EDITORIAL NOTES.

Three sizes of postal cards are hereafter to be supplied, instead of one, as at present.

The Oregon Press Association concluded its third annual session at Newport Saturday.

Hor picking will commence in the Willamette Valley within a few days.

There are 123 Chinese schools and missions in this country. The average attendance is about 1,600.

Young Mrs. James G. Blaine, who was recently divorced from her husband and who is about to make her appearance on the stage, has made a resolution, for which we can almost forgive her for the step she has taken.

The transaction recently concluded on the part of the United States Government with the Sioux Indians will put at the disposal of the Department of the Interior about 11,000,000 acres of land, which is equal to the combined area of the States of Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

While it is shown at the exposition at Paris that America has hitherto paid more attention to mechanical and scientific inventions than to the fine arts, it is nevertheless a fact that the advancement in the latter field has been in no small degree.

There are angry and dangerous dissensions in Canada which have their origin in differences of race and religion. The French Canadians of the province of Quebec stand together as Frenchmen and Roman Catholics, and to them are opposed Canadians of English descent and Protestant convictions.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

Contributed by the W. C. U. An honest sign for a saloon-keeper: Ails sold here.

A work-house in Birmingham recently gave a holiday to its five hundred male occupants.

Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop who was in Albany a few years since, will spend six weeks after the middle of August working for prohibition.

The Dakotas are now absorbing the interests of temperance people. Since the territory was divided into states, the subject of constitutional prohibition has been thoroughly discussed.

The ways of the saloonkeeper are beyond understanding. In Chicago it is said that some of the saloon-keepers keep little stools on which the little children may stand when sent for beer.

Merit Wins. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies may win their great popularity purely on their merits. Foshay & Mason, Druggists.

A Safe Investment. Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised Druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.
