The condition of Nick Zimmerman, who was shot two weeks ago by Bernard Wensen, remains unchanged. His chances of recovery are slight, but having survived so long his attending physician, Dr. M. H. Ellis, has gained hopes of pulling him through.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Tendency of Trade Toward a Wholesale Business—Wool and Grain Shippers.

There is no better opening on the Pacific Coast for a wholesale and jobbing grocery or dry goods business than in Albany.

In this connection it might be stated that during the present season about 25,000 pounds of wool has been hauled across the mountains in wagons to this city, for which 19 cents per pound was paid.

These transportation facilities, together with the natural advantages of Albany, is beginning to attract the attention of capitalists.

LETTER FROM YAQUINA

Attractions for Pleasure-Seekers Down by the Sea—The Jetty, Etc.

Newport, Aug. 16. We have just returned from an encounter with the briny deep, and having laid aside the bathing suit for ordinary habiliments, we are sunning ourselves, turtle like, and devote a little time to the columns of the Daily Herald.

The light house, Seal rock, Otter rock, the wreck of the Yaquina Bay and the cave above Nile creek. With the exception of Seal rock and Otter rock these places may be seen by the average pedestrian.

The bathing is an everyday occurrence. The major part of the people bathe at Newport and Nile creek. May we stop for a minute to ensure the dressing rooms at Newport. Of all the comfortable, sloppy, convenient, lowly, crowded places where people pay for the privilege of donning bathing suits and dressing, these are the worst, not a look to hangcloaking on, no heat for the chilled bather, nothing but a four by six room where six and seven people crowd in water and dirt.

Beach strolls never lose their attractions. Each outgoing tide bares the rocks to the curiosity seeker and exhibits starfish, mussels, shells, stones, mosses and various kinds of animal life peculiar to the sea.

Fishing in the bay offers its attractions. Perch are plentiful and easily caught. Deep sea fishing is largely carried on and many people indulge in it. The mischief takes her parties over the bar until all are seasick.

Building and Loan Association. At the regular monthly meeting of the Building and Loan Association held Friday evening $890 was loaned to Charles Wagner, who bid 50 months, and $400 was loaned to J. R. Stewart at 41 months.

Exhibit of Oregon Products. The Oregonian says: Prof. McElroy, who has been at work for months working up an exhibit of all the products, as well as of its various resources, will be able to give the crowds to assemble soon at Milwaukee, at the Grand Army encampment for 1889, an idea of what Oregon can produce, and what its immense resources are.

Have you heard what Mr. G. L. West, of Cambridge City, Ind., says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy? If not, here it is: "During last summer I was troubled very much with severe pains in the stomach and bowels, and was induced by a friend to try this Remedy. I took one dose, and my diarrhoea, and it gave me almost instant relief. I cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Fesby & Mason.

The "Pacific Argonaut" ranges both four and six hole. An Eastern stove made especially for this coast's trade sold only by Geo. W. Smith, Albany.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Accident at Harrisburg.—Two Warehouses Burned Near Silverton. Special to the Herald. HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—Paul Belts, a well known farmer living ten miles east of this place fell from a ladder to-day while examining drying fruit on a shed roof, breaking both bones of his left wrist. Dr. Mendenhall was called and reduced the fracture.

THE OREGON EXHIBIT. Salem, Aug. 17.—The exhibit of Oregon products prepared for the G. A. R. Encampment at Milwaukee left Salem this morning. The Northern Pacific sent a full sized baggage car here and in it grains, grasses, fruits, vegetables and other products were carefully packed.

Downs' Station, on the Narrow Gauge about three miles from Silverton, was the scene of a considerable conflagration last Thursday night. The wheat warehouse of James Downs by some means took fire and burned to the ground, despite the efforts of the people to save it. The loss will be quite heavy, as the warehouse was full of wheat, both old and new. It is impossible to give the exact amount of the loss or the origin of the fire. The fire was discovered at about 9 p. m., and the building was a smouldering ruin in a very short time.

Hay and Cuts Wanted. Mr. L. Sanders, of this city, will buy all the clean timothy hay brought to him in tightly compressed bales, for which the market price in cash will be paid. He also wants to buy oats. Stacks furnished. Deliver at stables.

Tea Commissioners. The tea commissioners at the New York harbor have been notified by the commissioners at San Francisco to keep a sharp look out at that port, as there is a great deal of very inferior tea being shipped from China and Japan, it has now become necessary for dealers to import direct and take a written guarantee, so to be sure and get a good article. We have just received a large shipment of pure uncolored Japan tea, called Unity, which can be seen displayed in our show window; also a pure China tea set of fifty-four pieces, valued at $15, which we offer as a gift to the person guessing the correct or nearest correct number of beans contained in a glass pot. One guess is allowed for each pound bought of this tea. At the Willamette Packing Company's store.

IT WAS LONG ENOUGH. Colonel—Well, what's the matter now? Private—I've got liver trouble and dyspepsia, and ought to get leave for thirty days. Colonel—I'll give you ten, and if you take Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla that will be long enough. Fred H. Blecker, of the Baldwin Hotel, San Francisco, writes: I have spent many a dollar for medicines, but the only thing that ever stopped my liver trouble and dyspepsia was Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Gustav Solomon, of 22 Valencia street, San Francisco, writes that it has entirely freed him of his indigestion and sick headaches.
