The Charge Against Justice Field Dismissed.

GOV. WATERMAN'S LETTER.

A Schooner Load of Seal Skins Arrives at Victoria from Behring Sea—The Charleston Is All Right.

The HERALD'S Special Dispatches.

SAN FRANCIRCO, Aug. 24.—It was learned to-day that the following letter was written to Attorney-General Johnson by Governor Waterman three days ago:

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 21.

Hon. G. A. Johnson, attorney-general—Dear sir—The arrest of Hon. Stephen J. Field, justice of the supreme court of the United States, on the unsupported oath of a woman, who on the very day the oath was taken and often before threatened his life, will be a burning disgrace to the state unless disavowed. I therefore urge upon you the propriety of at once instructing the district attorney of San Joaquin county to dismiss the unwarranted proceeding against him. The question of the jurisdiction of the state courts in the case of Deputy United States Marshal Nagle is one for argument. The unprecedented indignity on Justice Field does not admit of argument. Yours truly,

R. W. WATERMAN, governor.

NAGLE'S CASE.

STOCKTON, Aug. 24.—The district attorney went into the justice's court this morning and moved for a continuance in the Nagle case until Thursday next, and it was so ordered. The charge against Field was dismissed and was not referred to in prosecuting Nagle's case.

THE CRUISER CHARLESTON.

She is Satisfactorily Tested and Will Be Accepted.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Aug. 24—The cruiser Charleston arrived off San Pedro at 9 o'clock this morning, having made an official trial of four hour's run from Port Hartford to Santa Barbara yesterday afternoon. The trial was successful in every way. The Cruiser made 18½ knots per hour during the whole run, and developed 6700 horse power. Commodore Benham has prepared a dispatch to the navy department stating that the trial trip was satisfactory, and that the boat's engine and machinery worked admirably. The Charleston came here for fuel and will leave today for San Francisco.

HIPPOLYTE PRESIDENT.

Legitime Abandons Port au Prince and Leaves in a Gunboat.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Dispatches from Port au Prince, dated to-day at Mole, St. Nicholas, say that Legitime, the rival of Hippolyte for the presidency of Hayti, has abdicated. Legitime embarked on a French gunboat on August 22, and Hippolyte peacefully entered Legitime's late stronghold, Port au Prince, two days later. A temporary government has been formed. The American war ship Kearsage has moved nearer the city, and Admiral Gherardi is master of the situation.

VERY EASILY WHIPPED.

A Californian Knocks Out a Massachusetts Man in the 5th Round.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Aug. 24.—George Bush, of California, and Henry W. Watson, of Billerica, Mass., fought to a finish early this morning, just over the New Hampshire line. Bush had his own way from the start and knocked out Watson in the fifth round. The fight was for $300.

A Seal Catch.

VICTORIA, (B. C.), Aug. 24.—Yesterday afternoon the schooner Sapphire arrived from Behring sea, having on board 2520 skins, 1625 of which were taken in sea balance along the coast.

Black Silk Scarfs.

I received to-day an invoice of Chantilla and Spanish lace scarfs, hand run, ranging in price from $4 to $11 each. They are very nice and stylish, a new thing, and the price is right. Samuel E. Young

HUMOROUS DRIFT.

The man who ought to listen and learn usually does most of the talking.

It always makes the fleas mad to kill the dog they have been attached to.

When a vessel hugs the shore what follows? Why, a little smack on the beach, to be sure.

He—What would you do if I were to offer to give you a kiss? She—See if my little brother is under the sofa.

He—Will you marry me? She (coyly)—No; nor I won't be a sister either. You're too young. He—Will you be a grandmother to me, then?

Tramp (to lady of the house)—I'm starving to death! Can I die out in the barnyard? Lady of the house (graciously)—Yes, if you won't crawl under the barn.

"Were you carefully brought up, young man?" said the merchant to an applicant for a position, in his establishment. "Yes, sir," he replied, "I came up on the elevator."

A policeman offered his hand to a young lady and was refused. He arrested her. "What is the charge?" asked the sergeant at the station house. "Resisting an officer, sir," was the reply.

Mrs. Jason—What a poor spirited creature you are, Jehel. I wish you would be either a man or a mouse." Mr. Jason—I wish I was a mouse. I'd make you climb the bedpost in a holy minute.

He—Do you read the current fiction of the day? She—Not extensively, I am ashamed to say. However, I did wade through "Robert Elsmere," and I intended to read this "Pigs in Clover," which everybody is talking about.

Chief detective—This man whom you have arrested is wonderfully disguished as a woman. How did you recognize him, by the way he fumbled for his pocket? Assistant—No; I watched him go into a big store, and he bought the first thing he priced, and then came right out."

