduct had been above suspicion.

AN ENGLISH OUTRAGE.

Detectives Tamper With a Letter From Harrison.

LONDON, July 31.—The Lord Mayor of Dublin is in a towering rage. He says that an official envelope containing a letter addressed to him by President Harrison was tampered with. The seal was melted, the envelope opened, and refastened with another kind of gum, and the American crest defaced. The letter, dated Washington, July 15th, was as follows:

Right Honorable Thomas Sexton, M. P., Lord-Mayor of the City of Dublin, Ireland.—Sir: I have the honor to inform you that the President has received your communication of the 17th of June inclosing an address to him by the Municipal Council of the city of Dublin expressive of sympathy with the American people in the recent calamity in Pennsylvania. The President amply appreciated the exceedingly kind spirit which you preside, and he desires me to convey to you his warmest thanks on behalf of himself and of the American people, both for your touching expressions of sympathy and for the previous gifts of citizens of Dublin for the relief of sufferers of Johnstown.

Sir, your obedient servant, WILLIAM F. WHARTON, Acting Secretary.

It is not likely that Sexton will allow the matter to drop.

Disarming an Unseen Foe.

"This was sometime a paradox," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Whatever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnate the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malarious localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy's powerless. Cures, likewise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and bilious ailments.

Mrs. Jacob Scouder, of Springfield, Ohio, while visiting with her father, in law at Gaynor City, Mo., was taken very sick with cholera morbus. A physician was sent for, but as the doctor was not at home, Mr. S. F. While a merchant of Gaynor City, a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and ask him to try that, and if it did not cure, he need not pay for it; but it did its work, and before returning to her home, they called and procured another bottle. Uncle John Scouder says, he never saw cholera, but Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Foshy & Mason.

Not a California Bear.

Anybody can catch a cold this kind of weather. The trouble is to let go, like the man who caught the bear. We advise our readers to purchase of Foshy & Mason a bottle of Santa Able, the California King of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs and Croup Cure, and keep it handy. The pleasing to the taste and death to the above complaints. Sold at $1.00 a bottle or 3 for $2.50. California Cat-Cure gives immediate relief. The Catarrhal virus is soon displaced by its healing and penetrating nature. Give it a trial. Six months treatment $1.00, sent by mail $1.10.

UNCLE SAM'S DISHONESTY.

How the Government Has Profited by Un-Paid Money Orders.

Washington Letter to Indianapolis Journal.

For seventeen years after the establishment of the money-order system in this country the funds secured through unpaid money orders were stored up and hoarded, just as though the United States Government had made a good speculation. No attempts were ever made to ascertain the real owners of this money which had been trusted to Uncle Sam's care, but the sum went on accumulating until it had reached the enormous figure of about $1,700,000. Then Congress took hold. The legislative branch of the Government decided that the money thus held was illegally held, and that no pains should be spared to ascertain to whom it belonged, and a clause was attached to one of the bills appropriating money for the support of the Postoffice Department authorizing the employment of a number of clerks, whose duty it should be to ascertain the rightful owners of this money-order fund, and every effort made to restore it. Congress also provides that hereafter, whenever an "advice" in relation to an order, which should remain unpaid in the hands of a postmaster a certain number of days without the money having been claimed, was received, it should be the duty of the postmaster to notify the payee. If this failed to secure the payment of the money to the rightful party, the sender was to be notified and steps were devised by which he might secure the money which had not been paid to the person to whom he desired it should go.

Under the latter act there has been a great falling off in the accumulation of the money-order fund to the credit of the money-order fund in New York, and under the instructions of Congress some clerks in the Money Order Department have been engaged for some years in making out a list of all unpaid orders, together with the name of the purchaser of the order and the party to whom it was sent. These lists make an enormous bill of manuscript, and although they are not yet completed, they have been instrumental in restoring a great deal of the money to the rightful owners. Just how much has been paid back cannot be ascertained at this time without a great deal of work, but that there still remains more than $1,000,000 piled away in the Sub Treasury in New York to the credit of the money-order fund is beyond dispute.

Ordinary business honesty would have demanded that this fund