"Do you know," said DeCloot, "that when I was a small boy I was saved by a blow. I became suddenly unconscious, and father, believing that I was shamming, applied a shingle with great vigor." "A lick, sir, of life," said the office boy, softly, as he shooed the cockroaches out of the paste pot."

NOTES OF INTEREST.

Queen Victoria will have her colonel's uniform cut decollete. As a prominent warrior she thinks she ought to bare arms.

Suicide among German officers increases shockingly. During May twenty-three shot themselves, and the number for June was larger still.

Secretary Proctor is less known in Washington than any other cabinet official. "Jerry" Rusk is the best known member and the most popular with the masses.

George Freeman and wife, of Lathop, Missouri, have been married thirty threeyears and are the parents of twenty-seven children.

Over a grocer's shop in James street, Westminister, which Mr. Gladstone passes every time he goes to St. Stephen's, is a big sign, "Parnell's Bacon for the Times." It is a bona fide business announcement, with no political significance.

Tennyson has a horror of the biographer. He keeps no diary, and has destroyed his correspondence and all records of it. He is reported to have said to a friend recently: "When I am dead I will take good care they shall not rip me up like a pig."

The tree in Washington to which Jefferson tied his horse and then entered the capitol to be inaugurated as president is still living. It stands close to the fence, just inside Botanical Gardens; a students looking tree, but greatly prized in Washington as a relic of the days of "Jeffersonian simplicity."

THE MINISTER HEARS A LOUDER CALL

"Beloved flock," the parson said, then paused and wiped his eyes.
"As pastor and as people we must sever tender ties;
I've a call to go to Blanktown to be their chosen pastor;
A call so loud to disobey, I fear, would grieve the Master."

Replied the spokesman of the flock:
"Though loud the call may be
We'll call you louder to remain; an X or every V
Those Blanktown people offer you we'll give to keep you here,
We trust you'll hear a voice divine, our call's so loud and clear."

With sobbing voice the parson said:
"My duty's clearer now;
I'll stay with you, beloved ones; to heaven's will I bow
So let us sing 'Blest be the tie,' and sing it clear and strong;
To leave you when you call so loud would be exceeding wrong:"

Then in his study sat he down, a letter to indite
Unto the church at Blanktown. Thus did the parson write:
"I've wrestled o'er your call with prayer; the Lord bids me to stay.
And, consecrated to His work, I dare not disobey."

TOLD BY THE NAILS.

Fortunes Disclosed by Marks on the Finger Tips.

Medical Classis.

Fortune-telling by means of the finger-nails, onychomancy, as it was called, was not uncommon in ancient times. The practice was to rub the nails with oil and soot or wax and to hold up the nails, thus prepared, against the sun and upon the transparent horny substance were supposed to appear figures or characters, which gave the answered required. In more recent times people have been found predicting by means of nails of the hand and telling the disposition of person with certain descriptions of the nails. However absurb it may appear, we shall give examples of this superstition: A person with broad nails is of gentle nature, timid and bashful. Those whose nails grow into the flesh at the points or sides are given to luxury. A white mark on the nail bespeaks misfortune. Persons with very pale nails are subject to much infirmity of the flesh, and persecution by neighbors and friends. People with narrow nails are ambitious and quarrelsome. Lovers of knowledge and liberal sentiment have round nails. Indolent people have enerally fleshy nails. Small nails indicate littleness of mind, obstinacy, and conceit. Melancholy persons are distinquished by their pale or lead-colored nails; and choleric, martial men, delighting in war, have red and spotted nails.

An Exercise in Pronunciation.

The following rather curious piece of composition was once placed upon a blackboard at a teachers' institute, and a prize offered to any person who could read and pronounce every word correctly. The prize was not carried off, however, as twelve was the lowest number of mistakes in the pronunciation made: "A sacrilegious son of Belial, who suffered from bronchitis, having exhausted his finances, in order to make good the deficit, resolved to ally himself to a comely, lenient, and docile young lady of the Maylay or Caucasian race. He accordingly purchased a calliope and coral necklace of a chameleon hue, and securing a suite of rooms at a principal hotel he engaged the head waiter as a coadjuter. He then dispatched a letter of the most unexceptional caligraphy extant, inviting the young lady to a matinee. She revolted at the idea, refused to consider herself sacrificable to his desires, and sent a polite note of refusal; on receiving which he procured a carbine and bowie-knife, said that he would not now forge letters hymeneal with the queen, went to an isolated spot, severed his jugular vein and discharged the contents of the carbine into his abdomen. The debris was removed by the coroner."

Fine Suitings.
